University of Nebraska-Lincoln Athletic Director Bob Devaney and Cornhusker Football coach Tom Osborne, both of whom celebrate milestone years with the 1992 Football season. For Devaney, it will be his final campaign as the Huskers' AD, as he steps down to become Athletic Director Emeritus on Jan. 4, 1993. It's Bob's 31st season with the Cornhuskers, since becoming head football coach in 1962. He resuscitated a moribund program and, in the space of just two years, made Nebraska the national football power that it is today. In 1967, he added the title of Athletic Director and proceeded to remake the overall NU athletic program into one of the finest in the country, with some of the finest facilities in the country. (Please see Don Bryant's tribute to Bob Devaney on pages 4 and 5). Devaney retired as football coach after the 1972 season as the nation's winningest active coach, with a 16-year record of 136-36-7 (101-20-2 in 11 years at Nebraska), including two national and eight Big Eight titles—a career that landed him in the National Football Hall of Fame in 1981.

When Devaney gave up his coaching chores, he turned the grid program over to Osborne, who has gone on to become the nation's win-ningest active coach in his own right, and goes into his 20th year as the Husker's head coach with a record of 186-43-3 for an .808 winning percentage. Osborne has won more games and coached in more games than any football coach in Big Eight Conference history. He and Devaney are the only two coaches to ever win 100 games back-to-back at the same school. Under their combined tutelage, Nebraska has had 30 consecutive winning seasons, a continuing NCAA record, and has had 23 consecutive seasons with at least nine wins, another continuing NCAA record.

Bob Devaney

Devaney has done it all in 30 years at NU

By Don Bryant, Bob Devaney's Friend

It seems like only yesterday that I met an Irishman from Michigan by way of Wyoming. I find it hard to believe that more than 30 years have elapsed since that day in the University of Nebraska Coliseum.

Likewise, I find it hard to believe that Bob Devaney will be serving his 31st year at the University of Nebraska this fall—and his final months as athletic director.

So much has transpired since that January day in 1962 when Tippy Dye introduced Bob Devaney and Jim Ross to the news media. We met that day for the first time—as Bob charmed the media, always his trademark throughout his illustrious career—but I learned later that we had been “neighbors” on one occasion.

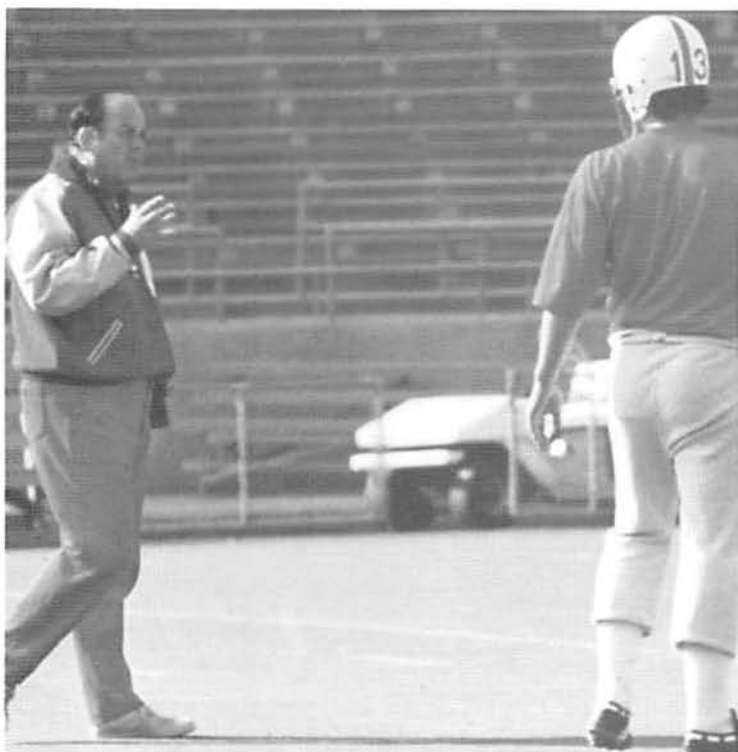

When the University was searching for a successor to Bill Jennings, who had resigned as head football coach after the 1961 season, Chancellor Clifford Hardin and the Board of Regents—led by the late Clarence Swanson—wanted a proven head coach. That search led to Wyoming where Devaney was piling up victories at an impressive pace during a five-year run.

While the Nebraska news media frantically searched for candidates for the Cornhusker job (I was sports editor of the Lincoln Star at the time), Devaney came to Lincoln for a visit under the assumed name of “Mr. Roberts.” While I burned the midnight oil making phone calls around the country, Bob spent the night in the house of Joe Soshnik, then vice chancellor and comptroller at NU. Only a couple of backyards separated Joe’s house from mine, but I missed my chance for a scoop.

Like all Nebraskans, the members of the news media in 1962 were starved for a winning football team. We appreciated Devaney’s candor, humor and enthusiasm. Most of us felt, I’m sure, that Devaney had the stuff to make some improvements in the Nebraska football program. But not one of us dared to dream of the magic act Bob Devaney would perform on the Cornhusker sports scene and, indeed, on the entire state of Nebraska.

True, Devaney inherited some great players from the Jennings era—Dennis Claridge, Lloyd Voss, Bob Brown, Willie Ross and many others. But they had gone 3-6-1 the year before. Over-optimism wasn't prevalent as the 1962 season opened, but there was considerable hope.

Seldom, however, has a state seen such euphoria as that which flowed from the Missouri River to the Panhandle when those Cornhuskers won their first six games, including a great win at Michigan and a come-from-behind victory over North Carolina State.

A home loss to Missouri erased notions that Devaney had wrought invincibility, but the next week his Huskers bounced back to humiliate a fine Kansas team, led by All-American Gale Sayers—the Omaha star who had escaped Jennings' recruiting trap. Another miracle was to come at the conclusion of the 8-2-0 regular season, which ended with a loss to Oklahoma. Nebraska was invited to the Gotham Bowl in New York City.

While there were nervous moments as the team sat at the Lincoln Airport waiting for the promoter of the post-season game to produce the $35,000 guarantee, Nebraska finally got to Gotham and won a sensational 36-34 victory over Miami, despite George Mira's 300-yard-plus passing day.

No doubt about it, from that moment on, Devaney was a Nebraskan. Next would come four-straight Big Eight championships, Orange, Cotton and Sugar Bowl trips, national rankings, All-Americans and homage from Nebraska fans everywhere.

A couple of 6-4 seasons, in 1967 and 1968, caused some grumbles, but Devaney's fighting Irish instincts—and devilish humor—brought his program into full fruition, starting in 1969 when the Huskers socked Oklahoma at Norman and launched a 32-game unbeaten string.

Ah, 1970 and 1971, the glory years. Two national championships that saw the Huskers edge LSU in the Orange Bowl for No. 1 on New Year's Night of 1971, then roar through 13-straight opponents in the fall to clinch a second-straight title.

Nothing in Nebraska lore compares to the emotion, the glamour and the exultation of that sensational 35-31 victory over Oklahoma in the 1971 "Game of the Century." And toss in a 38-6 drubbing of Bear Bryant's unbeaten Alabama team in the Orange Bowl for dessert.

Devaney would coach one more year, win an eighth Big Eight title, and whip Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl before making another of his patented great moves: Tapping his assistant, Tom Osborne, to carry on the Cornhusker legacy of excellence. Twenty years later, the wisdom of that decision remains unchallenged.

In 1967, Devaney had become athletic director, in addition to his head coaching duties, and from 1973 on, he turned his full attention to an all-sports agenda. Remarkably, the genial Irishman who once fought in the ring under the name of "Duke" Devaney, produced as sensationally in administration as he did on the gridiron.

What a 25-year monument: Memorial Stadium expansion, AstroTurf field, Stadium office building, Bob Devaney Sports Center (thanks to a cigarette tax he helped engineer that still fuels many projects for Nebraskans), Buck Beltzer Field, Ed Weir Track, Cook Pavilion, Sapp Recreation Center for faculty and students, NU Softball Complex, state-of-the-art weight rooms, ditto academic facilities and ever so many other projects that moved the University of Nebraska into the forefront of intercollegiate excellence.

Not to be overlooked, also, is Devaney's leadership in the development of an outstanding women's program that measures up with any in the nation. His 21-sport department has been the Big Eight leader for years and teams in football, volleyball, gymnastics, basketball, swimming, wrestling and others compete at a high national level.

Time, of course, marches on and Bob Devaney will move into Athletic Director Emeritus life in January—reluctantly, too, thanks to his competitive nature that served him so well on the football field and in administration. But move on he will, and who can guess what challenges he'll meet and conquer in future years.

After all, no one person could accomplish all the things that have transformed the University of Nebraska athletic program and the state of Nebraska's psyche during the past 30 years.

But, by golly, Bob Devaney did—and all of us are grateful.

Noting the 1992 Huskers

Milestone Year I: The 1992 football season will be a milestone year in the career of Coach Tom Osborne, as he will be in his 20th season at the Cornhusker helm. That's the longest tenure ever for a Nebraska football coach, and the second-longest in Big Eight history, behind Bennie Owen, who coached 22 years at Oklahoma from 1905-26. Osborne heads into the 1992 season as the winningest active coach in the NCAA's Division I-A, owning a mark of 186-43-3 for an .808 winning percentage. He has Big Eight records for games coached (232) and won.

Milestone Year II: The 1992 football season will also be a milestone year in Nebraska athletics overall, as it will be the final Husker grid campaign under Athletic Director Bob Devaney, the man who revolutionized the NU program when he arrived from the University of Wyoming 30 years ago. When Devaney replaced Bill Jennings in the spring of 1962, Nebraska fans had enjoyed just three winning seasons in 21 years since the Huskers appeared in the 1941 Rose Bowl. Since Coach Devaney took over, Nebraska has had an NCAA-record 30 consecutive winning seasons, starting with a 9-2 record in his first year, and has gone to bowl games 28 times in 30 years. Devaney struck a chord with Nebraska football fans that still holds 30 years later. Starting with the Missouri game in 1962, Nebraska has had an NCAA-record 182 consecutive home sellouts. Because of Devaney's success, historic Memorial Stadium was expanded from its original 31,080 permanent seats to its current 73,650 in five expansions from 1964-72. In Bob's 11 years as head coach (1962-72), his teams won 101, lost 20 and tied two for a winning percentage of .829, claimed eight Big Eight titles (twice winning four in a row), went to nine bowl games, and won national titles in 1970 and 1971. A two-time national coach-of-the-year, he retired as the winningest active coach in the nation, with a 16-year career coaching record of 136-30-7 for an .806 winning percentage. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame in 1981. In 1967, he took on added duties at NU as Athletic Director, replacing Tippy Dye, and proceeded to revolutionize the rest of the Nebraska athletic program in the same way that he had with the football program. Among many other things, he spearheaded the drive for a badly-needed arena for the Huskers' winter sports, a 14,302-seat jewel that opened in 1976 and now bears the name of the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Devaney retires as Athletic Director in January 1993, ending one of the most dynamic careers anyone has had in intercollegiate athletics. Nebraskans and college sports fans everywhere say, "Thank you, Bob!"

The Strings Continue: By going 9-2-1 in 1991 and selling out every home game, Nebraska extended NCAA record strings to 30 consecutive winning seasons, 23 consecutive seasons with at least nine wins, and 182 consecutive home sellouts (since 1962). The Huskers' appearance in the 1992 Federal Express Orange Bowl extended their string of consecutive bowl trips to 23, the longest current string in college football and two shy of the NCAA record of 25 set by Alabama from 1959-83. One Husker string did end last season, though. When co-national champion Miami blanked Nebraska, 22-0, in the Orange Bowl, it ended the Huskers' Big Eight record string of having scored in 220 consecutive games since a 27-0 loss at Oklahoma in 1973.

Huskers Set AP Poll Record: Nebraska was ranked in every weekly Associated Press Poll last season (finishing 15th), giving the Huskers 171-consecutive weeks in the poll since 1981. That broke the old poll record of 160-straight weeks set by Michigan from 1968-80. Nebraska has been in 345 of the last 348 AP Polls since 1969, missing one week in 1977 and two in 1981.

Playing the Best: Over the last two seasons, Coach Tom Osborne's teams have compiled a record of 18-5-1, and in each of those seasons, two losses came to the eventual co-national champions. In 1990, the Huskers lost to AP (writers) champ Colorado, 27-12, in Lincoln, then fell to UPI (coaches) champion Georgia Tech, 45-21, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. In 1991, Nebraska lost to eventual USA Today/CNN (coaches) winner Washington, 36-21, at home, then lost to AP champ Miami in the Orange Bowl, 22-0. The other loss was at Oklahoma in 1990, 45-10, and the tie was at Colorado last year, 19-19.

Huskers Win NCAA Rushing Crown: Boasting its biggest-ever offensive line (294-pound average among the top two units) and two great young I-backs in sophomore Derek Brown and freshman Calvin Jones, Nebraska in 1991 won its ninth NCAA rushing title, and its seventh in the last 12 seasons, at 353.2 yards per game. The '91 Huskers also averaged more yards through the air (153.3) than Nebraska had in 15 years since Vince Ferragamo was the quarterback. As a result, Nebraska led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3). The Huskers, who set a school record with three-straight games without a turnover, were second in the Big Eight and ninth nationally in turnover margin at +1.27 per game.

Brown and Jones—Dynamic Duo: That's Nebraska's one-two I-back combination of junior Derek Brown, an All-Big Eight pick last year, and sophomore Calvin Jones, the 1991 conference offensive newcomer-of-the-year. The two combined for 2,213 rushing yards last year, the second-best two-man total in Husker history behind the 2,587 by Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier (2,148) and Jeff Smith (439) in 1983. Brown ran for 1,313 yards, while Jones had an even 900, a Nebraska freshman record and the fifth-best ever for a Big Eight frosh. Jones' total, of course, was helped by his school-record 294 yards at Kansas, where he also set school and Big Eight records for TDs and points (six for 36).

Shields Eyes Honors: Senior offensive guard Will Shields, a second-team Associated Press All-American in 1991, would like to move up a team in 1992, when he'll also try to become Nebraska's first three-time All-Big Eight offensive lineman since Outland-Lombardi winning center Dave Rimington in 1980, 1981 and 1982. The 305-pound Shields was the player Colorado Coach Bill McCartney named when asked last November which Big Eight player he would choose to start a program. "He's a young offensive lineman with great ability and plays with great intensity," McCartney said. "He's a terrific young man, I'm told, and seems to have everything you're looking for in an offensive lineman."

Huskers, Wildcats in Tokyo: The 1992 season will see Nebraska play its first-ever game outside the United States, as the Huskers and Kansas State will travel together to Tokyo, Japan, for a Dec. 6 contest (Dec. 5 in the U.S.). The game was originally scheduled to be played at Manhattan, Kan., Oct. 17. That change and the move of the Oklahoma game at Norman from Nov. 21 to Nov. 27 for ABC-TV, give Nebraska an unusual three open dates in 1992—Oct. 3 and 17, and Nov. 21. Between the Sept. 26 Arizona State game and the Oct. 24 game at Missouri, the Huskers have just one contest—at home Oct. 10 vs. Oklahoma State.

Nebraska Adds Two More Academic All-Americans: Although Nebraska did not have a first-team All-American in 1991 for the first time in 22 seasons, the Huskers did add two GTE Academic All-Americans in senior middle guard Pat Engelbert and junior punter Mike Stigge. That gives NU 41 academic All-Americans chosen by the College Sports Information Directors of America, eight more than any other school. Engelbert also received NCAA and National Football Foundation post-graduate grants. He and Stigge led a list of eight Huskers named to the Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight team, giving Nebraska 137 in the Tom Osborne era, an average of 7.2 a year.

The Record: In its first 102 seasons, the University of Nebraska football team won 653 games, lost 286 and tied 40 for a .687 winning percentage. NU ranks sixth in the NCAA's Division I-A in victories, ninth in percentage.

New Turf: Less than 48 hours after the Huskers' April 25 Spring Game, workers began ripping the old artificial turf off the Memorial Stadium field. The old turf, installed in 1984, was replaced by AstroTurf-8, manufactured by the Balsam Corporation of St. Louis, Mo. It's the fourth artificial surface on the Memorial Stadium field. In eight seasons on the old surface, Nebraska was 47-6 for an .887 winning percentage, with the last two losses coming at the hands of eventual national champions—Colorado in 1990 and Washington in 1991. Since artificial turf was first installed in Memorial Stadium in 1970, the Huskers are 125-17 for an .880 winning percentage. All of Nebraska's regular-season games in 1992 will be played on artificial turf.

Tom Osborne

Head Football Coach/Assistant Athletic Director

Nation's Winningest Active Coach heads into his 20th year at Nebraska

Having won more games (186) and coached more games (231) than any other coach in Big Eight Conference history, Tom Osborne also ranks as the winningest active coach in NCAA Division I-A as he heads into his 20th season at the NU helm.

The veteran Husker mentor owns a career record of 186-43-3 for an .808 winning percentage. Only eight coaches in the history of college football have ever won more games at one Division I school, and, during the 1991 season, Osborne passed Ben Schwartzwalder, Jerry Claiborne, Carl Snavely, Gil Dobie, Darrell Royal and John Heisman on the all-time Division I coaching victory list. He's now No. 18, three behind Iowa's Hayden Fry.

Last November's rain-soaked, come-from-behind win over Oklahoma, 19-14, gave Nebraska a tie for the 1991 Big Eight Conference title with Colorado and sent the Huskers to the Federal Express Orange Bowl for the sixth time under Osborne and for the 12th time overall.

It was the eighth time than an Osborne team has gained at least a share of the Big Eight crown, following trophies in 1975, 1978, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984 and 1988.

Previous championships had been satisfying for the Hastings, Neb., native, but none had been accomplished with such dramatic come-from-behind efforts. Trailing two-time Big Eight champ Colorado at frigid Boulder on Nov. 2, the Huskers rallied in the fourth quarter to gain a 19-19 tie. Four weeks later, they spotted Oklahoma a 14-0 lead before coming back on a fourth-quarter drive to beat the Sooners on Calvin Jones' TD with 2:57 left.

Ruining the Sooners' upset hopes, Nebraska extended its NCAA record for consecutive seasons with at least nine wins to 23. Earlier the Huskers had clinched their 30th-consecutive winning season, another NCAA record, and the Orange Bowl bid was their 23rd in a row, the longest current string in college football.

In 1991, Nebraska also won the NCAA rushing title at 353.2 yards per game. It was NU's ninth rushing crown overall, and its seventh in the last 12 years under Osborne.

Osborne is a four-time Big Eight Coach-of-the-Year, having received the honor in 1975, 1976, 1980 and 1988. The American Football Coaches Association and Kodak have named him District VI Coach-of-the-Year six times—1978, 1979, 1980, 1983, 1987 and 1988.

A 22-0 loss to Miami in the Orange Bowl left Nebraska with a 9-2-1 final record for the 1991 season, with the only losses to the co-national champions—the Hurricanes and Washington, 36-21, in Lincoln in September. The shutout loss New Year's Night ended a Big Eight-record string of 220-straight games in which NU had scored, dating to Osborne's rookie year in 1973.

National rankings are commonplace under Osborne as the Huskers were as high as ninth in the Associated Press Poll four times last season and finished 15th in both the AP and USA Today/CNN polls. The Huskers have been ranked in a record 171 consecutive Associated Press polls since 1981.

The Bobby Dodds National Coach-of-the-Year by the Atlanta Quarterback Club and Delta Air Lines in 1978 for his efforts toward the advancement of the higher and more notable aspects of college coaching, Osborne also earned national coach-of-the-year honors from the Football News in 1983.

Nebraska fans have watched Osborne teams more than hold their own against the nation's best teams, too. In his 19 seasons, Osborne is 41-33-1 against teams ranked by the Associated Press, easily the best record for a Nebraska coach, and he's the only Husker coach to ever beat a No. 1-ranked team—the 17-14 win over Oklahoma in 1978. (His Hall of Fame predecessor, Devaney, was 12-12-2 against ranked teams during his Nebraska career, while all previous NU coaches were a combined 7-35-0).

Osborne's players have consistently been highly honored, both on the field and off. Five of his proteges have received the NCAA's highest honor for student-athletes—selection as one of "Today's Top Six" (formerly Today's Top Five). That's the most for any individual sports program in the country and more than half of Nebraska's nation-leading nine total selections. Husker gridders who received the honor are guard Randy Schleusener (1981), centers Dave Rimington (1983), Mark Traynowicz (1985), Jake Young (1990) and linebacker Pat Tyrance (1991).

Under Osborne, Nebraska has had 29 academic All-Americans, including two last year in senior middle guard Pat Engelbert and junior punter Mike Stigge. That figure includes six two-time picks for a total of 35—tops in the nation.

Adding even more luster to Osborne's coaching career is the fact that the Cornhuskers made history by producing three consecutive Outland Trophy winners (Rimington in 1981 and 1982 and Dean Steinkuhler in 1983) and two consecutive Lombardi winners (Rimington in 1982 and Steinkuhler in 1983), while also winning the 1983 Heisman Trophy (Mike Rozier).

During Tom's career, the Huskers have produced 35 All-America players, including five two-time All-Americans for a total of 40 selections. Nebraska has also had 21 total NCAA post-graduate scholarship winners and 12 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete recipients, including Engelbert in 1991. In 1988, Mark Blazek was named the CBS/Toyota Leader-of-the-Year.

Osborne was the first recipient of the Distinguished Nebraskalander Award from the Nebraskalander Foundation in 1982, and in 1983 he was named national coach-of-the-year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He's also an author, having published a book entitled More Than Winning in 1985.

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid-1950s, Osborne was named Nebraska prep athlete-of-the-year, then passed up major-college scholarship offers to attend hometown Hastings College, where both his father and grandfather had matriculated. He became a star quarterback and basketball player for Coach Tom McLaughlin, and in 1959 was named state college athlete-of-the-year, becoming the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honors.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Hastings in 1959, Osborne played three seasons in the National Football League, two with the Washington Redskins and one with the San Francisco 49ers, where his roommate was Jack Kemp, the former Congressman and presidential candidate who is now Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

In 1962, he contacted newly-hired Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney, and obtained a position as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until he received a master's degree in 1963, then maintained a triple role of student, teacher and part-time coach at the University. He earned a doctorate in educational psychology in 1965, then elected to pursue coaching as a career in 1967, becoming the Huskers' full-time receivers coach—a decision NU fans have applauded since.

Over the next five years, Osborne was in charge of the Husker passing game, and, in his last four seasons as an assistant coach, developed a wingback named Johnny Rodgers, who would become Nebraska's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1972.

When Devaney announced after the 1972 Orange Bowl that he would retire from coaching at the end of the 1972 season, he elevated Osborne to assistant head coach and director of recruiting for his final campaign, and hand-picked the then-34-year-old as his successor.

Osborne, who was born Feb. 23, 1937, is married to the former Nancy Tederman. They are the parents of a son, Mike, and two daughters, Ann and Susie. Mike followed in his father's footsteps by playing quarterback at Hastings College, and graduated in May 1987.

Coaching Staff

Frank Solich

Asst. Head Coach

Year at Nebraska: 14th (1979), 10th (1983) as the Huskers' running backs coach. Second as assistant head coach.

Previous Coaching Experience: Head coach at Holy Name High School, Omaha, Nebraska, 1966-68; head coach at Southeast High School, Lincoln, Nebraska, 1968-79; four years as Nebraska's head freshman coach, posting a 19-1 record.

Playing Career: High School: Three years at Holy Name High School in Cleveland, Ohio, where he won all-city, all-state, and All-America honors. College: Three-year varsity letterman for the Nebraska Cornhuskers, earned first team All-Big Eight honors in 1965 as fullback, co-captain of Nebraska's 1965 undefeated team, named outstanding senior back following 1965 season, held Nebraska's single game rushing record (204 yards) until 1975. Solich was also a Nebraska baseball letterman.

Education: High School: Holy Name High School in Cleveland, Ohio. College: B.S. from University of Nebraska-Lincoln (1966), M.Ed. from University of Nebraska-Lincoln (1972).

Family: Solich is married to Pamela Wieck of Beatrice, Nebraska. They have two children, Cindy and Jeffrey.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: It's important to me as a coach to help players develop to the best of their abilities and to have them understand their responsibilities as a student-athlete. In doing so, you're helping them to grow and mature as a complete person and to prepare themselves for the future.

All-Conference Players: Jarvis Redwine, I-Back, 1979-80; Andra Franklin, Fullback, 1980; Roger Craig, I-Back, 1981; Mike Rozier, I-Back, 1981-82-83; Jeff Smith, I-Back, 1984; Doug DuBose, I-Back, 1984-85; Tom Rathman, Fullback, 1985; Keith Jones, I-Back, 1986-87; Ken Clark, I-Back, 1988-89; Derek Brown, I-Back, 1991.

Academic All-Conference Players: Jim Kotera, I-back, 1980; Ken Kaelin, Fullback, 1986; Micah Heibel, Fullback, 1987.

All-America Players: Jarvis Redwine, I-Back, 1980. Mike Rozier, I-Back, 1982-83; Pro Players: Roger Craig, Minnesota Vikings; Mike Rozier, Atlanta Falcons; Tom Rathman, San Francisco 49ers; Jeff Smith, Tampa Bay Buccaneers; Keith Jones, Cleveland Browns.

Mike Rozier's Honors: 1983 Heisman Trophy Winner; UPI-National Player-of-the-Year; AP Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Year; UPI Big Eight Player-of-the-Year; All-American, UPI, AP, Walter Camp, Kodak, Football Writers, Football News, Sporting News, All-Big Eight, 4-Time Big Eight Player-of-the-Week, 1983; 1983 Maxwell Award.

Charlie McBride

Defensive Coordinator and

Year at Nebraska: 16th (1977), 9th (1984) as defensive coordinator.

Previous Coaching Experience: McBride served six years (1970-1975) as offensive line coach at the University of Wisconsin under coach John Jardine before becoming the Badgers' defensive line coach and defensive coordinator in 1976. Prior to his years at Wisconsin, McBride coached three seasons (1967-1969) at Arizona State under head coach Frank Kush. Before that, he was a graduate assistant at Colorado and a prep coach at Fenger High School in Chicago.

Playing Career: High School: Four-sport letterman (football, basketball, baseball, and track) at Morgan Park High School in Chicago, Illinois, where he earned prep All-America honors in football and baseball. College: three years with the Colorado Buffaloes as end and punter. McBride was an All-Big Eight selection in 1962 when the Buffs won the title and played in the 1962 Orange Bowl. Professional: one year with the Denver Broncos.

Education: High School: Morgan Park High in Chicago, Illinois; College: B.S. from the University of Colorado (1962).

Family: Married to Deborah Anne Denniston of Barrington, Illinois, McBride has three sons: Mike, Jeff, and David; and three grandsons.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: Each player is as different as their faces. They have different feelings and different goals. I believe that it is important to recognize the feelings of every player I coach and work as hard as I can to see that he reaches his goals. I also believe that if you chew a player out you also better be ready to hug his neck.

Academic All-America Players: Rod Horn, 1979; Rob Stuckey, 1983-84; Pat Engelbert, 1991.

Ron Brown

Receivers Coach

Year at Nebraska: 6th (1987).

Previous Coaching Experience:

Semi-Pro: defensive coordinator for New Jersey Rams, 1982. College: head freshman coach at Brown University in 1983, then assumed duties as defensive back coach, 1984-86.

Playing Career: High School:

lettered in football and basketball at Martha's Vineyard Regional High School in Oak Bluffs, Massachusetts; selected All-Eastern Massachusetts in both sports. College: defensive back at Brown University (1975-78); two-time First-Team All-Ivy League, All-New England, and First-Team All-East Athletic Conference as a senior.

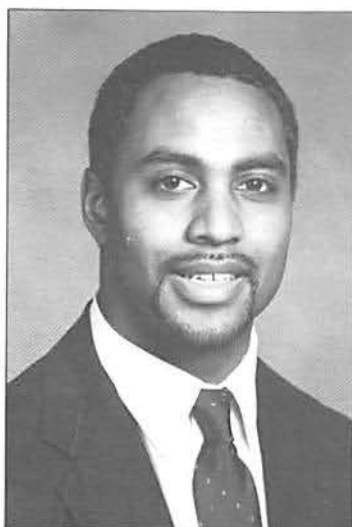

Education: High School:

Oak Bluffs, Massachusetts (1975). College: B.A. in Sociology from Brown University (1979), Master's in Health Administration from Columbia University (1982).

Family: Brown is married to Molvina Carter of San Diego, California.

Basic Coaching Philosophy:

What's most important to me as a coach is to assist each athlete in maximizing every God-given talent that he has. Each person that I coach has at least some level of talent in character, academics, and athletics, with a very unique blend of the three that no one else can duplicate. It matters not so much of what level of ability it is, but more so, my desire to help each young man to understand that true success is based upon this principle of maximization of ability—and not on how he compares with everyone else.

All-Conference Players: Dana Brinson, 1988; Todd Millikan, 1988; Johnny Mitchell, 1990-91; Jon Bostick, 1991.

George Darlington

Secondary Coach

Year at Nebraska: 20th (1973), 7th (1986) as secondary coach. State of Nebraska FCA Coach-of-the-Year.

Previous Coaching Experience:

High School: Two years at Johnson Regional High School in Clark, New Jersey. College: Four years at Lebanon Valley, Pennsylvania; one year at Dartmouth; four years at San Jose State; all as assistant coach.

Playing Career:

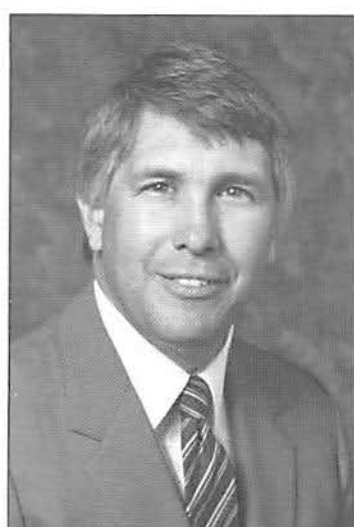

Lettered at Rutgers (1959), lettered at Lacrosse (1960), was third-team All-American in 1961.

Education: High School:

Stone-wall Jackson High in Charleston, West Virginia, (1957); College: B.S. in History and Physical Education from Rutgers University (1961); M.A. in Education from Stanford University (1962).

Family: Darlington and his wife Susan have three children: Lisa, David, and Julia and two grandchildren, Taylor and Molly.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: To guide each defensive back to reach his potential as both a student and an athlete.

All-Conference Players: Steve Manstedt, 1973; Bob Martin, 1974-75; Ray Phillips, 1976; George Andrews, 1978; Derrie Nelson, 1979-80; Jimmy Williams, 1981; Tony Felici, 1981-82; Scott Strasburger, 1984; Bill Weber, 1984; Charles Fryar, cornerback, 1988; Tim Jackson, safety, 1988; Reggie Cooper, strong safety, 1989-90; Bruce Pickens, cornerback, 1989-90; Tyrone Legette, cornerback, 1991. All-America Players: Bob Martin, 1975; George Andrews, 1978; Derrie Nelson, 1980; Jimmy Williams, 1981.

Pro Players: Jimmy Williams, Tampa Bay Buccaneers; Derrie Nelson, San Diego Chargers; Brian Davis, Seattle Seahawks; Brian Washington, New York Jets; Charles Fryar, Barcelona Dragons; Tim Jackson, Barcelona Dragons; Reggie Cooper, Dallas Cowboys; Tahaun Lewis, Kansas City Chiefs; Tyrone Legette, New Orleans Saints; Bruce Pickens, Atlanta Falcons; Curtis Cotton, L.A. Academic All-America Players: George Andrews, 1978; Bill Weber, 1982; Scott Strasburger, 1983-84; Mark Blazek, 1987-88.

Toyota Leader-of-the-Year: Mark Blazek, 1988.

Turner Gill

Quarterbacks Coach

Year at Nebraska: First. Joined the Husker staff in August of 1992 and will serve as the quarterbacks coach.

Playing Career: Gill led the Huskers to a 28-2 record, was 20-0 in the Big Eight Conference and won three conference championships as the starting QB from 1981-83. A three-time All-Big Eight choice and a second-team All-American as a senior, Gill was the key to the Huskers' high-powered offense in 1983, a season in which NU I-back Mike Rozier won the Heisman and Gill finished fourth. The '83 team finished 12-1 and second in the final polls. In his four-year career (1980-83), Gill completed 231 of 428 passes for 3,317 yards, 34 TDs and a .540 completion percentage. He rushed for 1,317 yards, a 4.5 per carry average and 18 TDs and finished fourth on the NU all-time career total offense chart with 4,634 yards. Recipient of the C. Herbert Marshall Award for Outstanding Leadership.

Education: High School: Arlington Heights High School, Fort Worth, Texas. College: B.A. in behavior analysis from the University of North Texas in 1990.

Family: Gill is married to the former Gayle DeBrie of Kearney and they have a two-year old daughter, Jordan.

Tony Samuel

Outside Linebackers Coach

Year at Nebraska: 7th (1986).

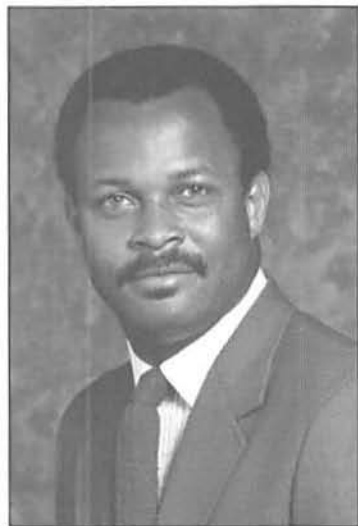

Previous Coaching Experience: Graduate assistant at Nebraska (1978-81), assistant coach at Western Michigan (1982-83), defensive line coach at Stanford University (1984-85).

Playing Career: High School: Lincoln High in Jersey City, New Jersey. College: played defensive end at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (1974-77).

Education: B.S. in Education from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (1979).

Family: Tony and his wife Diane have three children: Travis, 9, Serena, 7, and Phillip, 4.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: To create an atmosphere of pride and willingness to learn the sport as well as the game of life. To learn as much as possible about the game and pass that knowledge on to the players and help them develop personally as well as athletically.

All-Conference Players: Broderick Thomas, 1986-87-88; Jeff Mills, 1989; Mike Croel, 1990.
All-America Players: Broderick Thomas, 1987-88.

Kevin Steele

Inside Linebackers Coach

Year at Nebraska: 4th (1989).

Previous Coaching Experience: Steele coached at Tennessee from 1981-82. In 1983 he served as recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach at New Mexico State. In 1984-86 Steele moved to Oklahoma State and served as tight end coach and later switched to linebackers coach. Steele returned to Tennessee as secondary coach in 1987-88.

Playing Career: High School: Dillon High in Dillon, South Carolina, leading his team to the state playoffs as quarterback. College: linebacker at Tennessee.

Education: High School: Dillon High in Dillon, South Carolina. College: B.S. from Tennessee (1981).

Family: Married to Linda Truay Steele. They have a son Gordon, 5 and a daughter Caroline, 3.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: To teach each player the importance of attitude, confidence, character, knowledge, and goal setting and how these factors apply to football as well as life.

All-Conference Players: Pat Tyrance, 1989-90. Academic All-Conference Players: Randall Jobman, 1989; Pat Tyrance, 1989-90; Mike Petko, 1990-91. Academic All-America Players: Pat Tyrance, 1990. Today's Top Six: Pat Tyrance, 1990. Woody Hayes Award: Pat Tyrance, 1990.

Milt Tenopir

Offensive Line Coach

Year at Nebraska: 19th. (1974)

Previous Coaching Experience: 12 years in the high school coaching profession in Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska. 76-43-1 record. Coached Colorado All-Star Game in 1968 and Nebraska Shrine Game in 1972 and 1974.

Playing Career: Four years at Harvard High School where he lettered in football, basketball, and track. College: Four years at Sterling playing football, basketball and track.

Education: High School: attended Harvard High School. College: B.S. from Sterling College in Sterling, Kansas; graduate work at Kansas State, Adams State, and Western State.

Family: Tenopir is the father of three children; Kim, Todd, and Pamela. He is married to the former Terry Richardson and is stepfather to two children, Dana and Daniel.

Basic Coaching Philosophy: As an offensive line coach at Nebraska, we try to get across that each individual must learn all of the fundamental aspects (footwork, aim points, change of direction, and mental alertness) so that he can operate with confidence and exactness. We don't like to put a lineman on the field against the Big Eight Conference foes unless he is physically and mentally ready to play. We operate as a team of five and try to develop closeness as a unit.

All-Conference Players: Marvin Crenshaw, tackle, 1974; Rik Bonness, center, 1974-75; Bob Ligenfelter, tackle, 1976; Dan Schmidt, guard, 1976; Tom Davis, center, 1977; Greg Jorgensen, guard, 1977; Steve Lindquist, guard, 1978; Kelvin Clark, tackle, 1978; John Havekost, guard, 1979; Kelly Saalfeld, center, 1979; Randy Schleusener, guard, 1980; Dave Rimington, center, 1980-81-82; Dan Hurley, tackle, 1981; Mike Mandelko, guard, 1982; Randy Theiss, tackle, 1982; Dean Steinkuhler, guard, 1983; Scott Raridon, tackle, 1983; Mark Traynowicz, center, 1983-84; Harry Grimmering, guard, 1984; Mark Behning, tackle, 1984; Greg Orton, guard, 1984; Brian Blankenship, guard, 1985; Bill Lewis, center, 1985; Tom Welter, tackle, 1986; Kevin Lightner, tackle, 1987; John McCormick, guard, 1987; Jake Young, center, 1988-89; Bob Sledge, tackle, 1988; Andy Keeler, guard, 1988; Doug Glaser, tackle, 1989; Tom Punt, tackle, 1990; Will Shields, guard, 1990-91; Brian Boerboom, tackle, 1991; Erik Wiegert, guard, 1991. All-America Players: Rik Bonness, center, 1974-75; Marvin Crenshaw, tackle, 1975; Tom Davis, center, 1977; Kelvin Clark, tackle, 1978; Randy Schleusener, guard, 1980; Dave Rimington, center, 1981-82; Dean Steinkuhler, guard, 1983; Mark Traynowicz, center, 1984; Harry Grimmering, guard, 1984; Bill Lewis, center, 1985; John McCormick, guard, 1987; Jake Young, center, 1988-89; Doug Glaser, tackle, 1989. Pro Players: Dave Rimington, Cincinnati Bengals; Dean Steinkuhler, Houston Oilers; Mark Traynowicz, Buffalo Bills; Bill Lewis, Los Angeles Raiders; Mark Behning, Pittsburgh Steelers; Stan Waldemore, New York Jets; Tom Welter, St. Louis Cardinals; Kevin Lightner, Tampa Bay Buccaneers; John McCormick, Miami Dolphins. Academic All-Conference Players: Stan Waldemore, 1977; Tom Ohrt, 1978; Kelly Saalfeld, 1978-79; Randy Schleusener, 1979-80; Dave Rimington, 1980-81-82; Randy Theiss, 1980-81-82; Mark Traynowicz, 1983-84; Brad Muehling, 1983; Mark Behning, 1984; Tom Morrow, 1984; Tim Roth, 1985; Brian Blankenship, 1985; Rob Maggard, 1986; Tom Welter, 1986; John McCormick, 1987; John Nelson, 1988; Jake Young, 1988-89; Bill Bobbora, 1989; Jim Wanek, 1989-90; David Edeal, 1990; Rob Zatechka, 1991; Bill Ziegelbein, 1991. Academic All-America Players: Kelly Saalfeld, 1979; Randy Schleusener, 1979-80; Randy Theiss, 1981-82; Dave Rimington, 1981-82; Mark Traynowicz, 1984; Tom Welter, 1986; Jake Young, 1989; David Edeal, 1990; Jim Wanek, 1990. Today's Top Six: Randy Schleusener, 1981; Dave Rimington, 1981; Mark Traynowicz, 1985; Jake Young, 1990.

Football Video Staff

Dave Finn

Video Coordinator

Beginning his fifth season as the video coordinator for the Husker football team, Dave Finn is no stranger to the Nebraska program. He has been a photographer for the football staff, worked closely with the strength staff, and assisted with recruiting materials since 1979. In 1988 Finn was responsible for installing the video system which made Nebraska one of the first five schools in Division I football to switch completely to a computer/video operation. The Huskers remain a peremptory leader in this rapidly expanding high-tech field. Finn heads a video crew that includes Brian Mohnsen, Floyd Sorley, Vince Ullman, Bryan Carpenter, John Bousek, and Greg Cichy. An alumnus of Wayne State College, Finn is married to the former Kathy Hayes of Osceola and they have two sons, Daniel, 11, and Kevin, 9, and a 4-year-old daughter, Angela.

Facilities

Cook Pavilion

Sapp Recreation Facility

Opened in the fall of 1989, Cook Pavilion provides the Husker football team with an indoor practice area which features a full-length field and a roof high enough to allow practices to include all facets of the kicking game. The Pavilion is part of the brand-new, $17 million, Lee & Helene Sapp Recreation Facility, which includes modern offices, a training room and locker rooms, in addition to the latest in recreational equipment. The Sapp Facility will also include a remodeled Coliseum, which will provide Nebraska's nationally-ranked volleyball team with a sparkling, 5,000-seat arena when it reopens in 1992.

Strength

One of the pioneers in the development of strength and conditioning as a key part of a football program, the University of Nebraska expanded its Strength Complex in the West Stadium to 30,000 square feet in 1989, making it the largest on a college campus in the country. Husker strength and conditioning coach Boyd Epley heads a staff of five full-time strength coaches who use their own knowledge and a wide array of equipment and tests to provide one of the top strength training programs in the country. Evaluation, goal-oriented programs, supervision and the state-of-the-art facilities help Husker athletes become bigger, stronger, faster and more flexible.

Hewit Center

The Hewit Center, opened in the West Stadium in 1985 and expanded in 1989, houses Nebraska's outstanding academic support unit, the year-round training table which provides lunch and dinner for NU athletes, and offices for the Athletic Department's fund-raising arm. Dr. Roger Grooters, director of academic programs, heads a staff of five full-time academic and career counselors dedicated to helping student-athletes make the adjustment to university curricula and guiding them toward solid career choices.

Husker Locker Room

Training Room

Nebraska's locker room and training room facilities on the lower level of the South Stadium Office Building are among the best-equipped in the nation, as are the recently-remodeled office and meeting areas on the second floor of the building. Head trainer and physical therapist George Sullivan heads a team of six full-time trainers, including three registered physical therapists and a physician's assistant, while six doctors are also available to treat Cornhusker athletes.

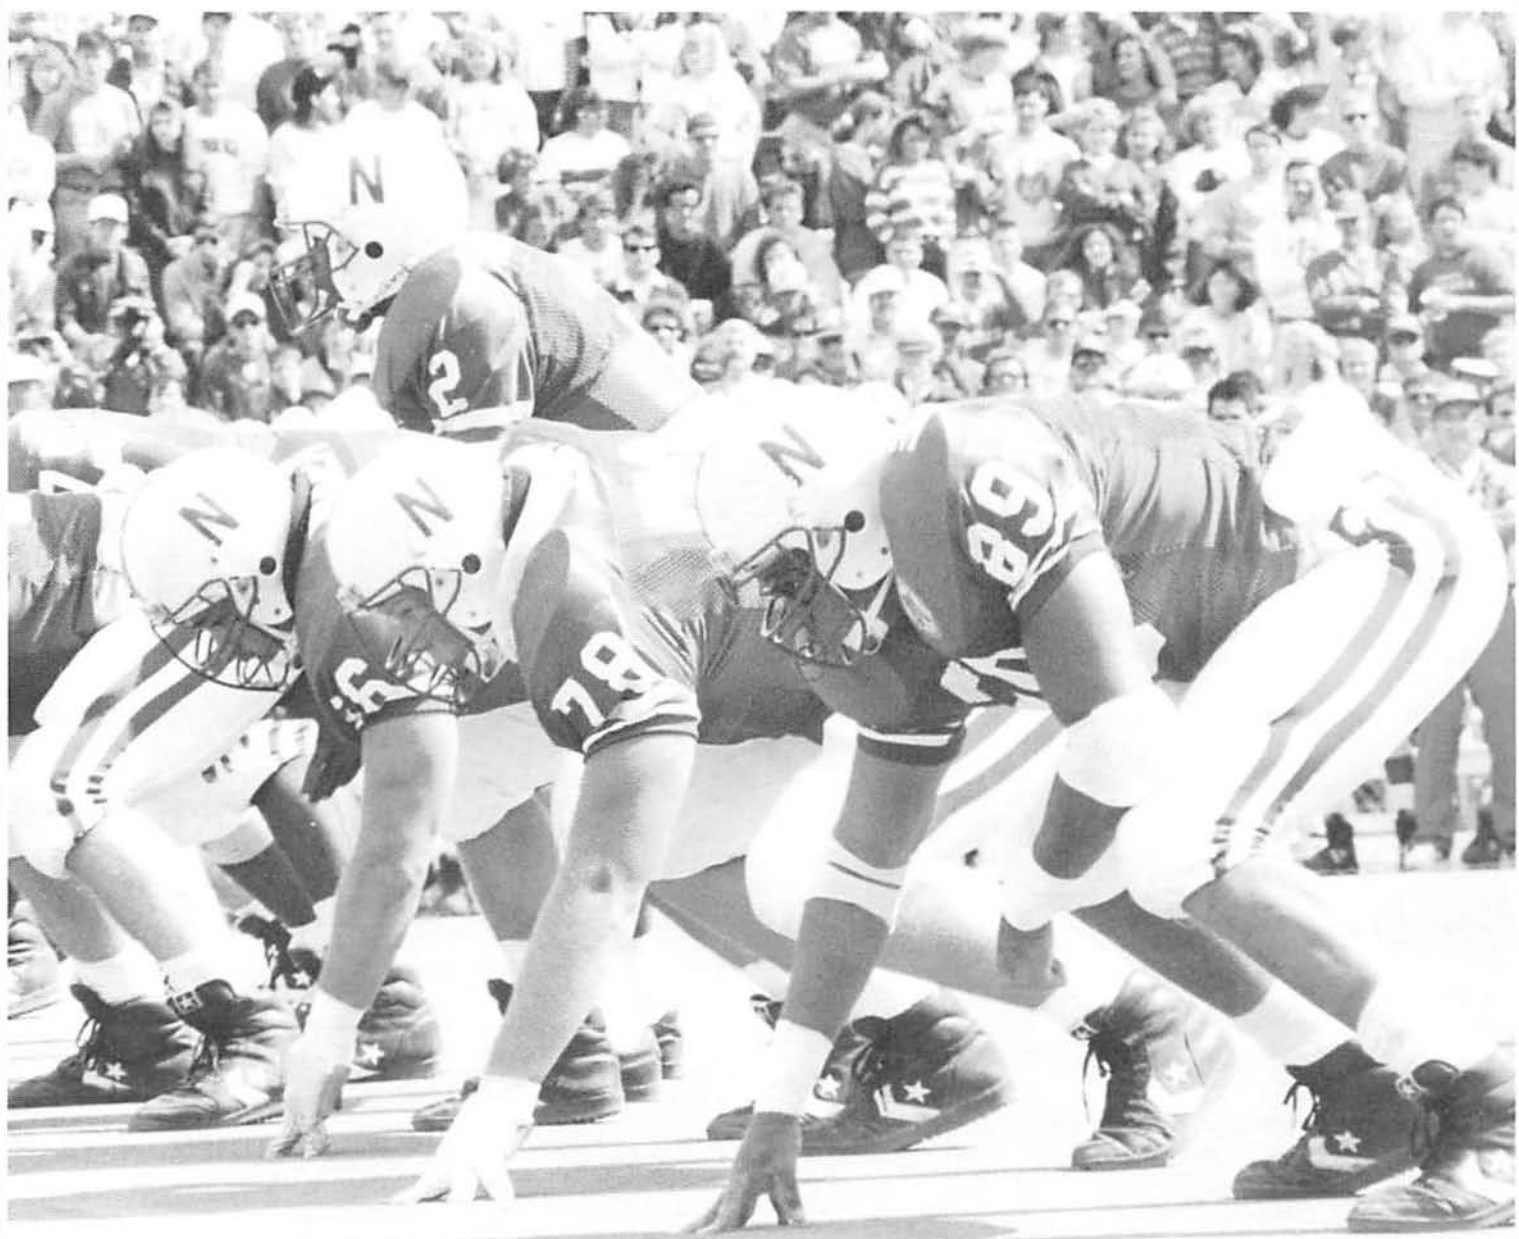

N Club Lounge

Located on the ground floor of the South Stadium Building, the N Club Lounge serves as an unofficial "Hall of Fame" for Husker players, with portraits of each of NU's 68 football All-Americans hanging on the north wall, as well as separate portraits of the two Heisman Trophy winners, Johnny Rodgers and Mike Rozier, and four Outland and Lombardi winners. The N Club Lounge also serves as the site of Coach Tom Osborne's Tuesday news conferences during the season, and, located directly upstairs from the locker room, it's used as the Huskers' interview room following Nebraska home games.

Press Box

Nebraska's three-level press box sits atop the West Stadium, and provides seating for 124 reporters, statisticians and other staffers in the main press area, plus 23 booths for radio, television, photographers, scoreboard operators, security personnel and others. The most media credentials ever issued for a Nebraska home game was 950 for the 1987 Oklahoma game, which matched the top-ranked Huskers vs. the No. 2 Sooners.

Tight end William Washington (89).

I-back Derek Brown will go for another 1,000-yard season in 1992.

Prospectus

Huskers Have the Numbers, But Also Some Questions

The numbers are certainly there for Nebraska as the Cornhuskers head into their 103rd season of intercollegiate football seeking a return trip to the Federal Express Orange Bowl.

After all, 65 lettermen return, including 13 offensive and defensive starters and 32 players from the first two units of last year's Big Eight co-champions.

There are some questions, though. First on the minds of Husker coaches and fans is the replacement for graduated quarterback Keithen McCant—the surprise Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Year in 1991—not to mention his first two alternates, Mickey Joseph and Tom Haase, who were both seniors last year. That leaves Nebraska with just one experienced quarterback in senior Mike Grant, who took a redshirt year in 1991, and a host of young candidates, led by redshirt freshman Tony Veland, who emerged from spring practice listed even with Grant at the top of the depth chart.

The Cornhuskers must also find at least one cornerback after the loss of two NFL draft picks, All-Big Eight Tyrone Legette and Curtis Cotton, while in the defensive line, Nebraska must also find some depth, after the graduation of standout middle guard Pat Engelbert and a January knee injury to returning tackle starter Kevin Ramaekers that leaves him somewhat questionable for 1992.

"I think we're going to have a good football team this year," said Husker Coach Tom Osborne, who'll be in his 20th season at the Husker helm this fall. "We should be very sound on offense. The biggest question will be maybe quarterback. Defensively, we have a lot of people returning. We need to find at least one cornerback, and possibly a little bit of depth in the defensive line.

Offensive Line's Potential is "Exciting"

"I think we'll have a very good offensive football team, and of course that all starts with the offensive line," Osborne continued. "The potential is pretty exciting in the offensive line. We've got more big people who can move pretty well than ever before. There will be a lot of things to iron out. It takes a long time to become a good offensive line, but at least the talent is there."

Three starters return from last year's offensive line which powered the Huskers to another NCAA rushing title at 353.2 yards per game, led by All-America candidate Will Shields, a two-time All-Big Eight and a 1991 AP second-team All-America selection who checks in at 6-foot-1 and 305 pounds as a senior. The other returning starters are junior tackle Lance Lundberg (6-4, 300) and center Jim Scott (6-2, 265). The other tackle spot opposite Lundberg figures to be between two giant sophomores, Rob Zatechka (6-5, 315) and Zach Wiegert (6-5, 310). At the other guard, former walk-on Ken Mehlin (6-0, 265) emerged as the starter at the end of spring, replacing graduated All-Big Eight Erik Wiegert, Zach's older brother.

Three Receivers Drafted, But Prospects Still Solid

The receiving corps should also be solid, despite the loss of three NFL Draft picks, including record-setting two-time All-Big Eight tight end Johnny Mitchell, who elected to leave school after his sophomore year, and became the first-round selection of the New York Jets. Senior William Washington (6-2, 260) started ahead of Mitchell in 1991, largely because of his outstanding blocking ability, but he showed signs of becoming a fine receiver in the spring and could be All-Big Eight material. All-Big Eight split end Jon Bostick, a seventh-round pick by the Denver Broncos, is gone, but two lightning-quick lettermen return in senior Tyrone Hughes and junior Corey Dixon. At wingback, Nate Turner is gone to the Buffalo Bills (sixth round, as a tight end), but talent returns in senior Vincent Hawkins and sophomore Abdul Muhammad—and Osborne said junior I-back Derek Brown will likely play some wingback this year, too.

Which brings us to the running backs.

"The Running Backs Are Excellent"

"The running backs are excellent," Osborne said. "With Derek Brown and Calvin Jones at I-back, and then Lance Lewis was the fullback who played most of the time last year, and we have a young guy named Cory Schlesinger who's very good, too. We feel like we've got four great backs there, and Andre McDuffy is a very capable back who can play both fullback and I-back. We're not overwhelmed with numbers, but the quality is outstanding."

A look at the numbers verifies that evaluation. As a sophomore in 1991, Brown (5-9, 185) ran for 1,313 yards (the fifth-largest total in NU history), finishing second in the Big Eight and ninth in the NCAA at 119.36 yards per game. Teammate Jones (5-11, 210) ran for an NU freshman-record 900 yards and became the first frosh ever to lead the Big Eight in scoring at 8.40 points per game. Jones' season was highlighted by a school-record 294 yards at Kansas, where he also wrote his name in the Nebraska and Big Eight record books for points (36) and touchdowns (six) scored. Their 2,213 combined rushing yards were the second-best in school history, behind the 2,587 by Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier (2,148) and Jeff Smith (439) in 1983.

"Calvin's a bigger back," Osborne said. "He's about 215 and has great speed—he's probably the faster of the two straightaway. Derek has outstanding lateral mobility and very fine hands. He'll probably be used some as a receiver, and play a little bit of wingback as well as I-back. We're going to try to get both of them in the game as much as we can."

Grant the only Experienced Quarterback

At quarterback, Grant is the only returnee with any meaningful game experience. As a sophomore in 1989, he shared the alternate QB role with Joseph behind All-Big Eight senior Gerry Gdowski, then began the 1990 campaign as the starter, before Joseph took over at mid-season. A broken collarbone caused him to miss the last part of spring practice in April, but he'll go into the fall sharing first-team duties with Veland. In his career, he has completed 40 of 86 passes for 607 yards and six TDs. Incoming freshmen Tommie Frazier and Ben Rutz, and redshirt freshman Brook Berringer will also get looks in the fall.

18 of Top 22 Return on Defense

On defense, the Huskers return seven starters and all 11 backups from a year ago, so the numbers, as Osborne said, are there. It's just a question of finding the replacements for a few key losses—cornerbacks Legette and Cotton, and middle guard Engelbert.

Kenny Wilhite intercepted a Big Eight-leading six passes last year before suffering a knee injury at Kansas, Nov. 9, and undergoing reconstructive surgery. He had an encouraging spring and is expected to give the Huskers a top-quality left corner, with junior letterman Mike Heins backing him up. A pair of promising juniors, John Reece and Lorenzo Brinkley, will battle it out on the right side. If they come through, the Husker secondary will be solid once again, as the safeties should be very good, indeed. Senior strong safety Steve Carmer earned second-team All-Big Eight honors last year when he set a school defensive back record with 87 tackles and achieved the distinction of becoming the first DB ever to lead the Huskers in tackles. He'll be capably backed up by junior Ernie Beler. At free safety, senior Tyrone Byrd returns after starting every game the last two years, with promising sophomore Troy Dumas providing excellent depth.

Parrella Leads Defensive Line

In the line, Nebraska will miss the leadership and talent of Engelbert, an academic All-American who was one of the most active and effective middle guards the Huskers have had. Junior David Noonan (6-3, 275), the younger brother of 1986 Husker All-American middle guard Danny Noonan, emerged from spring practice as the No. 1-player at the position, backed up by fellow junior Bill Humphrey (6-2, 260). Senior left tackle John Parrella (6-5, 290) is rated by 16-year defensive line coach Charlie McBride as one of the three best players he's coached at Nebraska, along with All-Americans Neil Smith and the elder Noonan, and he should make a strong challenge for All-America honors himself. With Ramaekers out in the spring, senior Jamie Liewer (6-4, 270) emerged as the starter at right tackle, ahead of pass-rush specialist Bruce Moore (6-6, 240). Ramaekers (6-4, 285) is listed for the moment as Parrella's backup, but could well move back to right tackle, where he started six games a year ago, including the last four.

"John Parrella is a great player, and we have a number of others like David Noonan and Jamie Liewer who played a good deal last year," Osborne said. "Kevin Ramaekers also played a lot last year, and so did Bruce Moore, but I think we could still use some more depth and more quality in the defensive line. We're hoping Christian Peter, who red-shirted last year, will be a good player, and possibly somebody like Larry Townsend, an incoming freshman. If they come through, we'll be pretty good, but I think we'll be decent, no matter what happens. I don't know right now that we have a Neil Smith-type player, who's a great pass rusher. The defensive linemen we have are stronger, probably a little better run players, and we may have to get our pass rush from some other area."

Linebackers Are Solid

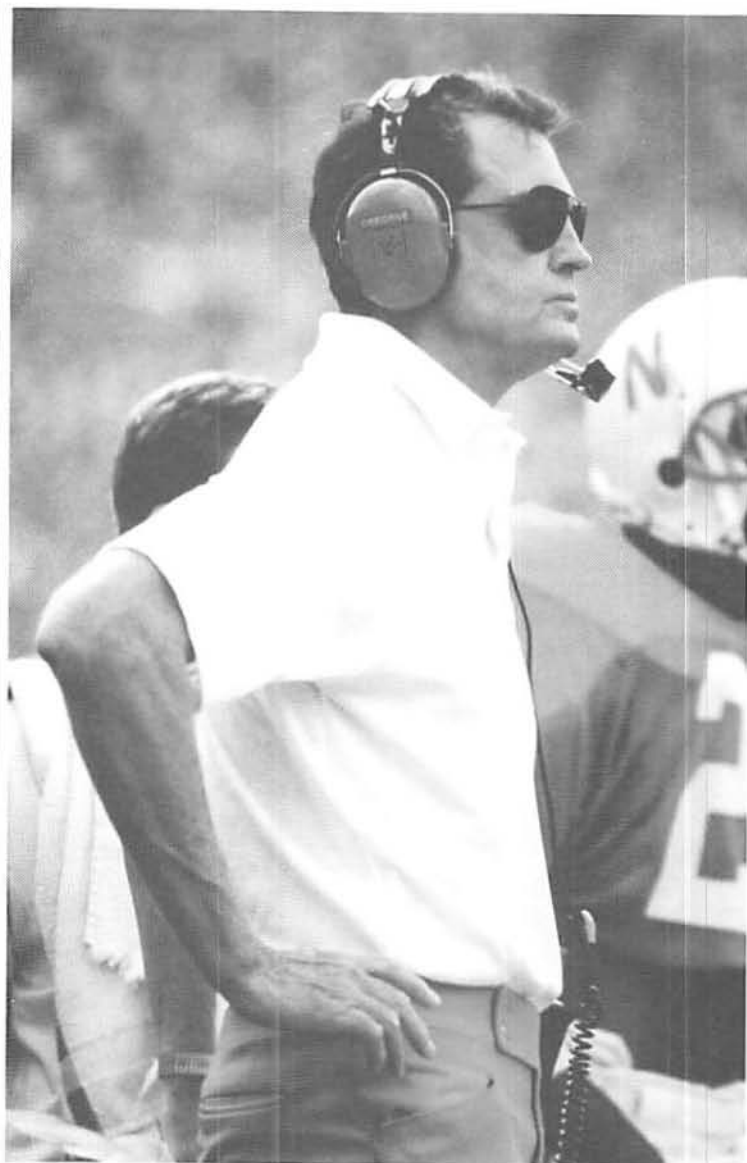

One area on defense where Nebraska appears to be set is linebacker, despite the loss of three-year starting strong-side 'backer Mike Petko, an 11th-round draft pick of the New England Patriots. All-America candidate Travis Hill will be back for his third year as the starter at left outside linebacker, with talented veterans David White and Trev Alberts again holding things down on the right side. Hard-hitting junior Mike Anderson returns, but switches to strong-side after starting every game at weak-side last year. He'll be backed up by lettermen Troy Branch and Darren Williams. The weak-side 'backer figures to be sophomore Ed Stewart, a smallish (6-0, 205), but very active player who had 11 tackles against Miami in the Orange Bowl. Two other lettermen back at weak-side linebacker are true sophomore Doug Colman and junior Matt Penland, who returns after sitting out 1991 with a knee injury.

Kickers Are Set, Return Game Must Improve

The Huskers return two veteran kickers in junior place-kicker Byron Bennett (45-48 PATs, 11-18 field goals in 1991) and senior punter Mike Stigge, a four-year starter and an All-America candidate who averaged 42.03 yards per punt last year on his way to All-Big Eight and GTE Academic All-America honors. Nebraska looks for continued production from those two, and hopes to see a return to form from the return teams after the Huskers failed to score a point on special teams in 1991 for only the second time in Osborne's tenure as head coach.

"We've got a top-notch punter in Stigge," Osborne said. "We've got an excellent kickoff man and a reasonably good PAT and field-goal man in Byron. There have been a lot of springs where we didn't do much with the kicking game until the end, but we started working on the kicking game right off the bat this year. To have a good football team, we're going to have to have a real good kicking game. We've got a chance to have a real good return game. That can be worth one or two games a year."

Dixon and Hughes are the primary candidates to fuel that return game. The two burners have run 4.40 and 4.42 electronic times in the 40, and Hughes is a two-time Big Eight kickoff return champ who was third in the NCAA in 1990 when he set a school record with 523 kickoff return yards and averaged 29.1 yards per return.

Quoting Tom Osborne

Overall Prospects: "I think we're going to have a good football team this year. We should be very sound on offense. The biggest question will be maybe quarterback. Defensively, we have a lot of people returning. We need to find at least one cornerback, and possibly a little bit of depth in the defensive line."

The Offense: "We feel that offensively we're solid. We have William Washington returning at tight end; Abdul Muhammad, Vincent Hawkins at wingback; and we have Tyrone Hughes, Corey Dixon and Trumane Bell at split end. So we still have good receivers, despite losing three players who were drafted by the NFL. The offensive line will probably be a little bigger and more mobile than last year's, and we have very good running backs. I think the quarterbacking will be good, but the experience factor there may or may not be great. If Mike Grant is the starter, he's played a fair amount. If Tony Veland or somebody like that is the starter, then we're short of game experience."

The Running Backs: "The running backs are excellent with Derek Brown and Calvin Jones at I-back, and then Lance Lewis was the fullback who played most of the time last year, and we have a young guy named Cory Schlesinger who's very good, too. We feel like we've got four great backs there, and Andre McDuffy is a very capable back who can play both fullback and I-back. We're not overwhelmed with numbers, but the quality is outstanding."

On Derek Brown and Calvin Jones: "Calvin's a bigger back. He's about 215 and has great speed. He's probably the faster of the two straightaway. Derek has outstanding lateral mobility and very fine hands. He'll probably be used some as a receiver, and play a little bit of wingback as well as I-back. We're going to try to get both of them in the game as much as we can. They're both great players, and at the I-back position, of course, you need more than one player."

On Style of Play: "I think we'll have a very good offensive football team, and of course that all starts with the offensive line. Whether you're wide-open or not depends pretty much on your players. 'Wide-open' usually translates to scoring a lot of points and moving the football. Last year, we did average over 500 yards a game, and that had more to do with talent than style of offense. It's the same way this year. We feel we'll be talented, so most people will say we're wide-open, but that's because we'll be talented. We're going to do what our quarterback allows us to do. If we have a guy who's a better thrower in there, we'll throw more. If he's a better runner, we'll run more. But I think we'll move the ball and be pretty good."

On the Defense: "I think on defense, our linebackers are going to be quite strong. Outside 'backers, with people like Travis Hill, David White, Trev Alberts, we'll be strong. Inside 'backers, we have players like Mike Anderson and Ed Stewart returning, and then some young guys that I think are coming along. The safety positions should be good. Tyrone Byrd and Steve Carmer are returning, along with Ernie Beler. The areas where we would probably need the most help would be at cornerback, because we did lose two of the top three corners. Kenny Wilhite underwent knee surgery, but it appears like he'll be OK. So we need to find at least one more corner who can play well. In the defensive line, John Parrella is a great player, and we have a number of others like David Noonan and Jamie Liewer, who played a good deal. Kevin Ramaekers played a good deal last year. Bruce Moore played a good deal last year. But I think we could still use some more depth and more quality in the defensive line."

On the Kicking Game: "To have a good football team, we're going to have to have a really good kicking game. We've got a chance to have a real good return game. That can be worth one or two games a year."

On the Offensive Line: "The potential is pretty exciting in the offensive line. We've got more big people who can move pretty well than ever before. There will be a lot of things to iron out. It takes a long time to become a good offensive line, but at least the talent is there."

On the QB System: "Everything being equal, we'd go with Mike (Grant) because he's got experience, but we're not going to hand Mike the job because he's been here. The evaluation will continue. We put them through a rigorous competition. There's quite a bit of pressure. The only difference is doing it when there's people in the stands. Whoever plays the best will play. When Gerry Gdowski played, he performed better than anyone else. So did Keithen McCant. The good thing about the system is, you have to do it on the field. If I start a freshman, it's the best we've got."

On Speed: "You can't just go get a bunch of track guys and play. You've got to get guys who have football ability, too. A lot of it has come down to a matter of who can get the most good players who also have good speed. College football has become a much quicker game. As speed has become more of a factor, it has tended to favor areas of the country where there are more fast people and there is more emphasis on running. And that emphasis is where the weather is warmer year around. College football has become more like pro football—it is so situational. If you don't have great people with the size to play the run and the speed to defend the pass, you can get hurt trying to get the right people on the field at the right time. Offensively, we've got a little better speed up front. Defensively, we've got reasonable speed. What you would like to do is play defense with a whole bunch of Neil Smiths who run 4.7, and then find a bunch of big offensive linemen who run 4.9. I like having speed, but it's hard to locate 15 or 20 guys like that."

Alberts combines with David White to make right outside linebacker one of the strongest positions on Nebraska's defense in 1992. One of the best all-around athletes on the team, Alberts' performance index at the end of winter conditioning of 2,717 points was second only to tight end William Washington's 2,783. He runs a 4.68-second 40, a 1.66-second 10-yard dash, and has a 37.5-vertical jump.

1991: Despite not starting a game, he led Nebraska in sacks with seven for 50 yards, and was the Huskers' seventh-leading tackler, with 53, including 19 solos, and had nine total tackles for loss (for 60 yards), second to left OLB Travis Hill's 9.5. With that performance and a 3.35 grade-point average in speech communications, he was named Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight. Although White started every game, he and Alberts shared time more or less equally at the position, and ended up combining for 16 tackles for loss, including 12 sacks. Named NU's defensive player-of-the-week following the Iowa State game, Alberts had a career- and Nebraska season-high four sacks for 33 yards against ISU. Of Alberts' 13 career sacks, seven have come against his homestate Cyclones. His career high of nine tackles came in NU's come-from-behind 19-19 tie at Colorado.

1990: Alberts was named Big Eight Defensive Freshman-of-the-Year by the conference coaches after he played in every game except the opener vs. Baylor, and finished with 16 total tackles, 10 unassisted, including four tackles for loss (all sacks) for 33 yards, had one fumble recovery and two hurries. A reserve behind Mike Croel (the NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year in 1991), Alberts had his top season tackle game at Iowa State, Oct. 27, when he returned to his native state and recorded eight total tackles, including three sacks for 27 yards. He also had five tackles at Kansas.

1989: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted in his first year at NU.

At Cedar Falls Northern

University HS: A two-year Class 1A all-stater and the 1988 Class 1A player-of-the year in 1988, he set the school season tackle record with 107 as a senior. As a running back on offense, he rushed 106 times for 681 yards and scored 14 touchdowns in leading Coach Denny Kettner's team to a 7-2 record and a berth in the state playoffs for the first time in school history. Also an all-state selection in basketball, he led the school to the finals of the state tournament as a senior, and helped Northern University to four-straight state track titles.

Personal: The son of Ken and Linda Alberts, he was born Aug. 8, 1970, at Cedar Falls. He has a brother, Troy, and a sister, Tami. A speech communications major, he goes into his fourth year at NU with a 3.289 grade-point average.

★ Honorable-Mention
All-Big Eight

One of the hardest hitters on the Husker team, Anderson started every game at weak-side line-backer in 1991, replacing two-time All-Big Eight Pat Tyrance, but he'll move to strong-side 'backer in 1992 and will make a strong challenge for postseason honors. The Huskers' strongest player, his strength index at the end of winter conditioning of 1,912 points was the highest on the team. He had the best lift in the clean (405 pounds), and was fourth in both the bench press (419) and the squat (578).

1991: Nebraska's second-leading tackler with 80 (including 28 solos), seven back of strong safety Steve Carmer. Anderson also had three tackles for losses totaling 7 yards, caused two fumbles and recovered another. He was Nebraska's leading tackler four times, against Washington, Missouri, Colorado and Oklahoma. And four of his top five tackle games came against the Huskers' four toughest opponents—12 each vs. Washington and Oklahoma, 11 at Colorado, and nine at Miami in the Orange Bowl. His fumble recovery came against then-No. 4 Washington when the Huskies' Beno Bryant fumbled a Mike Stigge punt at the UW 2-yard line. Anderson jumped on the ball, and Derek Brown scored on the next play to give the Huskers what proved to be a short-lived 21-9 lead. He was named Nebraska's defensive player-of-the-week following the Washington and Missouri (nine tackles) games. NU's 1991 "Lifter-of-the-Year," he tied for first on the team in spring testing in both the bench press (408 pounds) and the clean (391) while his strength index of 1,837 points was second only to Curtis Cotton.

1990: One of several redshirt freshmen who made significant contributions, Anderson was the Huskers' alternate weak-side linebacker behind Tyrance. He played in all 11 games and finished with 18 tackles, including a sack for 7 yards lost. Also had a fumble recovery, vs. Oklahoma State, and a quarterback hurry. His top tackle game was four vs. Missouri.

1989: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted in his first season at NU.

At Grand Island HS: One in a long line of recruits who played for recently-retired former Husker Kenny Fischer, Anderson was the offensive captain of the all-class, all-state team in 1988. An all-conference linebacker and tight end, he had more than 50 tackles as a senior, while catching 15 passes for 400-plus yards and nine touchdowns.

Personal: The son of Roger and Melodee Anderson, Mike was born Oct. 5, 1970, at Sacramento, Calif. He has one sister, Jenny.

Belser once again figures to play as the alternate strong safety behind senior Steve Carmer in one of Nebraska's strongest positions.

1991: The Huskers' alternate strong safety behind leading tackler Carmer, Belser played in all 11 games and finished as Nebraska's 12th-leading tackler with 41, including 17 solos. His top tackle game was eight in NU's 49-15 win at Oklahoma State, where he also had his lone interception of the season, returning it to the OSU 11 to set up a Husker touchdown. He also had six tackles vs. Kansas, and five each against Colorado State and Missouri. A transfer from Ellsworth (Iowa) Community College, he originally signed a letter-of-intent with Nebraska as a senior at Bayonne (N.J.) High School in 1988, but didn't qualify under the NCAA's Proposition 48 standards. Belser (pronounced BEE-ler) graduated from Ellsworth in December 1990, enrolled at NU for the spring semester and went through spring drills with the Huskers. He adjusted well and worked his way up the depth chart to the alternate strong safety spot behind Carmer.

At Ellsworth CC: All-region and all-conference as a freshman for Coach Lloyd Sisco in 1989, he helped the Panthers reach the junior-college championship game. He then redshirted in 1990 to save a year of eligibility at Nebraska.

At Bayonne HS: Belser was a two-time all-state running back, and also played linebacker, for Coach Don Ahern.

Personal: Ernie is the son of Anna Sargent, and has a brother, Lenard Sargent, and a sister, Cynt Sargent. He was born Dec. 5, 1968, at Bayonne, N.J.

★ Honorable-Mention
All-Big Eight

A strong-legged kicker, Bennett heads into his junior season ranked 45th on Nebraska's overall career scoring chart with 80 points. He's 12th all-time among kickers.

1991: Nebraska's second-leading scorer, Bennett scored 78 points, six behind I-backs Calvin Jones and Derek Brown. At 7.09 points per game, he was sixth in the Big Eight and 29th in the NCAA. He was 45 of 48 on PATs with the new, narrower goal posts (from 23-4 to 18-6), and 11 of 18 on field-goals. Inside 50 yards, he was 11 of 16, and except for a nightmarish 1-of-5 night at Arizona State, he was 10 of 13 overall. Bennett hit his longest collegiate field goal, 47 yards, at Kansas (he had a 53-yarder in high school). He also served as the backup punter behind Mike Stigge, and made two unassisted tackles on kick coverage.

1990: As a redshirt freshman Bennett handled kickoffs for Nebraska all season long. He was 2-of-2 on PATs, with both kicks vs. Northern Illinois.

1989: Redshirt.

At Lakeview Centennial HS: Bennett was an all-district and All-Metroplex (Dallas/Fort Worth) kicker for Coach Tommy Watkins. He was seven of 10 on field goals of 40 or more yards, and a long of 53, and a narrow miss on a 63-yarder. Bennett averaged 43 yards as a punter. He also played quarterback as a sophomore and junior, then concentrated on kicking as a senior.

Personal: Criminal justice major. The son of Ted and Kay Bennett, he was born Dec. 7, 1970, at Dallas, Texas.

One of the Huskers' two bona fide All-America candidates at running back (with sophomore Calvin Jones), Brown heads into his junior season ranked 17th on Nebraska's career rushing chart with 1,688 yards, and is 22nd in career scoring with 120 points. After running for 1,313 yards as a sophomore, he'll try to become only the fifth Husker to have two 1,000-yard seasons (no Husker has ever had three). Brown and Jones are again expected to share time at I-back after combining for 2,213 yards last year—the second-best one-two punch in school history behind the 2,587 by Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier and Jeff Smith in 1983. In an effort to get both standouts in the game at the same time, Husker coaches plan to use Brown, who is a fine receiver, at wingback this fall as well as I-back.

1991: Brown more than lived up to his billing as one of 1989's top running back recruits, as he finished second in the Big Eight and ninth nationally in rushing at 119.36 yards per game and earned All-Big Eight honors from both the league coaches and the Associated Press. He was named third-team All-America by AP and the Football News, and a first-team sophomore All-American by Football News. On the year, he carried 230 times for 1,313 yards, the fifth-best season in Nebraska history. Brown started the year as the alternate behind Scott Baldwin, but took over when the latter went down with a sprained ankle on the first series of the season, vs. Utah State. Brown came off the bench to rush for a career-high 175 yards against the Aggies, and went on to top the 100-yard mark in each of the first seven games. That string included a 100-yard, two-touchdown effort vs. Washington in which he notched the only 100-yard game against the Huskies' defense last year and scored two of the six rushing TDs given up by UW in 1991 (in fact, only one other team, No. 8 California, with 114, topped 100 rushing yards vs. Washington). The first team to hold Brown under 100 was Colorado, but the Californian still turned in one of his best performances of the year in that game as the Huskers came from behind to tie the defending national champs, 19-19. Held to just four yards on 10 carries in the first half, he was part of a Husker onslaught in the second as he shrugged off CU defenders and sub-zero nighttime wind chills to pound away for 92 yards on 20 second-half carries, including the game-tying TD with 6:41 left in the game. Brown was also held to 98 yards by Oklahoma, but was a major factor in the Huskers coming back from a 14-0 deficit to win, 19-14, as he carried 16 times for 73 yards in the third quarter to get the rally started. He was Nebraska's offensive player-of-the-week four times—Utah State, Arizona State (25 for 135), Kansas State (28 for 145 and three TDs) and Colorado. He was named Big Eight offensive player-of-the-week following the Arizona State game. Brown and Jones tied for the Husker scoring lead at 84 points apiece (14 TDs), but Jones did not play in the Colorado game and his 8.40 average per game was enough to make him the first freshman ever to lead the Big Eight in scoring, just ahead of Brown and Oklahoma's

Mike Gaddis at 7.63. He also caught 10 passes for 86 yards as a sophomore, the most receptions for a Husker running back since Rozier caught 10 for 106 in 1983, and Brown's 132.51 all-purpose yards per game ranked him second in the Big Eight and 19th in the nation.

1990: Brown appeared ready to challenge for Big Eight newcomer-of-the-year honors until a separated shoulder sidelined him at the end of the season. Despite appearing in only eight games, he rushed for 375 yards and five TDs on 59 carries, and became the first freshman to start at I-back for Nebraska in 16 seasons, when he replaced the injured Leodis Flowers in the Minnesota game and responded with 120 yards and two TDs. One of NU's few bright spots in a 45-21 Citrus Bowl loss to Georgia Tech, he had 99 yards and a TD on 11 carries against the co-national champions, and gave the Huskers a glimmer of hope when his 50-yard TD run cut the Yellow Jacket lead to 21-14 in the second quarter. A true freshman he led Husker backs in receiving on the season with five catches for 79 yards and a TD.

1989: Signed with Nebraska in February, but was a non-qualifier under the NCAA's Proposition 48 guidelines. Came to Nebraska on his own and attended the University as a part-time student, later met the ACT requirement, and thus was a true freshman when he began competition in 1990.

At Anaheim Servite HS: First-team All-America selection by Parade Magazine and USA Today. Ran for 20 TDs and set an Orange County record with 2,400 rushing yards as a senior in 1988. Third-leading rusher in Orange County history with 4,800 yards in three years for Coach Leo Hand. Led Servite to 10-3 record, CIF semifinals in 1988 and received the Glenn Davis Award as the best football player in the southern section of California. Lettered twice in track.

Nebraska's starting free safety in every game the last two years, Byrd and strong safety Steve Carmer give the Huskers a talented, experienced set of safeties again in 1992. With 158 career tackles, he has a chance to break Reggie Cooper's school record of 195 by a defensive back, set from 1987-90.

1991: Byrd was the Huskers' third-leading tackler, finishing with 71, including two behind the line. For the second-straight year, he shared the team lead in fumbles caused (three), and was second on the squad in pass breakups, with seven, two back of cornerback Tyrone Legette's school-record nine. He recorded his regular-season career tackle high Sept. 28 at Arizona State, when he returned to his native area in the Valley of the Sun and turned in a team-leading 11 total tackles, including seven solos. He also caused two Sun Devil fumbles in the Huskers' 18-9 win, and was named NU's defensive player-of-the-week for the effort. Byrd's other top tackle games were eight vs. Kansas State and Colorado, and seven vs. Utah State (a team high) and Iowa State, but his overall best came in the 1992 Orange Bowl against co-national champion Miami when he had a team-leading 12. He had just one interception as a junior, at Oklahoma State, which was the ninth of his career, tying him for sixth on the NU career chart. In addition, three of his PBUs last year came against OSU. Byrd was named honorable-mention All-Big Eight by the conference coaches.

1990: Byrd started every game and led the team and ranked third in the Big Eight in interceptions with five. He also shared team lead in fumbles caused (four) with OLB Mike Croel. Finished with 41 tackles to tie DT Joe Sims for eighth on the squad. Recorded season-high nine tackles vs. Colorado, after having his 1989 season-high of eight against the Buffs. Had seven tackles at Oklahoma. His interceptions came against Baylor, Northern Illinois, Kansas State, Missouri, Iowa State.

1989: Huskers' fifth-leading tackler with 46. Played extensively as alternate free safety behind Marvin Sanders in first seven games, then started rest of way when Sanders separated his shoulder. Conference coaches named him Big Eight Defensive Freshman-of-the-Year. Recorded season high of eight tackles in each of first two starts, Iowa State and Colorado, sharing team lead vs. CU. Named NU's defensive player-of-week for Colorado game, when he also had two tackles for losses of 3 yards, caused a fumble, intercepted a pass on Buffs' first possession to set up 51-yard Gerry Gdowski-to-Bryan Carpenter TD pass on next play. Byrd's efforts helped NU hold Colorado to 22 passing yards, best pass-defense effort of season in Big Eight. Forced fumble in opening minute of Oklahoma game, which Nebraska recovered to set up 34-yard TD drive. Second on team in interceptions to SS Reggie Cooper with three, tying him for seventh in Big Eight. His 31-yard interception return in final minute vs. Sooners was longest of year for Nebraska.

1988: Redshirt.

At Chandler High School: All-state, two-time all-conference for Coach Delvin Schutes. Regional defensive player-of-the-year as a senior, when he had eight of his 18 career interceptions. Also returned 14 kickoffs 268 yards, and as Chandler's starting QB, rushed 105 times for 355 yards, four TDs, completed 59 of 102 passes for 834 yards, eight TDs. Lettered in basketball, track. Visited Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado State before signing with NU.

Personal: Sociology major. The son of Sabrina Byrd, he has one older sister. Born Feb. 12, 1970, at Phoenix, Ariz.

Carmer replaced three-year starter Reggie Cooper and made history in 1991, becoming the first defensive back to lead Nebraska in tackles since tackle stats were first kept in 1965. In 1992, he'll again team with free safety Tyrone Byrd to give the Huskers a talented and experienced set of safeties.

1991: In the process of leading the team in tackles, Carmer set a school record for season tackles by a defensive back with 87, including a team-leading 35 solos, to smash the old position record of 76 set by Jim Pillen in 1977, while 52 of his tackles were assists, breaking the old DB mark of 39 by Randy Reeves in 1969—all this after getting just one unassisted tackle in the opener vs. Utah State. Carmer had his career tackle high of 12 three times, vs. Washington, Kansas and Oklahoma, and was the Huskers' leading tackler five times—Colorado State (six), Washington, Oklahoma State (nine), Kansas and Oklahoma (12). He was named NU's defensive player-of-the-week three times, following the Colorado State, Oklahoma State and Kansas games. A second-team All-Big Eight selection by conference coaches, Carmer was also a key factor in Nebraska coming back to get a crucial tie at Colorado, as he had nine tackles, including three of his four tackles for loss on the season, which resulted in 19 yards lost for the Buffs. Another top tackle game was 11 against Kansas State. In addition to his tackle stats, he shared the team lead in both fumbles caused (three) and recovered (two), and was among team leaders in pass breakups (six) and interceptions (three). Carmer had Nebraska's only interception-return touchdown in 1991, a 34-yard effort against Colorado State, a game in which he also had a 20-yard sack.

1990: Carmer played in all 11 games, and was a major contributor on special teams. He finished with 25 tackles, including 14 unassisted stops, had two pass breakups and had one quarterback hurry against Missouri, which resulted in a Husker interception. He had a career-high six tackles against Oklahoma State, then had five in the regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: Carmer started at free safety for the 5-0-0 junior varsity team and shared the squad lead in interceptions with cornerback Tyrone Legette at two, returning them 53 and 20 yards. Carmer tied for third on the team and led the secondary in total tackles with 25, including 20 unassisted stops. He also had four pass breakups. He saw action as a reserve in the varsity's 48-6 win over Nevada-Las Vegas and made one unassisted tackle.

At Wahoo HS: An all-class, all-state defensive back for Coach Dick Tinglehoff, Carmer had 65 tackles (one for a safety), three fumble recoveries and 65-yard interception-return touchdown. On offense, he rushed for 1,077 yards and caught seven passes for 255 yards, while averaging 27.7 yards on kickoff returns. He was also the leading scorer (16.6 ppg) on Wahoo's Class B state championship basketball team and was in on the start of the Warriors' state-record 114-game

After sitting out a redshirt season in 1991, Grant will go into his senior season rated even with freshman Tony Veland at the top of the quarterback depth chart. The Huskers' only experienced signal-caller going into the 1992 season, he missed the latter half of spring practice after breaking his collarbone in the second full scrimmage of the spring.

1991: After being involved in a four-way battle at quarterback in spring practice, Grant opted for a redshirt year, as the other three QBs involved were all fifth-year seniors—Keithen McCant, Mickey Joseph and Tom Haase.

1990: Grant was NU's starting quarterback in the season opener vs. Baylor, but suffered a bruised knee against the Bears, and sat out the Huskers' next two contests. He returned to the starting lineup against Oregon State and Kansas State, but then gave way to Joseph, who started the rest of the regular season, before suffering a severe leg laceration in the season-ending loss at Oklahoma. With Joseph sidelined for the Citrus Bowl game vs. Georgia Tech, Grant again got the starting nod as he returned to play in his native state for his first time as a collegian. In the regular season, Grant completed 32 of 69 passes (46.4 percent) for 484 yards and four touchdowns, with four interceptions. He also rushed for 153 yards on 42 attempts, but against Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl, he had four incomplete passes and lost 2 yards on three rushing attempts.

1989: Taken out of a planned redshirt year in the third game of the season, Grant shared the alternate quarterback job with Joseph behind Gerry Gdowski for six games until he suffered a shoulder separation. He missed the final three regular-season games, plus the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl vs. Florida State. Mike saw action in five games, rushing 27 times for 166 yards and a 6.1-yard average, while completing eight of 17 passes for 123 yards and two TDs. His top rushing game was a nine-carry, 55-yard outing at Missouri, and his top passing day came against Kansas State, when he completed three of four passes for 40 yards, including a 16-yard TD pass to split end Jon Bostick.

1988: Grant quarterbacked the junior varsity to a 5-0-0 record as he compiled 912 total-offense yards, the second highest figure in freshman/jayvee history, trailing only Turner Gill's record 979 in 1980. He completed 19 of 40 passes (47.5 percent) for 468 yards and 11 touchdowns, with just two interceptions, for an NCAA passing rating of 226.5. The second-leading rusher on the team, he carried the ball 64 times for 444 yards and seven touchdowns to lead the squad in TDs and points scored (42). Did not see action in varsity games.

At Brandon, Fla., HS: A three-year starter for Coach Larry Bass, Grant led the suburban Tampa school to a 25-9 record from 1985-87 and earned all-conference honors as a sophomore. Brandon ran the I-formation his first two seasons, then switched to the wishbone before his senior year. Grant, who also lettered in basketball and track, made recruiting visits to Alabama, Notre Dame, Purdue and Clemson before deciding to sign with Nebraska.

Personal: Speech communications major. The son of James and Barbara Grant, he has five brothers and one sister. Mike was born Jan. 26, 1970, at Tampa, Fla.

One of Nebraska's most talented, durable players, Hill has started every game at left outside linebacker the last two years and has played in all 36 games over the last three. He's established himself as the best in the Big Eight, and should challenge for high national honors as a senior.

1991: Was named second-team All-Big Eight by the Associated Press in 1991. One of the league's top pass rushers, Hill led the Huskers in tackles for loss with 9.5 for 52.5 yards lost and shared the team lead in quarterback hurries with tackle John Parrella at 17. Hill was NU's fifth-leading tackler with 65 (up from 49 in his standout sophomore season), including 4.5 sacks for 31.5 yards, plus two pass breakups, a fumble caused, a fumble recovered, and an interception caused. He was Nebraska's defensive player-of-the-week three times, for performances against Utah State, Kansas State and Oklahoma, and capped his junior season by being named Big Eight defensive player-of-the-week in the 19-14 win over OU. Against the Sooners, he had six total tackles, including two for losses of 9 yards and an 8-yard sack of Sooner quarterback Cale Gundy, and he forced Gundy to throw two incompletions on the Sooners' last possession. One of his top career performances came in Nebraska's wild, come-from-behind, 38-31, win over Kansas State, Oct. 19, when he had nine tackles, two sacks for 18 yards, and broke up Wildcat quarterback Paul Watson's fourth-down pass at the Husker goal line with 36 seconds left. Hill had his season tackle high of 10 twice, vs.

then-No. 4 Washington, Sept. 21, and at Kansas, Nov. 9.

1990: As a sophomore playing the outside linebacker position opposite Mike Croel (the 1991 NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year), Hill saw plenty of action come his way, and handled it well. He was sixth on the team in tackles with 49, and tied for third in tackles for loss with 10 for 43 yards. Travis was second behind All-America tackle Kenny Walker in QB hurries with 12, and led the Huskers in fumble recoveries with three. He capped the season with an 11-tackle game (still his career high) at Oklahoma, a performance which earned him CBS Nebraska player-of-the-game and NU defensive player-of-the-week honors.

1989: Hill came off a redshirt year to back up All-Big Eight OLB Jeff Mills, and had an outstanding rookie season. He recorded 25 total tackles (16 unassisted), including six for losses totaling 30 yards, three of those QB sacks for 25 yards lost. He had six hurries, one of which resulted in a Husker interception vs. Utah. He also caused a fumble against the Utes, and had a blocked punt against Missouri which was recovered by teammate Reggie Cooper in the end zone for a touchdown.

1988: Redshirt.

At Pearland HS: Two-time all-district, All-Brazoria County and All-Greater Houston for Coach Rod Ivy. Helped lead Pearland to the state playoffs as a junior in 1986, but the school fell to 0-10 his senior year. Lettered three times in basketball, twice in track.

3 Letters★ Two-time Big Eight
Kickoff Return Champion

One of the most dangerous open-field weapons in the Husker arsenal, Hughes returned to split end in the spring after playing cornerback against Miami in the 1992 Orange Bowl. A two-time Big Eight Conference kickoff-return champion, he goes into his senior year with 1,019 career kickoff-return yards, well within striking distance of the school record of 1,154 set by Dana Brinson from 1985-88. Hughes has averaged 14.6 yards each time he has touched the ball in his career, getting 2,032 all-purpose yards on 139 attempts. In testing at the end of winter conditioning, he posted the team's fastest 40-yard time, 4.44 seconds, just one one-hundredth ahead of fellow split end Corey Dixon. Hughes and Dixon later teamed on the Husker track team's 4 x 100-meter relay team which finished second at the Big Eight Outdoor Track and Field Championships in 39.82 seconds.

1991: Hughes made the switch to cornerback when he was hampered as a receiver after breaking his wrist against Colorado, Nov. 2, and having to wear a cast. Despite just two weeks of practice, he had five tackles against the Hurricanes and acquitted himself well. He sat out two games after the injury, then played against Oklahoma, Nov. 29, and returned the second-half kickoff 30 yards to set up the Huskers' drive to their first touchdown as NU rallied from a 14-0 deficit to win, 19-14. Despite the injury, he was still fourth on the Husker team in all-purpose yards with 642, and led the Big Eight in kickoff returns for the second-straight year, with a 21.13-yard average. After switching from wingback to split end in the spring, he was Nebraska's third-leading receiver, with 12 catches for 208 yards and two touchdowns, and averaged 13.7 yards on seven punt returns. He had his top career receiving game at Oklahoma State, five catches for 77 yards and one touchdown. Also recorded two unassisted tackles on special teams.

1990: The Huskers' alternate wingback behind Nate Turner, Hughes led the Big Eight and was third in the NCAA in kickoff returns at 29.1 ypr, set a Nebraska season record with 523 kickoff-return yards, and tied the NCAA single-game record for all kick-return yards with 247 at Kansas State, helped by a school-record 151 yards on kickoff returns, including a 99-yard TD. Hughes ranked second in Big Eight and 16th nationally in punt returns at 12.5, and was seventh in the conference in all-purpose yards at 92.0 per game. His 251 all-purpose yards at K-State are seventh in NU history. Started the Baylor game. 1989: Hughes won the Big Eight punt-return title at 15.13 yards per return, helped by a 59-yard jaunt against Missouri. Played in all 11 games, started vs. Iowa State.

1988: Redshirt.

At New Orleans St. Augustine HS: Louisiana offensive player-of-the-year in 1987 when he rushed for 845 yards on 62 carries for a 13.6-yard average from his wingback position, caught 20 passes for 601 yards in a run-oriented offense, scored 22 TDs, and averaged 40.4 yards on kickoff returns, 14 yards on punt returns. Prep teammate of Huskers David White, and Vincent Hawkins. One of his coaches was former Husker Burton Burns.

Personal: Son of Arthur Sr. and Anita Hughes, he has one brother and two sisters. Born Jan. 14, 1970.

The most highly-touted running back to come out of a Nebraska high school since Gale Sayers also came out of Omaha Central in 1961, Jones more than lived up to his billing in 1991, and will go into his sophomore season sharing the top spot at I-back with All-Big Eight junior Derek Brown.

1991: After sitting out 1990 as a redshirt, Jones ran for a Nebraska freshman record of 900 yards as NU's alternate I-back behind Brown, and became the first freshman ever to lead the Big Eight Conference in scoring, finishing at 8.40 points per game to edge Kansas kicker Dan Eichloff, Brown and Oklahoma back Mike Gaddis for the conference lead, and rank 10th in the nation. Jones' 900 yards were the fifth-most ever for a freshman in the Big Eight and allowed him to rank sixth in the league at an even 90.0 yards per game. His 8.33 average per carry set a Nebraska record for a minimum of 100 attempts, breaking the old mark of 7.91 set by Gerry Gdowski in 1989. That earned him near-unanimous Big Eight Offensive Newcomer-of-the-Year honors, as well as second-team all-conference honors from the Associated Press. The Huskers' I-back combination of Brown and Jones—the Dynamic Duo totaled 2,213 rushing yards, the second-best one-two punch in Nebraska history behind the 2,587 by Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier (2,148) and Jeff Smith (439) in 1983. Jones' rookie year will be most-remembered for his wonderful day at Kansas, Nov. 9, and for his clutch performance against Oklahoma three weeks later. At KU, he came in for the injured Brown (scratched cornea) and carried 27 times for a Nebraska-record 294 yards and a Nebraska- and Big Eight-record six touchdowns. The 294 rushing yards were the most ever by a freshman in the Big Eight and the second-most ever by a freshman in NCAA Division I-A, behind the 386 by San Diego State's Marshall Faulk against Pacific earlier in 1991. The performance earned him Big Eight Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors, as well as national offensive player-of-the-week honors from The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated. Jones also had one pass reception for 4 yards at KU, giving him another school record with 298 all-purpose yards. Starting with that performance, Jones finished the year with 533 yards and nine touchdowns in the last three games. He averaged 10.1 yards per carry in that stretch and it was to him that Nebraska turned in the clutch against Oklahoma, Nov. 29. In Nebraska's winning 10-play, 80-yard, fourth-quarter drive, the freshman lugged the ball nine times for 78 yards. With the Orange Bowl bid and a share of the Big Eight title on the line, and the Sooners leading, 14-13, Jones who took a pitchout from quarterback Keithen McCant on fourth-and-1 at the OU 19 with 3:08 left. He picked up 4 yards around left end on that play, then burst over left guard on the next for a 15-yard TD run that sent the Huskers to Miami. In the Orange Bowl, he was Nebraska's leading rusher, with 69 yards on 15 carries.

★ Honorable-Mention
All-Big Eight

Lewis shouldered nearly all of the load at fullback last season and used his excellent blocking ability to help clear the way for I-backs Derek Brown and Calvin Jones to combine for 2,213 rushing yards, and he was a big reason why the Huskers won the NCAA rushing crown for the seventh time in 12 years at 353.2 yards per game. An excellent short-yardage runner, he's been thrown for a loss only once in 101 career attempts, and that a 1-yard loss on a first-and-10 play at Kansas in 1990.

1991: Lewis played in 10 of 11 games (missing the Colorado State game with ankle and knee injuries) and carried the ball 25 times on the season for 196 yards. He was named honorable-mention All-Big Eight by the conference coaches. Lewis joined the Husker track team following the spring football game in 1991, and three weeks later, in his first season of track and field competition since high school, won the Big Eight shot put title with a throw of 58-3.

1990: After sitting out the 1989 season for a medical hardship and having surgery to repair an old high school neck injury, Lewis came back 100 percent and had an outstanding season. He played in all 11 regular-season games, sharing the top fullback spot with Omar Soto. Lewis started six games, including all of the last five, and finished the year with 198 rushing yards on 47 attempts. Lewis' top season rushing game was a four-carry, 32-yard day vs. Missouri, while his blocking helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight in three offensive categories, rushing offense (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring offense (37.5 points per game). He also caught three passes for 39 yards.

1989: Missed the season with a medical redshirt.

1988: A scholarship recruit, Lewis moved up to the varsity shortly after his arrival on campus and never played with the junior varsity. He saw action in all 12 regular-season games plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, and finished with 29 rushes for 132 yards. His top game was a 50-yard outing at Kansas, where he scored his only touchdown of the season on a 5-yard run. Lewis began the season as the No. 3 fullback behind Sam Schmidt and Bryan Carpenter, but moved up to the alternate spot for the last seven regular-season games after Schmidt broke a leg at UCLA and an experiment with Tyreese Knox at fullback ended when Knox had to go back to I-back due to Terry Rodgers' knee surgery. On special teams, Lewis had two unassisted tackles, one for a loss of 3 yards.

At Scott City HS: An all-state fullback and linebacker for Coach Dave Dunham, Lewis rushed for 1,600 yards and 24 touchdowns while leading his conference in tackles with 133, 88 of them unassisted, and led Scott City to the state playoffs for first time in 13 years. The USA Today player-of-the-year in Kansas, Lewis had a rare triple at the Kansas state track and field meet—sweeping the 100- and 200-meter dashes, and winning the shot put to personally score 30 of Scott City's Class 4A winning total of 60 points.

Personal: The son of Bob Lewis, Lance was born March 27, 1970.

1992 Orange Bowl: rushing, 7-17.

A starter in six games a year ago, Liewer established himself as the starter at defensive right tackle in the spring after John Parrella switched to the right side.

1991: Liewer played in all 11 games, starting at right tackle in the opener vs. Utah State, then starting five times at left tackle at mid-season (Arizona State through Colorado) before Kevin Ramaekers came on strong at the end and reclaimed the starting role. Liewer (pronounced LEE-ver) finished with 25 total tackles, including five behind the line for 22 yards. In pass-rush situations, he had two sacks for 18 yards lost and seven hurries. At Arizona State, he had a pass interception and two fumbles caused. He had his career tackle high of five twice, at Oklahoma State and at home against Iowa State. He had one assisted tackle against Miami in the Orange Bowl.

1990: Liewer played in two regular-season games and had three tackles, including a 2-yard sack.

1989: Redshirt.

At Atkinson West Holt HS:

Liewer was a four-year starter for Coach Mike McCabe, on both offense and defense the last three years. An all-class, all-state selection while playing in the third largest of Nebraska's seven classes, he was credited with 97 total tackles, including 13 sacks, and recovered three opponents' fumbles in leading the Huskies to an 8-0-0 regular season. He also played on West Holt's Class C-1 state basketball championship team, where one of his teammates was Bruce Chubick, who will be a junior forward on the Nebraska basketball team this winter. He also lettered in track and won the Class C discus title in 1988.

Personal: The son of Merle and Anita Liewer, he was born Dec. 4, 1969, at Atkinson. He has two older sisters.

Wausa, Neb.
1 Letter

A key member of a massive offensive line (290-pound average on the first unit at the end of spring practice), Lundberg moved into the starting lineup in the Oklahoma State game last Oct. 12, and has been there ever since but will be pushed by sophomore Rob Zatechka..

1991: As a sophomore, he helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 years at 353.2 yards per game. The Huskers also led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 points per game). At the same time, Nebraska had its highest passing average per game (153.3 yards) since Vince Ferragamo was the quarterback in 1976. Lundberg began the 1991 season listed as the Huskers' alternate left tackle behind veteran Erik Wiegert then moved into the starting lineup when Wiegert went to guard.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: A scholarship recruit, Lundberg started at offensive right tackle for Coach Shane Thorell's junior varsity team.

At Wausa HS: Lundberg was an all-class, all-state lineman for Coach Stan Hageman, despite playing eight-man football on a 2-6 team. He led his team with 160 total tackles as a senior in 1988. He lettered four times each in football, basketball and track.

Personal: The son of Gary and Ruth Lundberg, Lance was born Aug. 15, 1970, at Osmond, Neb.. He has three brothers and a sister.

A converted tight end, Parrella has more than made the adjustment to defensive tackle, and now is considered by 16th-year line coach Charlie McBride as one of the three best linemen he's had at Nebraska, along with All-Americans Neil Smith and Danny Noonan.

1991: As a junior, Parrella had four of his five best career tackle days in the final four games of the season, including a regular-season career-high nine in the 19-14 win over Oklahoma, Nov. 29, a victory which earned Nebraska a trip to the Federal Express Orange Bowl. He also had three hurries against the Sooners, all on OU's last possession after the Huskers had taken the lead late in the game. In the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, he had his overall career high with 11 tackles, including one for a loss of 2 yards, plus a fumble caused and a quarterback hurry. Parrella, who had seven tackles each against Arizona State, Colorado and Iowa State, finished as Nebraska's seventh-leading tackler, with 56, was third on the squad in tackles for loss with 8.5 for 39.5 yards, and tied for third in sacks with 4.5 for 29.5 yards. He also had 17 hurries to share the team lead with outside linebacker Travis Hill. Against CU, a school which withdrew a scholarship offer after signing him to a letter-of-intent in 1988, Parrella added two tackles for loss, a 13-yard sack and three hurries. He was named honorable-mention All-Big Eight by both the Associated Press and the conference coaches.

1990: Parrella played in eight regular-season games, plus the Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech, and finished the year with four assisted tackles.

1989: Redshirted as he made the switch from tight end to defensive tackle.

1988: After Colorado signed him to a letter-of-intent and then withdrew the scholarship offer, Parrella came to Nebraska as a walk-on. He started at tight end for the 5-0 Husker junior varsity and caught two passes for 14 yards and one TD.

At Grand Island Central Catholic HS: Parrella was a two-time all-state selection as well as an honorable-mention All-American as a senior for Coach Carl Tesmer. He was also an honorable-mention all-state basketball player.

Personal: The son of Joe and Shirley Parrella, now of La Vista, Neb., John was born Nov. 22, 1969, at Topeka, Kan. He has one brother and one sister, both older.

★ Phillips 66 Big Eight
Academic Honor Roll

Ramaekers tore a knee ligament in winter conditioning in January, had reconstructive surgery, and missed all of spring practice, but his rehabilitation process progressed much faster than normal and he should be 100 percent this fall. His return would shore up a Husker defensive tackle corps that was a little thin in the spring.

1991: After missing two of the three previous years of competition, 1990 because of a redshirt and 1988 because of Proposition 48, Ramaekers made up for lost time as he became a key member of a rebuilt defensive line that kept improving as the season went along. He missed the season opener with back spasms, then started against Colorado State and Washington before giving way to sophomore Jamie Liewer. Ramaekers (pronounced RAY-make-ers) came off the bench with a solid six-tackle performance at Colorado, Nov. 2, and started the final three games, getting five tackles at Kansas, a career-high seven vs. Iowa State and six in the finale vs. Oklahoma. He made the Phillips 66 Big Eight Academic Honor Roll with a 3.04 grade-point average in human development, proving that test scores aren't necessarily an accurate measure of a student's ability.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After sitting out a year in order to meet the NCAA's Proposition 48 guidelines, Ramaekers became the starting left defensive tackle on the junior varsity team, and finished as the squad's fourth-leading tackler with 23 total stops.

He was second on the team in unassisted stops (18) and tackles for loss (five for 16 yards).

At Norfolk Catholic: A two-time Class C-1 all-state pick, Ramaekers was a Bally All-American and an all-class, all-state selection as a senior in 1987 when he led Coach Jeff Bellar's team to a berth in C-1 state championship game. One of the top prep track and field athletes in Nebraska history, his shot put of 62-10 in 1988 is the fourth-best on the state's all-time charts. He also won the Class C state heavyweight wrestling championship as a senior.

Personal: The son of Bud and Alice Ramaekers, Kevin was born Dec. 18, 1969, at Omaha, Neb. He has five brothers and three sisters. He's a family science and sociology major, and was named the most improved student by the Husker academic counseling division in 1989.

After sharing time at center with Bill Ziegelbein last year, Scott goes into his senior year as the Husker starter, and could challenge for post-season honors.

1991: Scott played in all 11 games as he shared time with Ziegelbein, and made four starts, vs. Colorado State, Washington, Kansas and Oklahoma. The smallest interior lineman on Nebraska's first two offensive units, he was part of a 294-pound average front wall that helped the Huskers win their seventh NCAA rushing title in 12 years at 353.2 yards per game. Nebraska led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 points per game). He made the Phillips 66 Big Eight Academic Honor Roll with a 3.47 grade-point average in business administration. He also received honorable-mention All-Big Eight honors from the conference coaches.

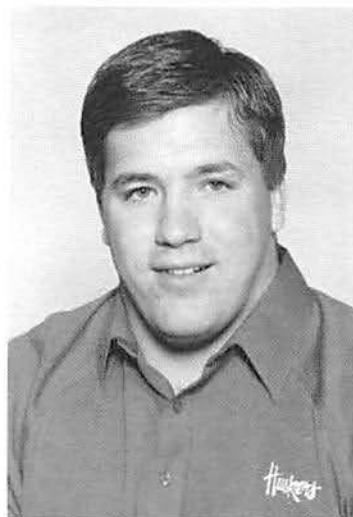

1990: Scott lettered as a reserve on the varsity, where he saw action in four games.

1989: Sat out after transferring from Kearney State (now Nebraska-Kearney), where he played as a freshman in 1988.

At Ansley H.S.: He played center and nose guard in eight-man football, was a Class D all-state selection for Coach Dan Moore, and helped lead Ansley to the state championship game three times in four years, with a state title coming in his junior year, 1987. He lettered four times each in football, basketball and track, and as a senior won the Class D shot put title and set the Class D record in the discus at 177 feet.

Personal: A business administration major, he has a 3.155 grade-point average. The son of Ralph and Lorraine Scott, Jim was born July 4, 1970, at Loup City, Neb. He has one brother, Jerry, and three sisters, Judy, Jill and Joan.

Will Shields Offensive Guard

6-1, 305, Senior
Lawton, Okla.

- ★ Second-Team All-American
- ★ Two-time All-Big Eight

A fourth-year senior who won't celebrate his 21st birthday until four days before the Sept. 19 showdown at Washington, Shields plays like a man much older and more-experienced. He'll be a strong candidate for All-America honors as well as the Outland and Lombardi Trophies. Very strong and a great technician, he was picked by Colorado Coach Bill McCartney last year as the Big Eight player he would choose to start a program. Said McCartney, when asked the question during the Nov. 18 Big Eight briefing, "He's a young offensive lineman with great ability and plays with great intensity. He's a terrific young man, I'm told, and seems to have everything you're looking for in an offensive lineman." A two-time All-Big Eight pick and a unanimous selection in 1991 by both the Associated Press and the conference coaches, he was a second-team AP All-American as a junior and appears to be headed for higher honors in 1992.

1991: As a junior, Shields helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 years at 353.2 yards per game, as the Huskers also led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 points per game). At the same time, the Huskers passed for more yards per game (153.3) than they had since Vince Ferragamo was the quarterback in 1976.

1990: A true sophomore and the Huskers' first player ever from the state of Oklahoma, Shields was named a first-team All-Big Eight guard by the league's coaches to become the first Nebraska offensive lineman since center Dave Rimington in 1980 to be named all-conference as a sophomore. He was the Huskers' first true sophomore offensive lineman to earn all-conference honors since the advent of two-platoon football in 1965. Shields played in all 11 games and started seven at right guard, including each of the last six and the Fiesta Bowl as he helped the Huskers lead the Big Eight in three categories, rushing offense (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring offense (37.5 points per game). Nebraska narrowly missed a third-straight NCAA rushing title, finishing second to Northern Illinois by just 4.6 yards per game.

1989: A scholarship recruit, Shields moved up to the varsity squad early in fall camp and played in nine of NU's 11 games to earn his letter. He and defensive back John Reece were the only true freshmen to letter for the 1989 Huskers.

At Lawton HS: A three-year starter at both offensive guard and defensive tackle for Coach Derald Ahlschlager, Shields helped lead Lawton to the state title in 1987, and was an all-state pick and the Daily Oklahoman's selection as Oklahoma lineman-of-the-year as a senior in 1988. One of his teammates was Oklahoma's standout running back, Dewell Brewer.

Personal: The son of Will and Rosie Shields, he was born Sept. 15, 1971.

One of the top punters in Nebraska history, Stigge will be a strong candidate for All-America honors in 1992, when he'll go for his second academic All-America certificate and his fourth academic All-Big Eight honor. He owns a 41.08-yard career average, well-within striking distance of the school record of 41.50 set by the late Jack Pesek in 1945-46-47. He also serves as the holder on place-kicks.

1991: A cold, wet, windy day in the 1991 regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma, Nov. 29, may have cost Stigge (pronounced STIGG-ee) the Big Eight punting title and the Nebraska season record, as he averaged just 26 yards on two punts, but he still enjoyed one of the best seasons ever for a Husker punter. He finished with a 42.03-yard average, 16th in the nation, and second in the Big Eight behind the 42.33 by Dan Eichloff of Kansas. It was the best average for a Husker punter since Grant Campbell's record 43.36 in 1981. A former walk-on, he was a first-team GTE Academic All-American, and an All-Big Eight pick by the conference coaches. Stigge wasn't needed in Nebraska's first two games, vs. Utah State and Colorado State (only the fifth and sixth times since 1946 that the Huskers haven't punted), so it wasn't until after the Nov. 2 Colorado game that he had played in the three-fourths of his teams games requisite for Big Eight and NCAA stats. After hitting seven for a 43.6-yard average in the frigid mountain air, he entered the rankings third in the NCAA and first in the Big Eight at 44.19, but averaged just 32.1 over the last three games. A pre-veterinary medicine major with a 3.517 grade-point average, he was named to the College Football Association's Scholar-Athlete Team, was GTE Academic All-District VII for the second time, and Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight for the third time.

1990: After a shaky start to his sophomore season, Stigge turned things around and became one of the Big Eight's best punters over the conference season. A Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight and GTE Academic All-District pick, he averaged just 35.9 yards on nine punts in the first four games, but came back with the best day of his career in the conference opener at Kansas State, averaging 47.7 yards on six kicks. He went on to average 43.0 on 31 punts against conference teams. Mike had a 44.5-yard average on seven punts in the wind and rain against Colorado, and a 45.3-yard average on seven punts vs. Oklahoma. In the end, he averaged 41.38 yards on 40 season punts to rank 21st in the nation and second in the Big Eight behind Brad Reddell of Oklahoma (41.58). Another 9 yards total on his punts would have won him the conference title.

1989: Stigge took over for graduated three-year starting punter John Kroeker, and averaged a creditable 39.7 yards on 35 punts, with a long kick of 51 yards. He surprised Florida State with a fake punt four plays into the Fiesta Bowl as he hit Mark Dowse with a 41-yard pass to the Seminole 22, setting up a Gerry Gdowski-to-

Morgan Gregory TD pass for a short-lived 7-0 lead.

1988: Redshirt.

At Washington HS: An all-state defensive back for Coach Alan Beam, Stigge also played quarterback and handled punting and kicking duties. He lettered four times each in football and track, three times in basketball.

Personal: Pre-veterinary major, he has a 3.615 grade-point average. The son of LaVern and Verlene Stigge, Mike was born Oct. 31, 1969, at Hanover, Kan., and will celebrate his 23rd birthday when the Huskers host Colorado this fall. He has four sisters, Linda, Jeanette, Teresa and Barbara.

All-Big Eight

Washington was Nebraska's starting tight end in 1991, but split time with All-Big Eight sophomore Johnny Mitchell. The two were expected to share time again in 1991, but Mitchell opted to leave school early for the NFL draft (he was a first-round pick by the New York Jets), and Washington will have a bigger load to carry as a senior. An excellent athlete, his performance index at the end of winter conditioning (2,783) was the best on the team.

1991: One of the best blocking tight ends in the country, Washington went through 28 regular-season games before catching his first career pass—a 7-yarder from Keithen McCant midway in the third quarter of the 1991 season finale vs. Oklahoma. Washington's blocking helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 years at 353.2 yards per game, while leading the Big Eight and ranking third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 yards per game). Washington has one other career catch, a 21-yard touchdown against Georgia Tech in the 1991 Florida Citrus Bowl, but bowl games aren't counted in official records.

1990: Washington missed four games because of injuries and a death in the family, but started six others as he shared in a Husker tight-end rotation with Chris Garrett, Daryl Leise, and Mitchell. He helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight in three offensive categories, rushing (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring (37.5 points per game).

1989: Washington saw action in 10 of 11 regular-season games as a redshirt freshman, plus the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl vs. Florida State. He missed only the Iowa State contest because of a sprained ankle, and started three games (Minnesota, Oklahoma State and Oklahoma). Earned second-team All-Big Eight honors from United Press International and honorable-mention all-league from conference coaches, despite not catching a pass.

1988: He moved up to the varsity shortly after arriving on campus, then redshirted to save a year of eligibility.

At Tyler Lee HS: A two-way starter for Coach Biff Peterson, Washington was the only player in his district to be a unanimous all-district choice on both offense and defense in 1987. Also a unanimous All-East Texas selection, he caught 15 passes for 300 yards and four touchdowns as a tight end in an option offense, and recorded 72 tackles, broke up two passes and recovered three fumbles as an outside linebacker on defense. He led the school to an 8-2-1 record and into the state playoffs for the first time in 30 years. He was listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students and was a member of the Distinguished Society of American High School Students.

Personal: Finance major in Business College. The son of William and JoAnn Washington, he was born June 22, 1970, at Tyler. He has a younger brother, Roderick.

The swingman in Nebraska's trio of outstanding outside linebackers, White will again share the No. 1 spot on the right side with junior Trev Alberts, but will also be available on the left side behind Travis Hill. A durable player, he has played in all 36 regular-season and bowl games the last three years.

1991: White started every game at right outside linebacker, but shared playing time fairly equally with Alberts as the two were charged with the spot in the lineup filled the previous two years by Mike Croel, the fourth selection overall in the 1991 NFL Draft who went on to be the defensive rookie-of-the-year in the NFL. White tied for 10th on the team in tackles with cornerback Curtis Cotton at 42, but was second behind Alberts in sacks with five for 20 yards. He also had two pass breakups and four hurries. He had his career tackle high of seven against Washington, Sept. 21, and later had six-tackle games against Colorado and Iowa State.

1990: After playing every game as the alternate right outside linebacker as a redshirt freshman in 1989, White switched to the right side in 1990 and again played in every contest, this time as the alternate behind Travis Hill. He finished with 24 total tackles, including three for losses of 8 yards. He also caused one fumble, recovered two others, had the Huskers' only blocked kick of the season (a partially-blocked field goal at Kansas State), and three quarterback hurries. He equaled his career tackle high with five at Kansas.

1989: One of five redshirt freshmen who had significant impacts, White played in every game as the Huskers' alternate right outside linebacker behind junior Mike Croel. He finished the year with 20 total tackles, 12 unassisted, including one quarterback sack for a 7-yard loss. He also had a 5-yard pass interception on the final play of the game at Minnesota (where he had his season tackle high of five), and recovered a fumble on kickoff coverage against Kansas, setting up a 24-yard touchdown drive.

1988: White advanced to the varsity squad soon after practice started in August, then redshirted to save a year of eligibility while he made the change to outside linebacker after playing offense his last two years in high school.

At New Orleans St. Augustine HS: Earned all-district honors as a sophomore defensive end in 1985, then was switched to tight end for his junior and senior seasons. A fine blocker on a run-oriented team, he caught 15 passes for 225 yards as a senior and earned All-Metro New Orleans honors on a team that was ranked No. 1 in Louisiana until it was upset in the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. At St. Augustine (pronounced ah-GUST-in), one of his coaches was former Husker Burton Burns, and among his teammates were current Husker receivers Tyrone Hughes and Vincent Hawkins.

Personal: The son of LeRoy Jr. and Sheila White, David was born Feb. 27, 1970. His father is a chemical engineer.

Nebraska's third cornerback last year behind All-Big Eight Tyrone Legette and second-team All-Big Eight Curtis Cotton (both 1991 NFL draft picks), Wilhite saw an outstanding junior season come to a premature end at Kansas last Nov. 9 when he went down with a knee injury following his second interception of the day. The injury required reconstructive surgery, knocking him out of the last two regular-season games and the Orange Bowl vs. Miami. He held up well in the spring, though, and should be 100 percent this fall, when he's expected to be the starting left cornerback.

1991: Wilhite's interceptions at Kansas were his fifth and sixth of the season, which enabled him to lead Nebraska in that category and tie Oklahoma State's Scott Harmon for the Big Eight lead (Wilhite played in just eight of 11 regular-season games, also missing the Oklahoma State game because of a shoulder injury, and thus didn't play in the requisite three-fourths of NU's games to qualify for official stat rankings). Wilhite's six interceptions were the most for a Cornhusker since All-American Bret Clark had six in 1984 and were one short of the NU season record of seven by Larry Wachholtz in 1966, Dana Stephenson in 1969 and Bill Kosch in 1970. Kenny also had three pass breakups and 12 tackles (four unassisted) and one quarterback hurry.

1990: Redshirted and made the transition from wingback to cornerback.

At Dodge City CC: Two-time all-conference pick and a first-team juco All-America quarterback for Coach Jerry Cullen, he rushed for 700 yards and passed for 800 in 1988, then ran for 800 and passed for 700 in 1989. He had 28 career TDs.

At Oakville HS: A first-team All-American and a unanimous all-state pick for Coach Bob Robideux as a senior in 1987, Wilhite had 900 rushing yards, 800 passing yards and scored 18 TDs. Also lettered in baseball and basketball and was the basketball team's defensive MVP as a senior.

Personal: The son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Wilhite, Kenny was born July 26, 1970, at St. Louis. He has three younger brothers.

Marcus Anderson
Cornerback
 5-8, 170, Junior
 Omaha, Neb.
 Creighton Prep HS

A former walk-on, Anderson came out of spring practice listed No. 3 at left cornerback and will go into the fall backing up veterans Kenny Wilhite and Mike Heins. One of the Huskers' faster players, he was ninth on the squad in the 40-yard dash (4.63) and tied for 10th in the 10-yard dash in testing at the end of winter conditioning. He tied linebacker Trev Alberts for third in the vertical jump at 37.5 inches, best among defensive backs.

1991: A reserve corner, Anderson saw action in the Missouri game, and had one assisted tackle against the Tigers.

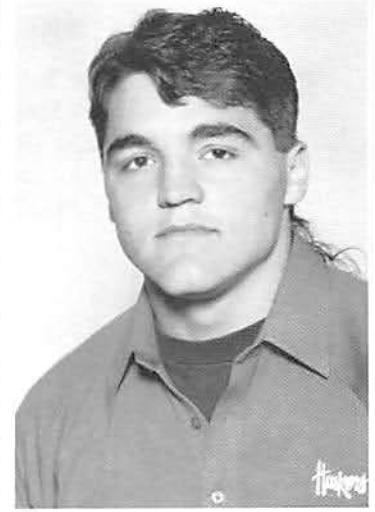

1990: A freshman walk-on, Anderson did not play.

At Creighton Prep HS: Anderson lettered twice at cornerback on two Tom Jaworski-coached state championship teams, and was all-class, all-state as a senior in 1989. A four-year letterman in track, he ran on three state-champion 400-meter relay teams, and was third in the open 400 as a sophomore in 1988.

Personal: The son of Ola and George Anderson II, he was born June 28, 1971, at Omaha. He has two brothers, Eric (who lettered as a Husker cornerback in 1989 and 1990) and George III. Speech communications major.

Gerald Armstrong
Tight End
 6-2, 215, Junior
 Ponca, Neb.
 1 Letter

With two-time All-Big Eight pick Johnny Mitchell gone to the NFL's New York Jets and Daryl Leise graduated, Armstrong figures to be an important part of the Husker offense in 1992. He'll go into the fall listed even with senior Mike Vedral as the alternate tight end behind returning starter William Washington.

1991: Armstrong lettered as a reserve, playing in four games. He had no pass receptions, and on special teams had one assisted tackle.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: A walk-on, Armstrong was a part-time starter at tight end on the junior varsity team, and had two pass receptions for 16 yards.

At Ponca High School: Armstrong earned a total of 14 letters, four each in football and track, three each in basketball and baseball. An all-state gridder for Coach Bob Weber, he played fullback, linebacker, tight end and I-back in his career. His teams made the state playoffs in football, the state tournament in basketball, and he qualified for the state track meet.

Personal: The son of Gary and Margarete Armstrong, he was born July 22, 1971, at Wakefield, Neb. He has two brothers and four sisters. His first name is pronounced with a hard G, as in "get." Psychology major.

#80Trumane Bell
Split End6-3, 210, Junior
Chicago, Ill.Simeon HS
Highland (Kan.) CC

After sitting out a redshirt season in his first year at Nebraska in 1991, Bell will go into 1992 as the Huskers' No. 3 split end behind veterans Tyrone Hughes and Corey Dixon. The rangy Bell is expected to combine with the two smaller speedsters to give NU a solid group of split ends, despite the graduation of NFL draftee Jon Bostick.

1991: Redshirted after transferring from Highland (Kan.) Community College.

At Highland CC: An honorable-mention juco All-American for Coach Marty Allen's 8-2 Scotties in 1990 when he caught 46 passes for 938 yards (20.4 yards per catch) to rank sixth nationally among junior college receivers. He caught 13 passes for 252 yards and three touchdowns against Independence as a sophomore, and he was a two-time All-Interstate Collegiate Conference pick.

At Simeon HS: A three-year letterman at receiver and defensive back for Coach Al Scott, he was a teammate of former Husker tight end Johnny Mitchell. Simeon reached the Chicago Public League semifinals his senior year in 1988.

Personal: The son of Clara Bell, he was born in Chicago, Nov. 26, 1971, the day after Nebraska beat Oklahoma, 35-31, in the "Game of the Century." He'll celebrate his 21st birthday the day before the Huskers play the Sooners at Norman this fall. He has one brother, Tawan.

#54Troy Branch
Inside Linebacker6-0, 235, Junior
Camden, N.J.

1 Letter

★ Phillips 66 Big Eight
Academic Honor Roll

Branch came on strong in the spring and will go into the fall sharing the No. 2 spot at strong-side linebacker with Darren Williams, and that duo is expected to give the Huskers solid depth behind returning starter Mike Anderson. A durable performer he's played in all 24 regular-season and bowl games the last two years.

1991: Branch played in all 11 regular-season games, plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, and finished the year with 11 total tackles, with highs of three against both Oklahoma State and Missouri. With a 3.48 grade-point average in history, he earned Phillips 66 Big Eight Academic Honor Roll status.

1990: Lettered as a redshirt freshman, as he recorded 10 tackles in the regular season.

1989: Redshirted in his first year at NU.

At Camden High School: Troy recorded 70 unassisted tackles, including nine sacks for Coach William Simpson's team, which finished 8-2 and reached the semifinals of the New Jersey state playoffs in 1988. A two-time all-conference linebacker, he was named All-South Jersey, all-state, All-Delaware Valley (including the Philadelphia area) as a senior. An excellent student, he was named South Jersey Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Camden High, by the way, is the arch-rival of Camden Wilson, which sent 1983 Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier to Nebraska.

Personal: The son of Betty Warren and Lonnie Branch, he was born June 10, 1971, at Camden. He has one sister, Denise Warren. He's an accomplished chess player.

#5Lorenzo Brinkley
Cornerback

6-0, 195, Junior

St. Louis, Mo.

Hazelwood Central HS

1 Letter

Brinkley switched from free safety to cornerback in the spring, and will go into the fall listed as the alternate right corner behind John Reece. The two juniors give the Huskers a pair of talented prospects to replace NFL draft pick Tyrone Legette. One of Nebraska's fastest players, Brinkley had the squad's best time in the 10-yard dash at the end of winter conditioning at 1.51 seconds. He also ran a 4.55-second 40, tying I-back Calvin Jones for third on the team behind split ends Tyrone Hughes (4.44) and Corey Dixon (4.45). His athletic performance index of 2,420 points was second among NU defensive backs.

1991: Brinkley lettered as the alternate free safety behind Tyrone Byrd. He saw action in four games and recorded eight tackles (six solo). He had one interception, against Missouri, the school for which his father, Lorenzo Brinkley Sr., played and was a 1971 All-Big Eight defensive back.

1990: A non-lettered reserve as a redshirt freshman, he had one unassisted tackle in three varsity games. Playing for the junior varsity, he had six tackles, a fumble recovery, two blocked kicks and a two interceptions, which he returned 16 yards. Also for the jayvees, he averaged 17.3 yards on three kickoff returns and 6.7 yards on seven punt returns. In a 31-0 win over Iowa Central, he blocked a punt and recovered the loose ball in the end zone for a touchdown.

1989: Redshirted in his first year at Nebraska.

At Hazelwood Central HS: A three-year letterman for Coach John Hotfelder at the suburban St. Louis school, Brinkley had his senior year cut short by a broken collarbone. He was an all-conference quarterback as a sophomore and junior in 1986 and 1987 when he led the team to the state finals and respective records of 13-1 and 12-2. In his first two seasons, he rushed for 1,062 yards and 16 touchdowns, completed 82 of 166 passes for 1,200 yards and 12 TDs, and averaged 17.1 on kick returns. In three games as a senior, he completed 16 of 42 passes for 253 yards and three TDs, and had three interceptions as a defensive back. Also lettered three times in basketball.

Personal: The son of Cynthia J. Brinkley, Lorenzo was born Sept. 27, 1971, at St. Louis, Mo., and will celebrate his 21st birthday the day after Nebraska hosts Arizona State this fall.

#61Brady Caskey
Offensive Tackle

6-4, 270, Sophomore

Stanton, Neb.

After sitting the 1991 season as a redshirt, Caskey emerged from spring practiced listed No. 3 at offensive right tackle. He figures to be the backup behind sophomore lettermen Zach Wiegert and Joel Gesky.

At Stanton HS: A four-sport athlete, Caskey was a Class C-1 all-state offensive lineman for Coach Tom Kerkman, and won the C-1 state shot put championship. He lettered four times each in football and track, and three times in basketball.

Personal: An accounting major, he carries a 3.14 cumulative grade-point average. The son of Charles and Rae Caskey, he was born March 7, 1972, at Lincoln, Neb. He has two brothers and two sisters.

#55Terris Chorney
Center

6-1, 275, Senior
Ituna, Saskatchewan
Saskatoon Holy Cross HS
2 Letters

A two-year letterman, Chorney came back 100 percent in the spring after a hard-luck 1991 season. He'll head into his senior year listed as Nebraska's alternate center behind returning starter Jim Scott. Chorney was drafted by the Edmonton Eskimos in the fourth round of February's Canadian Football League Canadian college draft.

1991: Chorney lettered as a reserve behind Scott and senior Bill Ziegelbein, despite missing the last six regular-season games and the Orange Bowl after arthroscopic knee surgery in October, followed by reconstructive surgery in mid-November to repair a damaged ACL. This after he suffered a broken hand in spring practice at time when he appeared ready to challenge Scott and Ziegelbein for the starting job.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: Chorney started at center for Coach Shane Thorell's 5-0-0 junior varsity team, and helped the junior Huskers average 485.6 total-offense yards per game, including 359.6 per game on the ground.

At Saskatoon Holy Cross HS: Terris played center and offensive tackle for the large-school provincial champions as a junior in 1986, then was named the outstanding lineman in the 1987

Senior Bowl all-star game. He also played hockey and team handball at the school, and was named rookie lineman of the year for the national champion Regina Rams in junior football.

Personal: A civil engineering major, he carries a 3.28 cumulative grade-point average. The son of James and Sylvia Chorney, he was born Nov. 11, 1969, at Ituna. He has two older brothers.

#45

Zeke Cisco Strong Safety
5-11, 195, Junior
Monroe, Mich.
Jefferson HS
1 Letter

After lettering as a reserve strong safety last year, Cisco will go into fall camp listed No. 3 at the position behind returning starter Steve Carmer and veteran Ernie Beler. The former walk-on has good quickness and strength. In testing at the end of winter conditioning he tied for second with Carmer among defensive backs in the pro agility run (4.04 seconds) and led defensive backs in the squat (474 pounds).

1991: Cisco saw action in three regular-season games, recording five total tackles.

1990: Redshirted and switched from free to strong safety.

1989: After walking on, Cisco became the starting free safety for Coach Shane Thorell's Husker junior varsity team. He finished the year with 15 total tackles, second among defensive backs, had one pass breakup, and averaged 11.3 yards on four punt returns.

At Monroe Jefferson High School: Zeke was a three-year letterman as a quarterback and defensive back for his father, Coach Marc Cisco, on teams that went 7-2, 7-3, 8-2. He was a two-time all-league defensive back and was all-state and all-metro Detroit as a senior. An all-around athlete, he lettered four times in baseball and three times in basketball.

Personal: A secondary education-biology major, he has a 3.29 grade-point average. The son of Marc and Donna Cisco, he was born Aug. 23, 1970, at Ann Arbor, Mich. He has one brother, Zack, and three sisters, Kim, Sheri and Jan.

#17Sedric Collins*Free Safety

6-0, 180, Sophomore

Slidell, La.

1 Letter

Collins switched from cornerback to free safety in the spring and heads into his sophomore season listed third at the position behind three-year starter Tyrone Byrd and fellow sophomore Troy Dumas. One of Nebraska's quickest players, his 1.58-second electronic timing in the 10-yard dash last winter tied him for seventh on the squad. Collins is the Huskers' second recruit out of Slidell, La., in recent years, following in footsteps of his cousin, two-time All-Big Eight strong safety Reggie Cooper. He wears Cooper's old No. 17 jersey.

1991: Collins lettered as a reserve left cornerback, playing in four regular-season games and recording two tackles.

1990: Collins redshirted in his first year at NU.

At Slidell HS: A four-year starter in the defensive backfield for Coach Wayne Grubb, Collins started as a freshman alongside Cooper as a freshman in 1986. Collins, who also played wingback, split end and tight end, recorded 53 total tackles as a senior in 1989, including 38 unassisted stops, had three pass interceptions (to give him 21 in his career) and two fumble recoveries, returned a punt 83 yards for a touchdown and averaged 38 yards on kickoff returns. Helped Slidell to a 9-3 record and the second round of the playoffs in 1989 in Class AAAA, Louisiana's second largest class. He was a two-time all-district performer and earned all-state honors as a senior. He also won the Class AAAA 110-meter high hurdle title in 14.41 seconds as a senior in 1990 after a runner-up finish as a junior with a time of 14.04.

Personal: Business administration major. The son of Welbert and Sandra Collins, Sedric was born Oct. 15, 1971 at Bogalusa, La. He has a sister, Philicia. Plays the drums in his spare time.

#46Doug Colman*Inside Linebacker

6-3, 225, Sophomore

Ocean City, N.J.

1 Letter

One of three true freshmen (with safety Troy Dumas and wingback Abdul Muhammad) to play for Nebraska last year, Colman will go into his sophomore season listed as the alternate weak-side linebacker behind fellow sophomore Ed Stewart.

1991: Colman played in five games as a reserve at weak-side linebacker, recording six total tackles, including three unassisted stops. Four of his tackles came against Colorado State.

At Ocean City HS: An all-state and All-South Jersey linebacker, Colman was named the defensive player-of-the-year by the Philadelphia Inquirer and the Atlantic City Press, and a high school All-American by SuperPrep Magazine. He started at both linebacker and fullback, and was honored as the all-county offensive and defensive player-of-the-year while playing for a team coach by his father, Wayne, a former NFL player for Philadelphia and New Orleans. Averaged 15 tackles a game and intercepted six passes as a senior in 1990. He ran for 1,100 yards and scored 11 touchdowns in leading his conference in rushing, and caught 12 passes for 185 yards in accounting for nearly 1,500 yards in offense. He also handled kicking and kick-return chores, and ran a 51.4-second 400 meters in track.

Personal: The son of Wayne and Tonagee Colman, he has one brother and one sister. He was born June 4, 1973, at Somers Point, N.J.

#99

Terry Connealy
Defensive Tackle
 6-5, 270, Sophomore
 Hyannis, Neb.
 1 Letter

A promising young prospect, Connealy came out of spring practice listed third at defensive left tackle, where he's expected to back up veterans John Parrella and Kevin Ramaekers this fall.

1991: Connealy lettered as a redshirt freshman, as he played in four regular-season games, recording two tackles, including an 8-yard sack against Missouri.

1990: Redshirt.

At Hyannis High School: Despite playing eight-man football, Connealy was an all-class, all-state selection for Coach Chris Kraus. Playing tight end, linebacker and running back, he led the Sandhills school to a 7-2 record in 1989, averaged 20 points per game in basketball, and qualified for the state track meet as a shot putter. He was a straight-A student.

Personal: The son of Marty And Donnie Connealy, Terry was born June 10, 1972, in Alliance, Neb., and has four brothers and two sisters. His father, now a rancher near Hyannis, played for the Huskers in the 1950s, as did brothers Jerry and Jack in the 1970s. He has a 3.64 grade-point average in agribusiness.

Quarterback
 6-0, 185, Senior
 Carrollton, Mo.
 1 Letter

A former walk-on, Cornwell had a fine spring and will go into practice in August in the No. 3 spot on the quarterback depth chart behind Tony Veland and Mike Grant. In testing at the end of spring practice, Cornwell had the Huskers' best QB marks for the clean (279 pounds), squat (372) and the pro agility run (4.06 seconds).

1991: Cornwell lettered as a reserve quarterback, as he played in three regular-season games, rushing three times for 36 yards.

1990: A non-lettered reserve, he saw action in two varsity games, and had one rushing attempt for 19 yards. He also played for the junior varsity squad, rushing six times for 34 yards while completing five of 13 passes for 45 yards.

1989: The starting quarterback for the junior varsity, he completed 12 of 27 passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns, with three interceptions, and rushed 32 times for 127 yards and four TDs.

1988: A walk-on, he took a redshirt season in his first year at Nebraska.

At Carrollton HS: Cornwell played defensive back and receiver, in addition to quarterback, for Coach Stan Kee at the suburban St. Louis school. Carrollton was 11-1 his senior season. An all-around athlete, he was all-conference in basketball and a state qualifier in track.

Personal: A social sciences major in Teachers College, he has a 3.47 cumulative grade-point average. The son of Ken and Joyce Cornwell, he was born Jan. 28, 1970, at Tecumseh, Neb. He has two older sisters.

Split End
 5-8, 155, Junior
 Dallas, Texas Hillcrest HS
 1 Letter

title as a sophomore in 1988, then finished second in both the 100 and 200 and ran a leg on Hillcrest's runner-up 4 x 100 relay to give the school all of its points in winning the state team title in 1989. He had a best time of 10.1 in the 100 and 20.7 in the 200. Dixon won a blue ribbon for his vocal solo at the University Interscholastic League music contest.

Personal: The son of Vernon and Barbara Dixon, Corey was born Feb. 16, 1972, at Dallas. He has one brother and one sister. An accomplished musician, he sings with a band in his free time.

1991: A scholarship athlete, Dixon played in nine regular-season games, and led Nebraska in punt-return yards with 101 on 15 returns to rank fifth in the Big Eight with a 6.73-yard average. In kickoff returns, he led the team with a 25.3-yard average (152 yards on six returns), but his six returns weren't enough to qualify him for conference rankings. As a receiver, he caught three passes for 25 yards.

1990: Dixon enrolled fulltime, but was ineligible as he did not meet all of the NCAA requirements.

At Hillcrest HS: A turf toe and a sprained ankle limited Dixon to only six games in his senior season as a running back for Coach Ronnie Marrs, but he still rushed for 700 yards, and was named to the "Top 100 Recruits" lists by both the Dallas Morning News and the Houston Post. One of the top sprinters in the state of Texas, he won the Class 4A state 100-meter

Troy Dumas
Free Safety
 6-3, 205, Sophomore
 Cheyenne, Wyo.
 East HS
 1 Letter

One of three true freshmen to play for Nebraska in 1991 (with linebacker Doug Colman and wingback Abdul Muhammed), Dumas appears to be a star of the future. He switched from strong to free safety in the spring, and will start practice in August listed as the alternate behind senior three-year starter Tyrone Byrd. Dumas has a 37-inch vertical jump, second among NU defensive backs and tied for fifth on the team.

1991: A scholarship recruit, Dumas played in 10 of 11 regular-season games, finishing the year with 11 tackles, five of them unassisted. In the Orange Bowl against Miami, he added two tackles, including one for a 4-yard loss.

At East HS: A top all-around athlete, Dumas was a two-sport all-state performer while earning nine varsity letters. Rushed for 688 yards and was the state's fifth-leading rusher. Accumulated 1,057 total-offense yards and scored 74 points for Coach Dwayne Trembly in 1990. Led the state in punt returns with a 32.8 yard average, four touchdowns, on nine returns. Ranked 28th in the state in total defense with 36 unassisted tackles, 25 assists and one interception. Team MVP and second-team all-state as a senior. Won the state triple jump title the past two years and holds the state record with a leap of 48-8. Was also a member of East's state champion 400-meter relay team.

Personal: The son of John and Eileen Dumas, Troy was born Sept. 30, 1972, at Riverside, Calif. He has two brothers, Travis and Eric.

#41

Phil Ellis
Inside Linebacker
 6-2, 225, Freshman
 Grand Island, Neb.

After sitting out a redshirt season in his first year on campus, Ellis goes into the fall listed fourth at strong-side linebacker behind returning starter Mike Anderson (a former teammate at Grand Island High School), Troy Branch and Darren Williams.

1991: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted.

At Grand Island HS: Ellis was an Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Journal-Star all-class, all-state selection, and was the state defensive player-of-the-year. Ellis totalled 105 unassisted and 108 assisted tackles in his final two prep seasons, with 18 sacks and 10 fumble recoveries. He also intercepted four passes for 129 yards and a touchdown, and started at offensive guard for the state's second-ranked team. Lettered in track. Played for Coach Ken Fischer, who lettered at Nebraska in 1948 and 1949. Fischer retired from coaching at the end of the 1991 season, and now works with the Husker coaching staff's video crew.

Personal: The son of Marge Davis, he was born Jan. 26, 1973, at Onawa, Iowa, and has one brother, Scott.

#24

Dave Fiala
Fullback
 6-1, 220, Junior
 Milford, Neb.

A former walk-on, Fiala had a solid spring and will go into the fall listed fourth at fullback behind returning starter Lance Lewis, Andre McDuffy and Cory Schlesinger.

1991: A non-lettered reserve, Fiala appeared in two games and had one rushing attempt, for 10 yards against Colorado State.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After walking on, Fiala was a reserve fullback on the junior varsity, rushing 10 times for 77 yards.

At Milford HS: An academic all-state pick and a two-time honorable-mention all-state selection for Coach Marty Hingst, Fiala played halfback, I-back and safety. He lettered four times each in football and wrestling, and three times in track.

Personal: The son of Dennis and Loretta Fiala, Dave was born Feb. 18, 1971, at Seward, Neb. He has four brothers and four sisters. An agribusiness major, he has a 3.83 cumulative grade-point average and has been on the Dean's List every semester. He's on the Student Advisory Board of the Ag Econ and Agribusiness Clubs.

#39

Greg Fletcher
Outside Linebacker
 6-1, 240, Junior
 Oxford, Neb.
 1 Letter

A former walk-on, Fletcher is listed as a reserve at left outside linebacker, and will be an important special-teams performer for the Huskers in 1992.

1991: He lettered as a reserve outside linebacker and special-teams player, appearing in seven regular-season games, plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami. He finished the year with 11 tackles, including a 6-yard sack, had a fumble recovery and a quarterback hurry.

1990: Redshirt.

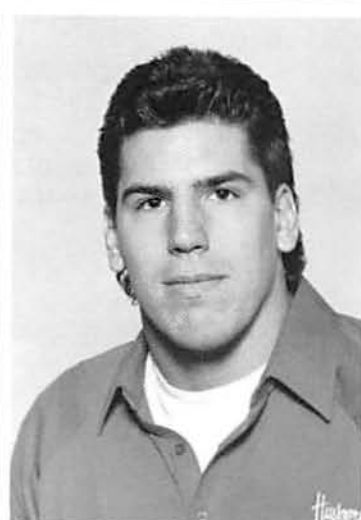

1989: After walking on, Fletcher earned the starting job at left outside linebacker for the junior varsity team, and finished the five-game season with 13 tackles, including one for a 6-yard loss.

At Oxford HS: A four-year letterman at fullback and linebacker for Coaches Steve Billeter and Jeff Shubert, Fletcher was a Class C-2 all-state pick as a junior and senior. An all-around athlete, he lettered four times each in football, basketball and track, and was a C-2 all-state basketball player as a senior.

Personal: The son of Rolland and Sharon Fletcher, Greg was born Oct. 17, 1970, at Oxford (the day he was born, Nebraska picked up a 41-20 win at Kansas on its way to the first of two-straight national titles). He has two brothers, Mark and Troy. A near-perfect student, he has a 3.97 grade-point average in pre-veterinary medicine. His GPA is second on the team only to offensive tackle Rob Zatechka's 4.0.

Bart Furrow
Middle Guard
 6-3, 270, Junior
 Fort Collins, Colo.

A converted offensive lineman, Furrow had a solid spring and could be a factor at middle guard this fall. He'll start practice listed as a reserve behind David Noonan, Bill Humphrey and Jerry Irons.

1991: A non-lettered reserve, Furrow switched from offensive guard to middle guard in the fall. He saw action in one game, ironically against his hometown Colorado State Rams.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: A scholarship recruit, Furrow started at offensive right guard for the Husker junior varsity team.

At Fort Collins HS: A two-time all-conference pick at both offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Tim Monty, he led the team in tackles as a junior and senior with 75 in 1987 and 122 in 1988. As a senior, he was an all-state offensive tackle and second-team all-state defensive tackle. In his career he had 198 career tackles, seven sacks and two blocked punts. He was also a two-time all-state wrestler, and lettered three times in rugby.

Personal: The son of Richard and Pam Furrow, Bart was born April 25, 1971, at Durango, Colo. A business administration major, he has a 3.01 cumulative grade-point average.

#59

Joel Gesky
Offensive Tackle
 6-2, 285, Sophomore
 Midlothian, Ill.
 Chicago Marist HS

After sitting out a redshirt season, Gesky came on strong in the spring will start practice in August listed second at offensive right tackle behind returning letterman Zach Wiegert.

1991: Redshirt.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Gesky started at offensive right tackle for the Husker junior varsity team.

At Chicago Marist HS: An all-state and all-metro Chicago offensive guard for Coach Tony Pietrazak, Gesky was also named the most valuable player in the Catholic League. A prep All-American in football, he was also a member of Marist's 25-0 state championship wrestling team.

Personal: The son of Gerald Gesky and Adele Moan, he was born Aug. 5, 1972, at Chicago. He has three stepbrothers and one stepsister.

#91

Lance Gray
Outside Linebacker
 6-1, 220, Junior
 Owego, N.Y.
 Free Academy HS
 1 Letter

One of the biggest hitters on the Husker defense, Gray is also one of Nebraska's top special-teams players on kick coverage. He'll go into the fall listed as a reserve at left outside linebacker behind All-America hopeful Travis Hill. A natural athlete, his 3.98-second timing in the pro agility drill in spring testing was fourth on the team, while his 37-inch vertical jump tied him for fifth. He's also one of the strongest Huskers, with a 372-pound clean, 343-pound bench and 514-pound squat for a 1,671-point strength index, fifth on the squad.

1991: Gray played in all 11 regular-season games, and posted 13 total tackles. In the Orange Bowl against Miami, he had three unassisted tackles, all on special teams.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After walking on, Gray became the starting right outside linebacker on the junior varsity team in the second half of the season and finished as the team's seventh-leading tackler with 17 total stops (13 unassisted) in the five-game season, including a team-high three sacks for 30 yards lost.

At Owego Free Academy: Gray was a four-year letterman at fullback and linebacker for Coach Mark Decker, and was named to the Southern Tier Athletic Conference all-star team. He also lettered twice in wrestling.

Personal: The son of Nancy Minturn and Tom Gray, Lance was born June 14, 1970, at Binghampton, N.Y. He has two sisters, Suzanne and Allison.

#38Vincent Hawkins
Wingback

5-11, 210, Senior
New Orleans, La.
St. Augustine HS
Spokane Falls (Wash.) CC
1 Letter

Hawkins emerged from spring practice as the heir-apparent to NFL draft pick Nate Turner at wingback, but will probably share time at the position with sophomore Abdul Muhammad. With Hawkins at wingback and Tyrone Hughes at split end, both of NU's starting wide receivers would be graduates of New Orleans St. Augustine High School. In testing at the end of winter conditioning, Hawkins had the best performance index (2,400 points) among Husker wide receivers. His 1.56-second timing in the 10-yard dash was fifth on the team.

1991: After sitting out a redshirt year, Hawkins teamed with true freshman Muhammad to give Nebraska quality depth at wingback behind Turner. Hawkins caught three passes for 55 yards, including a 22-yard touchdown from Mickey Joseph in the season-opener against Utah State. Hawkins also rushed twice for nine yards and returned two kickoffs 38 yards. Had one assisted tackle on special teams.

1990: Hawkins redshirted after transferring from Spokane Falls Community College in Spokane, Wash.

At Spokane Falls CC: A two-time all-league running back for Coach John Buck, Hawkins rushed for 1,025 yards and nine touchdowns in nine games in 1989, while catching 17 passes for 236 yards and three scores, two of which were last-minute, game-winning TD's. A third-team junior college All-American, Hawkins also had 313 yards on 16 kickoff returns as a sophomore. Originally a walk-on candidate at Washington State in 1988, he was a non-qualifier under NCAA Proposition 48 guidelines, enrolled at Spokane Falls instead, and went on to rush for 1,232 yards and 10 TD's for the Sasquatch that fall.

At New Orleans St. Augustine HS: Hawkins lettered twice for Coach Tony Biagas as a running back on teams that went 7-3 and 11-1. He's one of three St. Augustine grads on the Husker team, joining Hughes and outside linebacker David White. One of his coaches was former Husker Burton Burns.

Personal: The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Hawkins, Vincent was born Feb. 7, 1969, at Independence, Mo. He has one brother and one sister, all younger, and he has a daughter, Dominique.

#25Mike Heins
Cornerback

5-10, 185, Junior
David City, Neb.
1 Letter

After a solid spring, Heins will head into fall camp listed as the backup behind senior Kenny Wilhite at left cornerback.

1991: The alternate right corner behind All-Big Eight senior Tyrone Legette, Heins played in six regular-season games, finishing the year with four total tackles. He also saw action against Miami in the Orange Bowl.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After walking on, Heins became the starting right corner for the Husker junior varsity, and was sixth overall on the team in tackles as he led the defensive backs with 19 total, including 14 unassisted stops and one for a loss of 13 yards. Heins was one of six jayvees with one interception.

At David City HS: Mike was a Class C-1 all-state defensive end as a junior in 1987 and an all-state linebacker in 1988, while also playing fullback on offense as a four-year letterman for Coach Kevin Kopecky. He lettered three times each in basketball and track.

Personal: Mike is the son of Dean and Connie Heins and was born Nov. 29, 1970, at Columbus, Neb. He has two brothers, Dustin and Jake, and a sister, Gretchen.

#97

Bill Humphrey Middle Guard

6-2, 260, Sophomore
Libertyville, Ill.

Humphrey came out of spring practice listed as the alternate middle guard behind fellow junior David Noonan, as they seek to replace the graduated Pat Engelbert.

1991: Redshirt.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Humphrey was the starting guard on the Nebraska junior varsity team and was the squad's fourth-leading tackler with 21 total stops—the most for a defensive lineman. He was also second on the team in tackles for loss (five for 11 yards) and in sacks with two, and recorded a fumble caused, a fumble recovery and a pass breakup.

At Libertyville HS: A two-way performer, Humphrey earned all-area and All-North Suburban (Chicago) Conference honors in leading Coach Dale Christensen's team to the second round of the Illinois state playoffs. As a defensive tackle, he had 54 unassisted tackles, including 13 for loss and four sacks. Humphrey earned four letters in football and played five different positions. He also lettered in baseball.

Personal: The son of Bill and Rose Humphrey, he was born March 17, 1972, at Cincinnati, Ohio. He has a brother, Steve, and a sister, Anne.

#95

Jerry Irons Middle Guard

6-2, 285, Junior
The Woodlands, Texas
McCullough HS
1 Letter

Part of a spring battle to find a replacement for graduated starter Pat Engelbert, Irons will go into the fall listed third at middle guard behind David Noonan and Bill Humphrey.

1991: Irons saw action in two regular-season games, recording three tackles, then also played against Miami in the Orange Bowl.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: A scholarship recruit, Irons was a part-time starter at middle guard for the Nebraska junior varsity squad, and had 15 tackles in the five-game season, including one for a 3-yard loss, and had a fumble recovery.

At McCullough HS: A two-time All-Greater Houston defensive tackle for Coach Weldon Willig, Irons was also a three-time all-district selection and was named to Texas Football's preseason all-state team in 1988. He set a school record with six fumble recoveries as a senior, when he recorded 128 total tackles. He had 24 career sacks, seven as a sophomore, 11 as a junior, six as a senior. Irons also served as class president, was the school's first homecoming king, and was voted by his classmates as "most congenial," best athlete in football, and "eats the most food."

Personal: The son of Gerald Sr. and Myrna Irons, Gerald Dwayne Irons Jr. was born May 12, 1971, at Gary, Ind. He has two younger brothers, Jarrett and Grant. His father was an all-pro linebacker for the Cleveland Browns and Oakland Raiders.

Dave Jensen
Offensive Tackle
 6-4, 300, Senior
 Omaha, Neb.
 Creighton Prep HS
 1 Letter

1988: A scholarship recruit as a defensive lineman, Jensen redshirted in his first year on campus when he needed surgery to repair a torn ligament in his thumb.

At Omaha Creighton Prep HS: A first-team prep All-America selection by Bally, a second-team USA Today All-American, and the Gatorade Nebraska lineman-of-the-year in 1987, Jensen helped Coach Tom Jaworski's Junior Jays to a 34-2 record and three consecutive state championships from 1985-87. As a defensive tackle, he had 62 unassisted stops as a senior, 14 for losses, and broke up three passes. He also played some tight end and lettered in track. He visited Arizona State, Notre Dame and UCLA before deciding to sign with Nebraska.

Personal: The son of Jack and Fran Jensen, he was born Feb. 19, 1970, at Omaha. He has one brother and two sisters, all older.

The veteran Jensen switched from guard to tackle in the spring and will go into fall camp listed as a reserve at left tackle behind sophomore Rob Zatechka and returning starter Lance Lundberg. Nebraska's strongest offensive lineman, he posted a strength index of 1,569 points at the end of winter conditioning, based on a 399-pound lift in the clean, 396 in the bench and 592 in the squat—each of the three figures in the top five on the squad.

1991: Jensen started three games at guard and saw action in eight games overall as he helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 years at 353.2 yards per game. He also helped Nebraska lead the Big Eight and rank third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 points per game).

1990: Jensen played in nine of 11 regular-season games as the alternate right guard behind All-Big Eight Will Shields, helping Nebraska lead the Big Eight in rushing offense (340.0 yards per game), total offense (444.4) and scoring offense (37.5 points per game). Jensen also saw action against Georgia Tech in the Citrus Bowl.

1989: It was another hard-luck year for Jensen as he tore a knee ligament in spring practice, and was forced to miss the entire season during rehabilitation. He was able to return to practice prior to the Fiesta Bowl, but did not play against Florida State.

#37

Clester Johnson
Wingback
 5-11, 195, Freshman
 Bellevue, Neb. (West)

A scholarship athlete, Johnson tried his hand at defensive corner this spring as injuries depleted the secondary. He's expected to see playing time this fall at wingback, behind returning veterans Vincent Hawkins and Abdul Muhammad. Could also be utilized as a return man.

1991: Johnson redshirted as he switched from quarterback to wingback mid-season in 1991.

At Bellevue West High School: An all-state quarterback for Coach John Faiman at Bellevue West, Johnson threw for 3,757 yards in three years while rushing for 712 yards and scoring 36 touchdowns. Lincoln Sunday Journal-Star and Omaha World-Herald Prep Athlete-of-the-Year. Two-time all-state. Gatorade player-of-the-year in Nebraska. Super Prep Magazine All-America selection as he also played linebacker. An all-around athlete, Johnson lettered eight times while competing in football, wrestling and track. 1991 Class A 189-pound runner-up as a senior. Won the gold medal in the 300-meter hurdles and placed second in the 110 hurdles at the state meet as a junior, reversed the results as a senior and won the all-class gold in the 110 meter hurdles with a time of 14.41. His time of 38.23 in the 300 hurdles ranks as the seventh fastest time in Nebraska prep history.

Personal: Born on Feb. 18, 1973 in Memphis Tennessee, he has two brothers Sylvo Johnson and Daryl Morris. Guardians: Ellen and Ontee Biggs. Undeclared major.

Donta Jones
Outside Linebacker
 6-2, 210, Sophomore
 La Plata, Md.
 Pomfret McDonough HS
 1 Letter

A promising youngster, Jones gives the Huskers fine depth behind veterans Trev Alberts and David White at right outside linebacker. He was one of just three Huskers to be in the top 10 in winter conditioning in both the strength index (second, 1,809 points) and performance index (fifth, 2,561). Has a 38-inch vertical jump, second-best on the team.

1991: A redshirt freshman, Jones saw action in six regular-season games, plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, while playing behind White and Alberts. He had eight tackles, including a 9-yard sack, during the regular season. In the Orange Bowl, he added two tackles, including a 1-yard sack of Gino Torretta.

1990: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted as a true freshman.

At Pomfret McDonough HS: An all-state and all-metro Washington pick for Coach Larry Johnson, Jones was a two-way starter, catching seven passes as a tight end and recording 15 quarterback sacks, 107 first hits and 65 assisted tackles from his outside linebacker spot. He was named to the "Big 33" team for the August 1990 Maryland-Pennsylvania All-Star Game. An all-around athlete, he started at center for the McDonough basketball team, averaging 10 points per game, and had personal bests in track of 1:58 in the 800-meter run and 49 seconds in the 400-meter dash.

Personal: The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, Donta was born Aug. 27, 1972, at Washington, D.C. He has one brother, Thomas Jr. He plays the drums, and his full name is Markeysia Donta Jones.

David Leader
Outside Linebacker
 6-2, 215, Senior
 Bloomfield, Neb.
 1 Letter

One of a bevy of talented outside linebackers, Leader will serve as a reserve on the left side behind Travis Hill, and once again is expected to be a big contributor on special teams.

1991: Leader played in seven regular-season games as the alternate left outside linebacker behind Hill, and had eight total tackles, plus a fumble recovery. He also played against Miami in the Orange Bowl.

1990: A non-lettered reserve outside 'backer, Leader appeared in three games and was credited with two tackles and a quarterback hurry.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: After walking on, Leader started the first two games at right outside linebacker backer for the 5-0 junior varsity team, and had 15 tackles on the season, including 12 unassisted stops, two for losses of 14 yards, and had a pass breakup.

At Bloomfield HS: A two-year all-conference pick and all-state as a senior, Leader lettered four times as a quarterback, tight end, split end, linebacker and defensive back for Coach Alan Gottula. He also lettered in basketball and track, qualified for the state track meet three times, and won the Class C triple jump title.

Personal: David was born Sept. 17, 1969, at Yankton, S.D. He's the son of Roger and Merina Leader and has four brothers and a sister.

Andre McDuffy
I-Back/Fullback
 6-0, 200, Senior
 Euless, Texas
 Bell HS
 2 Letters

A versatile performer who has played both fullback and I-back in his career, McDuffy was listed as the No. 3 I-back at the end of spring practice, behind Derek Brown and Calvin Jones, and the No. 2 fullback along with Cory Schlesinger behind starter Lance Lewis.

1991: McDuffy played in all but one regular-season game, carrying three times for 19 yards, and making big contributions on special teams. He finished the year with nine total tackles on kick coverage, the most for any player from the offensive unit and caused one fumble. He added one unassisted tackle in the Orange Bowl against Miami.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: McDuffy did not take a planned redshirt year when I-backs George Achola (broken leg) and Terry Rodgers (recovering from knee surgery) weren't available at the start of the season. Andre played in seven regular-season games, rushing for 49 yards on 12 carries, with a career-high 18 yards in NU's 48-0 win at Minnesota. He had one tackle on special teams.

1988: A scholarship recruit, he ran for 238 yards and two touchdowns on 38 carries as the junior varsity's alternate I-back, averaging 6.3 yards per carry.

At Bell HS: McDuffy was an all-district selection for Coach Tim Edwards as a senior in 1987, carrying 128 times for 816 yards, a 6.4-yard average, and eight touchdowns. He also caught seven passes for 161 yards, including a 64-yard TD, and was Bell's leading punt and kickoff returner. He also lettered in cross country and track.

Personal: The son of Henrietta McDuffy, who now lives in Peekskill, N.Y., Andre was born April 26, 1970, at Yonkers, N.Y. He has one sister.

Ken Mehlin
Offensive Guard
 6-0, 265, Junior
 Humboldt, Neb.
 1 Letter

One of the more pleasant surprises in the spring, the former walk-on from an eight-man high school program emerged as a possible replacement for graduated All-Big Eight pick Erik Wiegert at offensive left guard with Chris Zyzda.

1991: Mehlin lettered as he saw action in four regular-season games as a reserve offensive guard, helping Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 seasons at 353.2 yards per game. He also played against Miami in the Orange Bowl.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: After walking on, Mehlin (pronounced may-lin) started at left guard for the 3-1-1 junior varsity team which averaged 398 yards per game in total offense.

At Humboldt HS: Mehlin was a two-time, two-way, eight-man all-state player for Coach John James, playing offensive guard and linebacker on defense. He lettered four times each in football, basketball and track. He's one of two Humboldt grads on the 1992 Husker squad, along with reserve free safety Jamie Weyers.

Personal: An agribusiness major, he has a 3.54 cumulative grade-point average. The son of Merle and Marleen Mehlin, Ken was born Jan. 14, 1971, at Humboldt. He has two sisters, Kim Standerford and Diana Boring.

#15

Brady Mercer Cornerback

Julesburg, Colo.

A former walk-on, Mercer came off a redshirt year to move up to the No. 3 spot at right cornerback in the spring, and he'll start the fall backing up veterans John Reece and Lorenzo Brinkley. One of Nebraska's quickest players, his 1.58-second timing in the 10-yard dash in the spring tied him for seventh on the squad.

1991: Redshirt.

1990: After walking on, Mercer played free safety for the junior varsity team. He recorded six tackles and had one pass interception, which he returned 2 yards.

At Julesburg HS: An all-state performer for Coach Kurt Anderson in 1989, he played I-back and free safety. He lettered four times each in football and track, and three times in basketball, and helped Julesburg to state track titles in both 1989 and 1990.

Personal: The son of Monte and Janice Mercer, Brady was born Nov. 8, 1971, at Julesburg. He'll celebrate his 21st birthday the day after the Kansas game this fall. He has a brother, Barry, and a sister, Merrilee Wingard, who is married to former Husker punter Dan Wingard.

#90

Bruce Moore Defensive Tackle

York, Neb.
1 Letter

An excellent pass rusher, Moore will go into the fall listed second at defensive right tackle behind Jamie Liewer, but he'll likely become a "starter" when the Huskers go to their pass-rush packages. Nebraska's fastest defensive lineman, he ran 10 yards in 1.74 seconds and 40 in 4.87 in the spring.

1991: A former walk-on, Moore played in 10 of 11 regular-season games, finishing with nine tackles, including two behind the line for 7 yards in losses, had nine quarterback hurries, the fifth-best total on the team, and one pass breakup. His top season and career tackle game was four in the opener vs. Utah State, when he also had four hurries.

1990: Redshirt.

1989: Moore started at defensive right tackle for the 3-1-1 junior varsity team. He led the junior Huskers in tackles for loss with six for 25 yards, and was second to linebacker Matt Penland in total tackles with 28. He also had a pass breakup and an interception.

At York HS: A three-year letterman at defensive tackle, tight end and offensive tackle for Coach Warren Washburn, Moore was honorable-mention all-state in both football and basketball as a senior, and was third in the state track meet in the high jump.

Personal: The son of Lyle and Vickie Moore, Bruce was born June 10, 1971, at St. Albans, N.Y. He has a brother, Jerry, and a sister, Brenda.

Abdul Muhammad
Wingback
 5-9, 155, Sophomore
 Compton, Calif.
 Carson HS
 1 Letter

One of three true freshmen to play for the Huskers last year (with linebacker Doug Colman and safety Troy Dumas), the sure-handed Muhammad came out of spring practice listed as the No. 2 wingback behind Vincent Hawkins and figures to see plenty of playing time once again. One of Nebraska's fastest players, his 10-yard time of 1.53 seconds last spring was second on the squad behind Lorenzo Brinkley's 1.51, and his 4.56 in the 40 was fifth.

1991: A scholarship recruit, Muhammad skipped the now-normal redshirt year as a true freshman, and quickly moved up to No. 2 wingback behind senior Nate Turner. He played in all 11 games, and got his first career start at Colorado when Nebraska opened in a spread formation. Abdul was NU's sixth-leading receiver with six catches for 84 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown pass from Keithen McCant at Oklahoma State.

At Carson HS: Nicknamed the "Little Rocket," Muhammad was all-city in Los Angeles and was named to the Best in the West list by the Long Beach Press-Telegram. Averaged 15.5 yards and scored 18 touchdowns of 55 pass receptions on Coach Gene Vonogge's 12-1 team in 1990. Had three three-touchdown games as a senior. Broke former New York Jet Wesley Walker's school record with 143 punt-return yards in a single game. Rushed 30 times for 300-plus yards, returned kickoffs and punts, and had three pass interceptions as a cornerback in leading Carson High to the CIF 4A state title. Returned kickoffs 98 and 99 yards for touchdowns in his senior season. Chose Nebraska over Miami (Fla.), UCLA, Southern Cal, Oregon, and Texas-El Paso.

Personal: The son of Henrietta Muhammad, Abdul was born March 2, 1973, at Lynwood, Calif. He has two brothers, Kenyan and Shadeed, and a sister, Nadirah. His full name is Abdul-Rahim Muhammad.

Brad Mundt
Center
 6-4, 270, Senior
 Norfolk, Neb.
 1 Letter

One of three former walk-ons at the top of the depth chart at center, Mundt will go into his senior season listed as a reserve behind returning starter Jim Scott and Terris Chorney.

1991: He lettered as a reserve on an offensive line that powered Nebraska to its seventh NCAA rushing title in 12 years at 353.2 yards per game. He saw action against Colorado State, Missouri and Iowa State.

1990: A non-lettered reserve, he played in two games.

1989: Mundt sat out the season after transferring from Nebraska-Omaha.

1988: Mundt enrolled at Nebraska-Omaha as a scholarship player, and saw action with the junior varsity.

At Norfolk HS: A three-year letterman as a center and defensive tackle for Coach Hal Kuck, Mundt was all-state as a senior.

Personal: The son of Marlin and Gisela Mundt, Brad was born Sept. 10, 1970, at Tilden, Neb. He has two brothers, Mike and Matthew. A business administration major, he carries a 3.05 cumulative grade-point average.

David Noonan
Middle Guard
 6-3, 275, Junior
 Lincoln, Neb.
 Northeast HS
 2 Letters

Following in the footsteps of his older brother Danny, an All-America middle guard at Nebraska in 1986 and now a Dallas Cowboy, Noonan will go into the fall as the Huskers' starting middle guard. One of NU's strongest players, his 395-pound bench press in the spring was sixth on the team.

1991: Noonan played in every game as the alternate middle guard behind senior academic All-American Pat Engelbert. He had 11 total tackles, including two for losses of 8 yards and a 7-yard sack, to go with five quarterback hurries and a team-leading two interceptions caused. His top tackle games were three each against Colorado State and Kansas.

1990: A redshirt freshman, Noonan played in four regular-season games as a reserve defensive right tackle behind All-American Kenny Walker and Brian Brown, then also saw playing time in the Florida Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech.

1989: Redshirt.

At Lincoln Northeast HS:

Noonan was an all-state defensive tackle and all-regional by Super Prep Magazine on Coach Bruce Reed's team as a senior in 1988, when he recorded 67 total tackles, four sacks and a fumble recovery. He also played offensive tackle and center.

Personal: The son of Gene and Donna Noonan, David was born Nov. 11, 1971, in Lincoln.

Matt Penland
Inside Linebacker
 6-1, 225, Junior
 Jacksonville, Fla.
 University Christian HS
 1 Letter

After missing all of the 1991 season because of knee surgery, Penland came through spring practice in good shape and will return to action this fall. He'll start camp in August listed third at weak-side linebacker behind sophomores Ed Stewart and Doug Colman.

1991: Penland took a hardship year because of knee surgery following the 1991 Citrus Bowl game vs. Georgia Tech.

1990: A walk-on, Penland emerged at mid-season as the Huskers' alternate strong-side linebacker behind Mike Petko. He played in all 11 games, plus the Citrus Bowl vs. Georgia Tech in his home state of Florida, as a true sophomore, finishing with 22 tackles, including 12 unassisted stops, and two for losses of 6 yards. He recorded a career-best five tackles in the Huskers' season-ending loss at Oklahoma.

At University Christian School HS:

A four-year letterman as a guard and linebacker for Coach Robbie Pruitt, Penland had 140 tackles and two pass interceptions as a senior in 1988, when he was named all-state and conference MVP. He was a three-time all-conference pick, playing on teams that were 32-4 combined his last three seasons, including a 13-0 state-championship season in 1987. He was also an all-conference baseball player. Visited Liberty University before deciding to walk on at NU.

Personal: The son of Dave and Cynthia Penland, Matt was born Jan. 21, 1971, in Jacksonville, and he has three sisters. He was married in May to the former Tracy Garmon.

John Reece
Cornerback
 6-0, 200, Junior
 Houston, Texas
 Jersey Village HS
 2 Letters

Reece switched from free safety to right cornerback late last season, stayed there in the spring and could be the starter this fall, replacing departed NFL draft pick Tyrone Legette. One of Nebraska's fastest players despite having had reconstructive knee surgery in the spring of 1989, Reece ran a 4.60-second 40 in the spring, sixth-best for a Husker at the end of winter conditioning. Reece was drafted by the Chicago White Sox this summer.

1991: After missing all of 1990 while recovering from the surgery, he played most of the season as the alternate free safety behind veteran Tyrone Byrd. But when alternate cornerback Kenny Wilhite was lost to a knee injury in the Kansas game, Nov. 9, he switched to corner and backed up Cotton in the Iowa State, Oklahoma and Miami games. Reece appeared in seven games and had six tackles.

1990: Reece tore a knee ligament on a punt return in the Huskers' first spring scrimmage, April 7, and took an injury redshirt year.

1989: As a true freshman, Reece moved up to the varsity and played in all 11 regular-season games and the Fiesta Bowl vs. Florida State. Playing both cornerback and safety, he contributed 20 total tackles, two for losses of 14 yards, had two pass breakups and three quarterback hurries on blitzes during the regular season, then added two unassisted tackles in the bowl. He had a 26-yard punt return.

At Houston Jersey Village: John was a three-year letterman and a two-year starter for Coach Rudy Phillips, earning All-Greater Houston and all-district as a senior when he intercepted six passes and recorded 117 tackles. He averaged 20.3 yards on kickoff returns. He also lettered twice in baseball and was an all-district pick.

Personal: The son of John L. Jr. and Ophelia Reece, John L. Reece III was born Jan. 24, 1971, at Crowell, Texas. He has two sisters, Tomekya and Shera.

Cory Schlesinger
Fullback
 6-0, 220, Sophomore
 Duncan, Neb.
 Columbus HS

After sitting out a redshirt season in 1991, Schlesinger showed Husker coaches a lot of potential in the spring and will go into the fall as the alternate fullback along with senior Andre McDuffy behind veteran Lance Lewis. A good athlete, his 3.99-second time in the pro agility run at the end of winter conditioning tied him for fifth on the team with split end Tyrone Hughes.

1991: Redshirt.

1990: A scholarship recruit, Schlesinger started at fullback for the junior varsity and was that squad's second-leading rusher with 229 yards and two touchdowns in the five-game season. He also caught four passes for 42 yards.

At Columbus HS: A two-time all-state linebacker for Coach Dick Luebke, Schlesinger also played fullback as a senior in 1989 and rushed for 1,514 yards and 23 touchdowns while topping the 100-yard mark in nine games. He led the Discoverers in tackles as a junior and senior, including 117 as a senior in 1989, when he was the state defensive player-of-the-year. Played with a group of Nebraska all-stars in a tour of Australia. He was a two-time state 189-pound wrestling champion.

Personal: The son of Gary and Joan Schlesinger, Cory was born June 23, 1972, at Columbus. He has two brothers, Scott and Ross. He lists his hobby as driving in demolition derbies.

#78T. J. Slansky
Offensive Guard

6-5, 280, Senior
Stockton, Kan.
Garden City (Kan.) CC
1 Letter

Personal: The son of Roy and Eloise Slansky, T.J. (for Trent Jay) was born June 23, 1970, at Plainville, Kan. He has two brothers, Terle and Tim.

A walk-on junior-college transfer, Slansky will go into fall camp listed as the No. 3 offensive left guard. The Huskers' fastest offensive lineman (4.93 in the 40), he should challenge Ken Mehlin and Chris Zyzda for playing time behind the All-America candidate, Shields.

1991: Slansky became the Huskers' alternate left guard behind senior Erik Wiegert. He saw action in eight games, including each of the last five games, plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, as he helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 years at 353.2 yards per game. The Huskers also led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 points per game).

At Garden City CC: Slansky played for Coach Brian McNeely in 1988 and 1989.

At Stockton HS: A four-year letterman in football, wrestling and track, he earned all-state in Class 2-1A football when he led Coach Phil Wilson's team to the state title, then won the state heavyweight wrestling title, and the state long jump title with a jump of 22-6 1/2.

#66Brenden Stai
Offensive Guard

6-4, 285, Junior
Yorba Linda, Calif.
Anaheim Esperanza HS
1 Letter

Stai began to come on in the spring and will go into the fall listed third at offensive right guard.

1991: A reserve guard, Stai lettered after playing in four regular-season games on a line that helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 years at 353.2 yards per game.

1990: Stai redshirted in his first season at Nebraska.

At Esperanza HS: An All-Southern CIF offensive tackle selection for Coach Gary Meek, Stai also played some defensive tackle and was voted his team's most valuable player. Selected to play in the California Shrine Bowl, he was also named the Empire League lineman of the year. Also lettered in track and wrestling.

Personal: The son of Sharon Kelly and Chris Stai, Brenden was born March 30, 1972, at Phoenix, Ariz., and he has a brother, Heath Stai.

Ed Stewart
Inside Linebacker
 6-0, 205, Sophomore
 Chicago, Ill.
 Mount Carmel HS
 1 Letter

1990: Redshirted in his first year at Nebraska.

At Mount Carmel HS: A three-year starter for Coach Frank Lenti, he helped lead the school to back-to-back state titles in Illinois' two largest classes (6A in 1988, 5A in 1989), and a 27-1 overall record. A captain as a senior, he rushed for 410 yards and seven touchdowns as a running back the first six games, then switched to defense when injuries depleted the secondary. In the last six games, he had 45 tackles, and, in Mount Carmel's 32-0 win over Niles Notre Dame in the state championship game, he had an interception, a blocked punt and two fumble recoveries. A two-time All-Catholic League selection and a 1989 all-area pick, he was voted team MVP.

Personal: The son of James and Gladys Stewart, he was born March 2, 1971, at Chicago, and has one brother, Eric.

Although small for a modern-day linebacker, Stewart makes up for his relative lack of size with quickness. In testing at the end of winter conditioning, he had electronic times of 1.67 seconds for 10 yards and 4.79 for 40. He's slated to be the starter at weak-side linebacker, moving in for junior Mike Anderson, who switches to strong-side to replace graduated NFL draft pick Mike Petko.

1991: A redshirt freshman, Stewart played in eight regular-season games, including all of the last six, plus the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, as the alternate weak-side linebacker behind Mike Anderson. He finished the year with 18 tackles, two pass breakups and two quarterback hurries, then was NU's second-leading tackler in the Orange Bowl with 11. His top regular-season tackle game came in his Husker debut when he had five against Colorado State. The biggest play of his freshman year came in the final minute of the Oklahoma game when he deflected a Mike Gundy pass on the Sooners' last play, wrapping up a 19-14 win and an Orange Bowl bid.

Mike Vedral
Tight End
 Gregory, S.D.
 2 Letters

After earning two letters as a reserve tight end, Vedral could be called on for more duty as a senior with the graduation of Daryl Leise and the early departure to the NFL of two-time All-Big Eight Johnny Mitchell. He'll start practice in August sharing the No. 2 spot behind William Washington with Gerald Armstrong.

1991: Vedral (pronounced VEE-dral) played in three games and had a 7-yard pass reception against Missouri. He was unavailable for the Colorado, Kansas and Iowa State games because of a shoulder injury.

1990: Mike played in five games and lettered, but had no receptions.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: A walk-on, Vedral backed up John Parrella (now a standout defensive tackle) at tight end on the junior varsity team, but had no receptions.

At Gregory HS: An all-state performer and four-year letterman for Coach Michael Dacy, Vedral played runningback, quarterback, fullback, linebacker and kicker on teams that went 8-2, 8-2, 7-3 and 7-3. As a senior runningback, he had 1,172 rushing yards. He also lettered in basketball (two-time all-conference) and track (state 300 hurdles champion), and played legion baseball.

Personal: The of Dennis and Diane Vedral, Mike was born Feb. 26, 1970, at Gregory. He's the oldest of five children, having two younger brothers and two younger sisters. An HPER major in Teachers College, he has a 3.18 cumulative grade-point average.

Tony Veland Quarterback

6-1, 190, Freshman
Omaha, Neb.
Benson HS

Veland became the No. 1 quarterback in the spring when senior Mike Grant suffered a broken collarbone with about two weeks left, and he'll start practice in August listed even with Grant at the top of the depth chart. If he becomes the starter, he'll be the first freshman (redshirt or otherwise) to start at quarterback for Nebraska since freshman eligibility was reinstated in 1972. The Huskers' fastest quarterback, Veland tied split end Tyrone Hughes for third in the 10-yard dash in the spring (1.54 seconds) and was sixth on the squad in the 40 (4.58). In the Spring Game, he quarterbacked the Reds to a 33-21 win, as he led all rushers in the game with 55 yards and a 37-yard touchdown run on 10 attempts, and completed four of nine passes for 49 yards, including a 17-yard TD pass to Vincent Hawkins.

1991: A scholarship recruit, he took a redshirt year.

At Benson HS: A second-team all-state quarterback, Veland was a two-way starter for three years for Coach Lonnie Tapp. Averaged 12 passes per game, completing 54.2 percent for 78.7 yards per game throwing just two interceptions all season. Ran for 700 yards and passed for 700 as a senior. Averaged 39 yards as the team's punter. Started on the Bunnies basketball team that was ranked No. 1 in the state through the regular season, and was a teammate of Nebraska's standout 1992-93 freshman basketball recruit, Andre Woolridge. Veland earned nine varsity letters in all and was also an academic all-state selection in football and basketball. Placed fifth in the Class A 100 meters (11.03) and third in the discus (162-2) at the 1991 state track meet.

Personal: The son of Eva Veland, Tony was born March 11, 1973, at Omaha. He has one brother, Tory, and one sister, Tiana.

#83

Billy Wade Defensive Tackle

6-5, 250, Junior
Westfield HS

Wade switched from tight end to defensive tackle late last season, and, after a good spring, will start practice in August listed third on the right side behind veterans Jamie Liewer and Bruce Moore. He has good strength, with a 341-pound bench press, and good quickness, with a 1.78-second timing in the 10-yard dash.

1991: Wade saw action in two games as a tight end, Utah State and Missouri, before switching to defense, and against USU had the only reception of his career, a 1-yard touchdown from Todd Gragnano.

1990: He started at tight end for the junior varsity, and was that squad's second-leading receiver with seven catches for 112 yards and two touchdowns in the five-game season. He also played in two games with the varsity, but had no receptions.

1989: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted as a true freshman.

At Westfield HS: Playing for former Texas A&M and Mississippi State Coach Emory Bellard, Wade saw his senior season cut short by a knee injury that required arthroscopic surgery to repair a bone chip. In his five games, he nevertheless hauled in 20 passes. He also lettered in basketball and track, and played the saxophone for three years in the school band.

Personal: The son of Billy and Gloria Wade, he was born Aug. 27, 1971, at Fairfield, Texas. He has one sister, Paula. He's a cousin of former Husker defensive back Jon Crippen.

#87

Tom Werner
Wingback
 5-10, 170, Senior
 Tilden, Neb.
 Elkhorn Valley HS
 2 Letters

A former walk-on, Werner came out of spring practice listed third at wingback behind senior Vincent Hawkins and sophomore Abdul Muhammad.

1991: Werner lettered after playing in three games as a reserve wingback. He had one pass reception for 11 yards against Missouri.

1990: Werner saw action in four varsity games and had two rushing attempts for 4 yards. He also played for the junior varsity, catching one pass for 15 yards and rushing once for 1 yard.

1989: Redshirt.

1988. After walking on, Werner played as a reserve wingback for the jayvees, catching three passes for 41 yards and rushing once for 12.

At Elkhorn Valley HS: A three-time all-conference defensive back, Werner was also all-conference as a running back as a senior when he ran for 840 yards for Coach Rich Rethuisch. He was also named one of the top 20 players in Northeast Nebraska by the Norfolk Daily News, despite playing on teams with a four-year combined record of 3-33, with all three wins coming his senior season. He also lettered in basketball and track.

Personal: The son of Kerry and Barbara Werner, Tom was born July 7, 1969, at Wakefield, Neb.

Zach Wiegert
Offensive Tackle
 6-5, 310, Sophomore
 Fremont, Neb.
 Bergan HS
 1 Letter

One of the most promising young players in the Husker camp, Wiegert will go into fall camp listed first at offensive right tackle..

1991: Wiegert played in all but the Washington and Colorado games as a redshirt freshman and helped Nebraska win the NCAA rushing title at 353.2 yards per game. It was the seventh national rushing crown in 12 years for the Huskers, who also averaged 153.3 yards per game in the air, their best passing mark since the Vince Ferragamo-quarterbacked 1976 team. Nebraska also led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 points per game) behind the blocking of Wiegert & Co. The younger brother of NU's All-Big Eight offensive left guard, Erik Wiegert, Zach was the alternate right tackle behind All-Big Eight senior Brian Boerboom.

1990: A scholarship recruit, he redshirted as a true freshman.

At Fremont Bergan HS: Wiegert (pronounced WEE-gert) earned all-class, all-state honors as a senior in 1989, despite missing the first six games of the season because of mononucleosis. In five games for Coach Joe Vojtech, he had 67 total tackles, including six for loss. He also earned all-conference honors in basketball, and threw the shot put and discus in track.

Personal: The son of Hedy Wiegert, Zach was born Aug. 16, 1972, at Fremont.

#58

Joel Wilks
Offensive Guard
 6-3, 270, Sophomore
 Hastings, Neb.

A former walk-on Wilks came off a redshirt year and claimed the No. 2 spot at offensive right guard at the end of spring practice. He'll go into camp in August as the alternate behind two-time All-Big Eight senior Will Shields.

1991: Redshirt.

1990: After walking on, Wilks became a part-time starter at offensive tackle for the 4-1 junior varsity team.

At Hastings HS: Wilks was an all-state, all-conference and academic all-state defensive tackle and offensive guard for Coach Walt Olsen, and played in the 1990 Nebraska Shrine Bowl as well as a Nebraska all-star team which played in Australia in the summer of 1990. He also lettered in basketball and track for the Tigers.

Personal: The son of Jerry and Georgia Wilks, Joel was born Oct. 10, 1971, at Omaha, Neb. He has a younger sister, Jessica. His father is in his first year as principal at Lincoln Northeast High School.

Darren Williams
Inside Linebacker
 6-1, 255, Junior
 Chicago, Ill.
 St. Martin HS
 1 Letter

After a solid sophomore season, Williams heads into 1991 listed even with fellow junior Troy Branch as the No. 2 strong-side linebacker behind returning starter Mike Anderson.

1991: A youngster with the potential to be a standout, Williams played in every regular-season game and the Orange Bowl vs. Miami, mostly as the alternate strong-side linebacker behind senior three-year starter Mike Petko, and got his first career start in the Nov. 16 Iowa State game when Petko was held out with knee and hamstring injuries. Williams had five tackles in that game, after a career-high nine at Kansas the week before, and finished the year with 34 total stops, including four for losses of 6 yards. He also had a pass breakup and three hurries.

1990: Redshirted.

1989: A scholarship recruit, Williams was a reserve linebacker for the junior varsity team, and finished as the squad's fifth-leading tackler with 21 total stops, including 16 solo tackles. Two of his tackles were behind the line for losses totaling 4 yards.

At St. Martin HS: A two-time All-Catholic League linebacker for Coach Jim Lick, Williams recorded 110 total tackles as a senior in 1988, including 40 unassisted stops, and had one blocked punt. Williams was an all-state pick by the Champaign News-Gazette.

Personal: The son of Rosie Starks, he was born April 4, 1971.

Rob Zatechka Offensive Tackle

Lincoln, Neb.
East HS
1 Letter

★ Phillips 66 Academic
All-Big Eight

One of the bright young prospects on Nebraska's offensive line, Zatechka (pronounced ZAD-es-kuh) will start the fall listed as an alternate at left tackle with Lance Lundburg. Very athletic for his size, Zatechka had the squad's third-best performance index in winter conditioning—2,625 points, based on a 1.74-second 10 yards, a 5.18-second 40, and a 26.5-inch vertical jump. Strong, too, he had the team's second-best bench press (429 pounds), fifth-best clean (377) and sixth-best squat (548). He's also the Huskers' top scholar, owning a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in biological sciences.

1991: Zatechka played in all but the Washington game as a redshirt freshman and started at left tackle in the Huskers' 18-9 win at Arizona State, Sept. 28. Against Oklahoma, Nov. 29, he threw maybe the biggest block of Nebraska's season, clearing the way for another freshman, I-back Calvin Jones, to gain 4 yards on fourth-and-1 at the Oklahoma 19 in the closing minutes. On the next play, Jones scored the winning touchdown in Nebraska's 19-14 victory. One of the Huskers' top scholars, he earned Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight honors as a non-starter, thanks largely to his perfect 4.0 grade-point average in biological sciences. His ability on the field helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 years at 353.2 yards per game, while also averaging 153.3 yards per game passing, the Huskers' best in 15 years since Vince Ferragamo was the quarterback. NU also led the Big Eight and ranked third nationally in both total offense (506.45 yards per game) and scoring offense (41.3 yards per game).

1990: A scholarship recruit, Zatechka took a redshirt in his first year at NU.

At Lincoln East HS: A three-year starter at offensive tackle and a spot player on defense for Coach Lee Zentic, he was all-class, all-state as a senior and received the Touch-down Club of Atlanta's Nebraska lineman of the year award, as well as prep All-America honors from several recruiting services. He lettered three times in track. He was also an academic all-state pick, received straight-A's and ranked No. 1 in his graduating class of 360. He qualified for various academic scholarships, including a University of Nebraska- Lincoln David Award.

Personal: The son of Dr. Douglas and Jane Zatechka, Rob was born Dec. 1, 1971, in Lansing, Mich. He has two brothers, Steve and Jon.

#64

Chris Zyzda Offensive Guard

6-2, 290, Senior
Sioux City, Iowa
Sergeant Bluff HS
2 Letters

A two-year letterman and a former walk-on, Zyzda will start the fall listed as an alternate at offensive left guard with junior Ken Mehlin. One of the strongest Huskers, he was second in winter conditioning in the squad (594 pounds) and tied for seventh in the clean (357).

1991: Zyzda (pronounced ZIZ-dah) played in nine of 11 regular-season games as a reserve left guard behind All-Big Eight Erik Wiegert and T.J. Slansky, missing only Colorado and Kansas. He helped Nebraska win its seventh NCAA rushing title in the last 12 years at 353.2 yards per game.

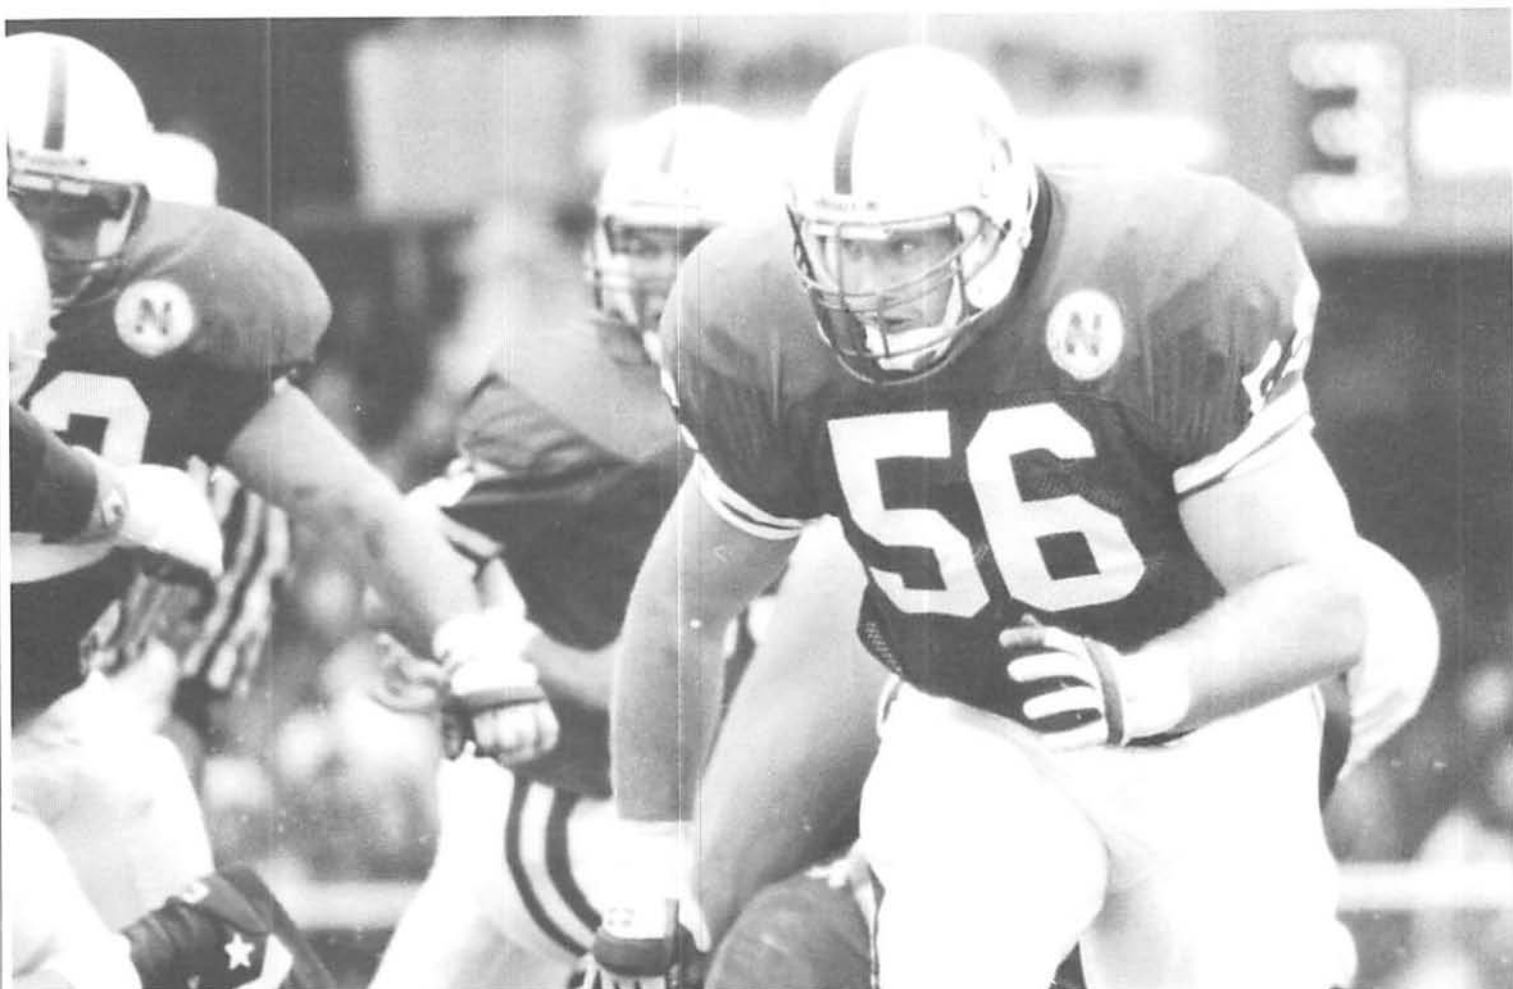

1990: Zyzda played in four games as reserve behind All-Big Eight Will Shields, Wiegert and Dave Jensen.

1989: Redshirt.

1988: After walking on, Zyzda became the starting right guard on the junior varsity team by mid-season and helped Coach Shane Thorell's crew to a 5-0-0 record.

At Sergeant Bluff HS: Chris lettered three times for Coach Tom Stahle, and earned all-conference and All-Northwest Iowa honors as a senior when he led Sergeant Bluff to a 9-1 record. He also lettered in basketball and track.

Personal: The son of Jim and Gladys Zyzda, Chris was born July 29, 1970, at Sioux City. He has two older brothers.

Sophomore tackle Rob Zatechka is a giant in both brawn (6-5, 315) and brains (4.0 GPA in biological science).

1992 Recruit Biographies

Larry Arnold

OLB, 6-5, 215, Copley, Ohio

Nebraska's first scholarship recruit out of the state of Ohio in 15 years, Arnold was a two-way standout for Coach Don Borman at Copley High School. An All-Suburban (Cleveland) League linebacker, he also had 20 pass receptions and two touchdowns as a receiver. A standout sprinter on the Copley track team, he has run an 11-second 100 meters and a 23.3 in the 200, and has thrown the discus 152 feet. He was also a member of Copley's state-qualifying 200 freestyle relay swim team. Chose Nebraska over Louisville, Michigan, Ohio State and Pittsburgh. (Nebraska's last Ohio recruit was tailback Greg Whetsel of Ridgeway Ridgmont in 1977).

Damon Benning

RB, 5-10, 175, Omaha, Neb.

A quarterback as a junior, Benning switched to I-back in 1991 and became the leading rusher in Nebraska with 1,548 yards and 19 touchdowns for Coach Frank Hanel at Omaha Northwest High School. An all-class, all-state selection, he was named captain of the all-metro team after leading Northwest to five wins, following a winless 1990 season. Included in his 1,548 rushing yards were 358 against Ralston and 272 against state runner-up Omaha Creighton Prep, in a season in which he tied a state record with nine-straight 100-yard games. Benning also averaged 24.1 yards on 14 kickoff returns, including 65- and 80-yard touchdowns, and averaged 15.1 yards on 10 punt returns, including a state-record 98-yard TD. Chose Nebraska over Iowa and Wyoming. He's the son of Don Benning, assistant superintendent of the Omaha Public Schools.

Willis Brown

WB, 5-8, 165, Edmond, Okla.

An all-state running back for Coach Bill Blankenship at Edmond Memorial High School, Brown ran for over 1,000 yards in the first six games of 1991, but a pulled hamstring slowed him after that and he finished the year with 1,143. A speedster, Brown has run 100 meters in 10.5 seconds and was fourth in the state meet last spring. One of three Husker recruits out of the Sooner state this year—after Nebraska had signed just two in history, the late Victor Stachmus of McAlester in 1988 and second-team All-American offensive guard Will Shields of Lawton, who will be a senior in 1992. Brown chose Nebraska over Oklahoma State.

Clinton Childs

RB, 6-0, 200, Omaha, Neb.

The leading rusher in Nebraska as a junior in 1990 with 1,428 yards, Childs ran for 1,495 as a senior for Coach Herman Colvin at Omaha North High School to finish behind fellow Husker recruit Damon Benning's 1,548. But Childs still laid claim to at least part of the rushing title as his 186.9-yard average in eight games topped Benning's 176.0 in nine games. Childs began his senior year with a Metro Conference-record 370 yards against Council Bluffs Abraham Lincoln, topping the old record of 367 by Husker sophomore-to-be Calvin Jones of Omaha Central. Childs ran for 3,947 yards in four years, just off Jones' state big-school (Class A) record of 3,965 in three years. He was a high school teammate of another NU recruit, defensive tackle Leonard Washington. Childs did not make recruiting visits other than to Nebraska.

Chris Dishman

OL, 6-4, 275, Cozad, Neb.

A two-way standout and an all-class, all-state performer for Coach Gene Hunting at Cozad High School, Dishman powered the Haymakers to a 12-1 record and the state Class B title in 1991. Dishman, who is quick for a lineman at 4.99 in the 40, will be tried at guard at NU. He already has good size at 6-4, 275 pounds, but doctors say he'll grow bigger. He's also a standout wrestler, having posted a 33-4 mark as a junior, and in track, has thrown the shot put 55-6 1/2 and the discus 159 feet. As a senior wrestler, he reached the state Class B finals, where he lost to fellow Husker football recruit Jeff Ogard of St. Paul. Dishman chose Nebraska over Colorado State, Iowa State and Kansas State.

Tommie Frazier

QB, 6-1, 190, Bradenton, Fla.

The USA Today All-America quarterback, Frazier threw for some 2,600 yards and 30 touchdowns and ran for some 1,600 yards and 33 touchdowns as a two-year starter for Coach Joe Kinnan at Bradenton Manatee High School. Last fall, he completed 47.6 percent of his passes for 989 yards and 17 touchdowns. Labeled by some as the nation's top option quarterback, Frazier has been timed in the 40 in 4.5 seconds. Frazier chose Nebraska over Clemson and Notre Dame after eliminating Colorado, Georgia Tech and Syracuse.

Jon Hesse

LB, 6-4, 210, Lincoln, Neb.

Regarded by some as the top prospect in Nebraska, Hesse played five positions for Lincoln Southeast High School in 1991 and helped Coach Chuck Mizerski's team rebound from a 0-2 start to go on to win the state Class A (big-school) title. A two-time all-state selection on defense, as a defensive back in 1990 and as a linebacker in 1991, Hesse also played both running back positions, wide receiver and wingback as a senior, while returning punts and handling place-kicking and punting duties. He was named the state's top defensive player by the Lincoln Journal & Star, and was an academic all-state pick with a 3.978 (of 4.0) grade-point average, in addition to being a standout on Southeast's basketball team. Chose Nebraska over Washington.

Mike Minter

DB-RB, 5-11, 175, Lawton, Okla.

A two-way player for Coach Derald Ahlschlager at Lawton High School, Minter was recruited as a safety by Nebraska after helping Lawton to a 7-5 record and the second round of the state playoffs. As a running back, he led the state's largest class in rushing in 1991 with 1,589 yards and 21 touchdowns, while averaging 8.5 yards per carry, but Ahlschlager described him as one of the biggest hitters he's ever coached on defense. Minter, who averaged 21 points per game in basketball, is from the same high school as Nebraska's second-team All-American offensive guard Will Shields, who will be a senior in 1992. Minter is one of three Husker recruits out of the Sooner state this year—after NU had signed just two in history, the late Victor Stachmus of McAlester in 1988 and Shields in 1989. Chose Nebraska over Arkansas, Baylor, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Rice and TCU.

Ed Morrow

LB, 6-5, 225, St. Louis, Mo.

A prep All-American for veteran Coach Mike Mueller at McCluer High School, Morrow had four interceptions and 95 tackles as a junior, then had seven interceptions and 83 tackles as a senior, despite missing two games at mid-season after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery. In one playoff game last fall, he intercepted three passes, blocked a punt, recovered a fumble and had 14 tackles. A two-time, big-school all-state performer in football, he was also a standout center for McCluer's No. 1-ranked basketball team. Picked Nebraska over Arkansas, Colorado, Missouri, Oklahoma, Southern Cal and Tennessee.

Kareem Moss

CB, 5-10, 185, Garden City (Kan.) CC

A speedster who has run the 40 in under 4.5 seconds, Moss will have three years to play at Nebraska since he redshirted as a freshman at Garden City in 1990. Playing for Coach Brian McNeely last fall, Moss was leading the Jayhawk Conference in punt returns and kickoff returns when he broke his leg at mid-season. He was considered one of the top defensive backs in the league. He's one of two juco recruits (both defensive backs) for Nebraska this year, along with safety Toby Wright of Phoenix (Ariz.) College. Moss was an all-state defensive back at Spartanburg (S.C.) High School in the fall of 1989, then was second in the 1990 state high school track meet in the 200-meter dash, and had best times of 10.5 seconds in the 100 and 21.5 in the 200. Chose Nebraska over Arkansas, Georgia and Kansas State.

Jeff Ogard

OL, 6-6, 275, St. Paul, Neb.

A two-way all-state lineman for Coach Russ Baker at St. Paul High School, Ogard was an all-class selection at offensive tackle and a Class B pick at defensive tackle, where he recorded 79 tackles for a 6-3 team in 1991. A three-sport standout for the Wildcats, Ogard was a two-time Class B state champion both as a heavyweight wrestler and as a 57-4 shot-putter. Chose Nebraska over Kansas State and Oklahoma, and turned down recruiting visits to several other schools.

Ben Rutz

QB, 6-1, 180, Oklahoma City, Okla.

An all-state quarterback and three-year starter for Coach Rob Green at Putnam City West High School, Rutz threw for 4,388 yards and 34 touchdowns in his career, while completing 55 percent of his passes. As a junior in 1990, he completed 133 of 246 passes for 1,850 yards. As a senior, he threw for 1,500 yards and 15 touchdowns while connecting on 54 percent of his attempts. One of three Husker recruits out of the Sooner state this year—after Nebraska had signed just two in history, the late Victor Stachmus of McAlester in 1988 and second-team All-American offensive guard Will Shields of Lawton, who will be a senior in 1992. Chose Nebraska over Baylor, LSU, North Carolina, Oklahoma State, Texas Tech and others.

Scott Saltsman

MG, 6-2, 255, Wichita Falls, Texas

Named to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's Texas Top 100 List, Saltsman had 89 tackles and 10 quarterback sacks for Coach Wayne LeBleu and Wichita Falls Rider High School in 1991, despite sitting out two mid-season games (both losses) because of a knee sprain. Saltsman, who had 27 career sacks, helped lead Rider to a 7-4 record and to the Class 5-A playoffs for the first time in nine years. He also played first base and pitched for the school's baseball team. Selected Nebraska over Arizona State, Miami (Fla.), Oklahoma and Pittsburgh.

T.J. Scribner

TE-LB, 6-3, 220, Omaha, Neb.

Nebraska's only recruit from eight-man football in 1992, Scribner was all-everything for his father, Coach Ron Scribner, at Omaha Brownell-Talbot High School. A second-team all-class, all-state selection, he was a two-time all-state performer in eight-man football and as a senior in 1991 was named eight-man offensive player-of-the-year by the Omaha World-Herald and eight-man defensive player-of-the-year by the Lincoln Journal & Star. Led Brownell-Talbot to the 1991 state playoffs despite playing the last five games with a separated shoulder and the last two with a sprained ankle. In his career, he had 2,358 rushing yards, 482 passing yards and eight touchdown passes, 27 pass receptions for 518 yards and five touchdowns, 481 tackles, three interceptions, 56 sacks, and 46 total touchdowns. A four-year starter in basketball, he has twice been a three-event qualifier for the state track meet, and was the male lead in the school musical the last two years.

Marvin Sims

RB, 5-9, 175, Apple Valley, Minn.

A Parade All-American and a two-time all-state running back for Coach Paul Miller, Sims ran for 1,500 yards as a junior in 1990 and 1,100 as a senior at Apple Valley High School, leading the suburban Twin Cities school to a combined 20-3 record the last two years in Minnesota's largest class. A standout sprinter, he was second in the state last spring in the 100-meter dash. Sims turned down visits to Iowa, Michigan State, Wisconsin and several other schools.

Jim Stiebel

OG, 6-4, 255, Belleville, Ill.

A three-year, two-way starter for Coach Glenn Schott at Belleville Althoff High School, Stiebel was all-metro St. Louis in 1991 and was a two-time all-state pick in Illinois' fourth-largest class. He had 90 total tackles and three sacks as a senior and was a demon on special teams, blocking six punts. As a teammate of Nebraska redshirt freshman defensive lineman Luther Hardin, Stiebel helped Althoff win state titles in 1989 and 1990. He was a big part of a third Althoff state title, as he went 9-2 as a pitcher for the baseball team and picked up the win in the 1991 state-title game. Selected Nebraska over Arkansas, Oklahoma and Pittsburgh.

Eric Stokes

DB, 5-10, 175, Lincoln, Neb.

A two-time team captain and all-city selection for Coach Lee Zentic at Lincoln East High School, Stokes was an all-state cornerback as a senior in 1991. Also a standout running back for the Spartans, he's East's record-holding rusher both for a single season (1,203) and a career (2,309). A preseason Super Prep All-American, he's one of two hometown recruits for Nebraska, along with linebacker Jon Hesse of Lincoln Southeast.

Ryan Terwilliger

OLB-TE, 6-5, 205, Grant, Neb.

Playing for Perkins County High School in Class C-1 (Nebraska's third-largest class), Terwilliger earned all-class, all-state honors in 1991 as a defensive end/outside linebacker, and was named the C-1 defensive player-of-the-year. As a junior in 1990, he was C-1 all-state and second-team, all-class all-state as a tight end. On offense, Terwilliger split time between tight end and running back, and in the last two years, rushed for 1,794 yards, caught 27 passes for 682 yards, and scored 40 touchdowns. On defense, he had 133 tackles the last two seasons, despite an injury-plagued senior year. He played his high school football for his father, Coach Marlin Terwilliger, and was also a standout on Grant's basketball team.

Larry Townsend

DT, 6-5, 265, San Jose, Calif.

After starting on both the offensive and defensive lines for Coach Brook Vasconcellos at San Jose Yerba Buena High School, Townsend will concentrate on defense at Nebraska. An all-county pick as a senior, he had 165 tackles and 18 sacks the last two seasons, including 85 stops and 10 sacks in 1991. SuperPrep Magazine named him the defensive player-of-the-year on the West Coast, while the Long Beach Press-Telegram listed him as one of the "Best in the West" and said he was one of only three players to get votes from all 10 college recruiters on the selection panel. Chose Nebraska over Colorado and Washington.

Leonard Washington

DT, 6-4, 275, Omaha, Neb.

A two-time all-class, all-state selection for Coach Herman Colvin at Omaha North High School, Washington is one of eight in-state recruits for Nebraska in 1992, the Huskers' biggest in-state recruiting class in 10 years. Washington, who earned the two all-state honors despite two arthroscopic knee surgeries the last two years, was a prep teammate of another Husker recruit, running back Clinton Childs. Washington picked Nebraska over Colorado, Florida State, Iowa, Michigan and Tennessee.

Riley Washington

WB-DB, 5-9, 160, San Diego, Calif.

A two-way player for Coach Carl Parrick at San Diego Southwest High School, Washington rushed for some 1,200 yards as a senior running back in 1991, following a 1,100-yard year in 1990. He also played defensive back for Parrick and had California's third-fastest 100-meter time last spring at 10.43 seconds. He was the fastest returning sprinter in the state for 1992. Washington chose Nebraska over Colorado, UCLA, Fresno State, Oregon and Oregon State.

Toby Wright

S, 6-1, 205, Phoenix (Ariz.) College

A junior-college All-American for Coach John Avainantos at Phoenix College last fall, Wright earned his associate's degree from the school in December, enrolled at Nebraska in January and was in Lincoln for spring practice in April. He'll have two years of eligibility remaining. Wright, who picked NU over Arizona, Arizona State and Southern Cal, led Phoenix in tackles last year with 119 and in sacks with nine, while recording two interceptions. A graduate of Dobson High School in Phoenix, Wright is one of two juco transfers (both defensive backs) among this year's Husker recruits, joining cornerback Kareem Moss of Garden City (Kan.) CC. He's from a football family as all four of his older brothers played college football, including Terry Wright, who played for the Indianapolis Colts, and T.C., who plays at San Diego State.

His other interests include aviation and magic. He has a commercial pilot's license with an instrument rating, and he occasionally does magic shows for children.

He is married to Sandra Whipple Spanier, an English professor and author specializing in 20th century American literature. They have an 11-year old son, Brian, and an 8-year old daughter, Hadley.

Institutional Representative Dr. James O'Hanlon

Dr. James O'Hanlon, Dean of Teachers College, became Nebraska's institutional representative to the Big Eight Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Sept. 1, 1982. He was chair of the Big Eight Conference in 1989-90.

This past spring he served as chair of the search committee charged with finding a replacement for retiring long-time athletic director Bob Devaney.

Dr. O'Hanlon has been a member of the University of Nebraska faculty since 1966 when he came to NU from Ohio University as an assistant professor in the Department of Secondary Education. He was elevated to associate professor in 1967 and to professor in 1970.

While at Nebraska, he has served as the director of the NUSTEP program for teacher education (1969-72), coordinator of freshman programming for the Office of Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs (1973-74), chaired the Governor's Committee on the use of Hiram Scott College (1973), chaired the Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Post-Secondary Education (1974-75), and served as president of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Faculty Senate in 1981. In 1972, he received the NU Foundation Distinguished Teaching Award.

From 1975 to 1977, he chaired the Department of Physical Education and Recreation, then became director of the new School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (HPER). He served in that position until he was named acting Dean of Teachers College, July 1, 1982. He was named Dean of Teachers College, May 1, 1983.

In addition, he serves as chair of the Nebraska Education Consolidation and Improvement Act State Advisory Committee; is a member of the Board of Directors of the Midwest Holmes Group; has served on educational councils appointed by Governors Exon, Kerrey, and Orr, including being co-chair of the Governor's Task Force on Math and Science Education in 1990; and is a member of the UNL Business Services Advisory Committee.

A native of Blair, Neb., O'Hanlon attended Grinnell (Iowa) College and received a bachelor's degree in history from Nebraska in 1957. He earned his master's degree in secondary education from Ohio State University in 1958, then served as an infantry officer in the U.S. Army.

He taught in secondary schools in Parma, Ohio, and Fremont, Nebraska before returning to the University of Nebraska for doctoral study. Following receipt of the Ed.D. in secondary education and educational psychology, he served as an assistant professor at Ohio University from 1964-66 where he was named to the Honor Roll of Faculty.

Personal interests include serving on the Board of Directors of the National Arbor Day Foundation, of which he is the immediate past-president, and the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra. He is a member of the Lincoln Community Concert Band and is an avid jogger and reader.

O'Hanlon and his wife, Gail, are the parents of three children, Greg of Portland, Oregon, Susan of Omaha, Nebraska, and Tim of St. Paul, Minnesota.

Bob Devaney

Athletic Director

Bob Devaney ranks as one of the outstanding athletic directors in the nation as he continues to lead the Nebraska Athletic Department with the same vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence that marked him as one of America's greatest football coaches during his colorful gridiron career.

Devaney is in his 31st year of providing drive, leadership and pride in the Cornhusker athletic program, and his final year as athletic director. Devaney will retire as A.D. on Jan. 4, 1993 and will become Athletic Director Emeritus.

He arrived in 1962, charged with the mission of building a successful football program, and he succeeded far beyond anyone's expectations. During his 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101, lost only 20 and tied two for a winning percentage of .829. His career mark of 136-30-7 for .806 ranked him as the winningest active coach in the nation at the time of his retirement in 1973. Devaney's teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships during the 1962-72 span, with his teams going to nine bowl games. His teams twice won four consecutive Big Eight titles.

Devaney's 1971 title team, which posted a 13-0 record, twice defended its No. 1 ranking against the second-ranked team (beating Oklahoma, 35-31, in the "Game of the Century," and Alabama, 38-6, in the Orange Bowl), and beat the eventual No. 3 team, Colorado, 31-7, has been hailed as the best college team of all time. Bob was inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame in 1981.

Devaney received many other honors during his coaching career. He was named coach-of-the-year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington TD Club in 1971, and he was tabbed to coach in numerous all-star games such as the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-America, Blue-Gray and Shrine East-West. He also coached the College All-Stars against the Dallas Cowboys in the 1972 Chicago game.

Five years after accepting the challenge of rebuilding the Husker football program, he accepted the additional challenge of rebuilding the overall athletic program, succeeding the man who hired him, Tippy Dye, as athletic director in 1967. And his success in 26 years on that job has been as phenomenal as was his coaching success.

Devaney spearheaded drives to virtually rebuild and replace Nebraska's aging athletic facilities. Continuing a process begun during Dye's tenure, he oversaw the expansion of Memorial Stadium from its original 36,000 capacity to its present 73,650 (completed in 1972, along with the South Stadium Office Building).

It was Devaney's leadership, working in conjunction with the Nebraska Legislature, that resulted in the passage of a special cigarette tax to provide funds for a new athletic complex, the beautiful, four-and-a-half acre indoor sports building which opened on the Nebraska State Fair Grounds in 1976. The building, which features a 14,302-seat main arena, plus separate swimming and diving pools, an indoor track, and workout areas for wrestling and gymnastics, was renamed the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 1978.

Also in the mid-1970s, Devaney saw to the construction of Ed Weir Track and Field Stadium, and a new, partially-astroturfed baseball facility, Buck Beltzer Field. More recently, he has overseen the expansion of the Huskers' academic counseling service and the concurrent establishment of the Hewitt Center in the West Stadium; the continued expansion of the strength and the conditioning program and its outstanding facility in the West Stadium; the construction of the new NU Softball Complex; the building of the Otto and Gladys Baumann Building at Beltzer Field; the funding and construction of the new full-field Cook Pavilion indoor practice area, and the adjoining Lee and Helene Sapp Recreation Facility. The latest project is the complete remodeling of NU's old basketball facility, the Coliseum, into a modern arena for the Huskers' highly-successful women's volleyball program.

At the same time that Devaney was working to provide top-notch facilities for the Husker athletic teams, he also worked to hire the best coaches available and provide those coaches with full-scholarship funding, and did so at the time that women's sports became established at the intercollegiate level. The result of his efforts is an overall athletic program that ranks among the nation's elite, with several sports that are dominant at the Big Eight level and highly-competitive at the national level. The Huskers have consistently won conference all-sports titles for both men's and women's sports. In fact, under Devaney, Nebraska teams have produced 12 national championships; 122 Big Eight championships; 67 individual national champions, 520 first-team All-Americans, and 63 Academic All-Americans.

A graduate of Alma (Mich.) College in 1939, Devaney served as a high school coach at Big Beaver, Keego Harbor, Saginaw and Alpena in his native state before joining Biggie Munn and Duffy Daugherty at Michigan State in 1953. In 1957, he became head coach at Wyoming, where his teams posted a 35-10-5 record.

Devaney is married to the former Phyllis Wiley. They have a son, Mike and a daughter, Pat, both graduates of the University of Nebraska. Bob and Phyllis also have two grandchildren.

Strength and Conditioning Staff

Boyd Epley, C.S.C.S. Strength & Conditioning Coach

Boyd Epley, 44, has been associated with the University of Nebraska for 23 years, first as an athlete and later as a leader in the field of athletic strength and conditioning programs. Epley, the first strength coach in the Big Eight Conference, is the founder and former president of the National Strength and Conditioning Association. In 1980, he was voted national strength coach of the year. Today, 26 of Epley's former assistants are now head strength coaches at college and professional teams throughout the country. During his tenure at Nebraska, he has developed year-round strength programs for men and women. Epley prepped at Alhambra High School in Phoenix, Ariz., where he played football and competed in track. At Phoenix Junior College, he captained the track team and starred as a pole vaulter. He became the Nebraska pole vault record-holder as a junior, and was Nebraska's first 15-foot indoor vaulter, but a back injury forced him out of competition in his senior year. He turned his interest to strength training and participated three years in AAU Olympic lifting, powerlifting and physique competition. Epley received his associate's degree from Phoenix JC in 1968 and his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in 1970. In 1972, he received a master's degree from Nebraska. In 1991, Epley became a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He is married to the former Jane Lilyhorn of Holdrege, and they have a son, Jay Robert, and a daughter, Jenna Shea.

Mike Arthur, C.S.C.S. Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

At 40, Arthur is regarded as one of the most knowledgeable strength coaches in the nation. His 17 years of research at Nebraska has helped the strength and conditioning program to stay on the cutting edge. Arthur is from Lincoln and has a B.S. Degree from UNL. He is married to the former Reenna Stingley, and they have a daughter Tara.

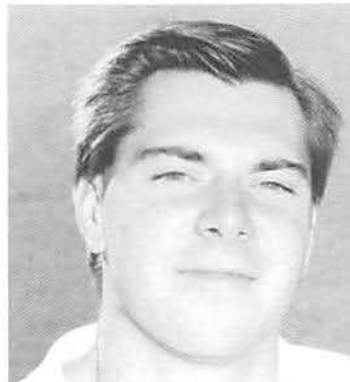

Randy Goble, C.S.C.S. Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Goble, 34, has been with Nebraska for 11 years. He is a native of Crofton, Neb. and graduated with honors from the UN-Kearney. Goble is one of the top multi-talented strength coaches in the country and has made a tremendous impact on the Nebraska strength program and facilities. He also serves as the leg development supervisor.

Bryan Bailey, C.S.C.C. Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Bailey, 35, has a Master's Degree from the United States Sports Academy in Exercise Science along with a B.S. Degree from UNL. Originally from Arnold, Neb., Bailey has been with the Nebraska Strength Program for five years. He works closely with the doctors and trainers modifying the strength and conditioning programs for injured players.

Jon Jost, C.S.C.S. Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Jost, 24, has a B.S. Degree in Exercise Science from UNL. He is currently working on a Master's Degree in Post Secondary Administration. Jost supervises back development for the football team and is responsible for generating the football players computerized lifting programs. From Seward, Neb., he has been with the University of Nebraska for five years.

Bill Byrne Athletic Director-Designate

On June 26, 1992, University of Oregon Athletic Director Bill Byrne was introduced by University of Nebraska-Lincoln Chancellor Graham Spanier as the person selected to succeed longtime Husker A.D. Bob Devaney.

Byrne, 47, who has been the athletic director at Oregon since 1984, will join the Nebraska staff as athletic director-designate on Nov. 1, then will become the Huskers' ninth full-time A.D. when Devaney steps down on Jan. 4, 1993. Devaney will become Athletic Director Emeritus.

Bill Byrne

In his tenure at Oregon, Byrne spearheaded a three-year construction project to build the $11 million Casanova Athletic Center, the home of the Ducks' football team and the entire Athletic Department's offices. The project also included a new press box and sky suites at Autzen Stadium. The facility was financed through skybox and skysuite revenues, sale of sponsor seats and cash and gift-in-kind donations.

Byrne served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in the 1991-92 academic year, and is in his fourth year on that organization's executive committee. He was also chairman of the Pacific-10 Conference executive committee and was named national fund-raiser-of-the-year by the National Athletic Fund-raisers Association.

Born in Boston, Byrne grew up in Idaho and attended Idaho State University, where he was student body president. He received undergraduate and master's degrees in business at the Pocatello school.

He was assistant athletic director at San Diego State University, executive director of the University of New Mexico Lobo Club and director of alumni relations at Idaho State before going to Oregon as associate athletic director in 1982.

Byrne and his wife Marilyn, who was born in Ainsworth, Neb., have two sons, Bill, a 1992 graduate of Stanford University, and Greg, a junior at Oregon.

Nebraska Medical Staff

George Sullivan

Jerry Weber

Jack Nickolite

Duke LaRue

Doak Ostergard

Dr. Pat Clare

Dr. Robert Dugas

Dr. Samuel I. Fuenning

Dr. Lonnie Albers, director of athletic medicine at the University of Nebraska, heads a veteran medical team, which includes team orthopedist Dr. Pat Clare; chief of staff, head trainer and physical therapist George Sullivan; associate head trainer and physical therapist Jerry Weber; assistant trainer and physical therapist Roland "Duke" LaRue; associate trainer/physician's assistant Jack Nickolite, who returns to the Husker medical staff after two years off pursuing his physician's assistant degree; director of athletic medicine research Dr. Samuel I. Fuenning; and newest staff members Dr. Michael Adams, Dr. Matt Reckmeyer, and Dr. Robert Dugas.

George Sullivan, who is beginning his 40th year as a full-time member of the medical staff with the University, received his bachelor's and master's degrees from UNL and his physical therapy degree from Iowa. Sullivan first began working in the Husker training room as a student trainer in 1949-51, working part-time. Among his many accomplishments, Sullivan has been honored by the U.S. Olympic Committee by being selected as trainer for the 1959 Pan American Games in Chicago and head trainer for the 1962 Pan Am Games in Sao Paulo, Brazil. He was named head trainer for both the Mexico City and Munich Olympic Games but turned these down to be with his Big Red football teams. Other honors include being Honor Trainer for the Drake Relays, the Presidential Citation for Physical Fitness, the Citizen's Saving Trainer's Hall of Fame, Athletic Trainer's Hall of Fame, and KFOR Radio "1980 Sportsman-of-the-Year." Most recently, he was honored by the Nebraska State Physical Therapy Association with its M.E. Sacksteder Award in 1984, the group's highest honor for outstanding contributions to physical therapy. He was admitted to the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1985 and awarded a "Special Merit Award." In 1987, he was given the "Outstanding Service Award" from the Nebraska Athletic Directors Association. In 1988, he received the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine Distinguished Service Award. He is often a guest speaker for the AMA, National Athletic Trainers' Association, American Physical Therapy Association, and the state coaches associations throughout the Midwest. Sullivan is married to the former Emogene "Genie" Pearson and they have three married sons Greg, Gary, and Glen, and eight grandchildren.

Sullivan heads a staff that includes two therapist-trainers, a trainer/physician's assistant, one other certified athletic trainer, and four graduate certified trainers and 15 student trainers—all required to care for the over 700 student-athletes in both men's and women's athletic departments.

Associate head trainer Jerry Weber is in his 16th year on the staff. A Nebraska native from Sidney, Weber earned a bachelor's degree in zoology from Nebraska in 1974. He earned his physical therapy degree from the UNL College of Medicine in 1976 and his master's from Western Illinois in 1977. Besides his duties with the Husker football team, Weber is in charge of the Isokinetic Testing Center next to the main training room in the South Stadium Office Building, and during the winter he also works with Nebraska's outstanding gymnastics teams. In 1991, Weber received the Sullivan Award from the Nebraska State Athletic Trainers' Association recognizing excellence in athletic training within the state. He has been active in the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) at the state, district, and national levels since 1978, having served on their Board of Directors and last year as a presidential candidate. Currently Weber is on the Nebraska State Examining Board for Athletic Trainers. He is married to the former Sherry Cole.

In his 14th year as assistant trainer and physical therapist is Roland E. "Duke" LaRue. Prior to coming to Nebraska, LaRue was the head trainer-physical therapist at Western Illinois University. He earned his B.A. from

Buena Vista College in 1950, his M.A. from Wyoming in 1957, and his physical therapy certificate in 1964 from Iowa. At Nebraska, LaRue is the head physical therapist at the Health Center and director of the athletic training internship. He has served the U.S. Olympic Committee at the Winter Games in Japan in 1972 and at the 1980 Winter Games in Lake Placid. He and his wife, Liz, have three children Cheryl, Daveen and Lance.

Jack Nickolite returned to the Husker staff as an associate head trainer in 1991-92 after receiving his physician's assistant degree from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha in 1991. Prior to taking a leave of absence to pursue that degree, Nickolite served as an assistant trainer for the Huskers for six years, working with the football team and several other sports, including primary responsibility for the men's basketball team. A native of Bellwood, Neb., Nickolite received his bachelor's degree from UNL in 1980, and is master's degree in 1984. He is married to the former Diane Rezac, and they have three sons, Bobby, Brett, and Brandon.

The newest member of the training staff is Doak Ostergard. In 1989, Ostergard received full-time status when he filled in for Jack Nickolite, who took a leave of absence to pursue a physician's assistant degree at the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha. Ostergard's primary responsibilities include working with the football team and reconditioning athletes. A native of Gothenburg, Neb., Ostergard graduated from Gothenburg High School, then received his Bachelor's (1984) and Master's (1989) degrees from UNL.

International Center for Sports Nutrition

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department utilizes the nutritional services of the International Center for Sports Nutrition (ICSN, formerly the Swanson Center for Nutrition) in Omaha.

ICSN has been highly involved in sports nutrition research and education since 1973. The center also serves as nutrition consultant to the United States Olympic Committee. Julie Gallagher, ICSN sports nutritionist, is available to provide computerized diet analysis, nutrition education and counseling to UNL athletes in all sports. This nutrition program is designed to help athletes in their pursuit of optimal health and maximal sports performance. ICSN is located on the University of Nebraska Medical Center campus in Omaha. It is a non-profit, independent institute which has close ties to the Medical Center, but is not part of UNMC.

The Cornhusker Marching Band.

The Cornhusker Marching Band

Jay Kloecker

The University of Nebraska's Cornhusker Marching Band is one of the oldest marching bands in the country. It was founded in 1879 as an ROTC unit and began playing at football games at the beginning in 1890. The 1992 marching band has 260 members from every region of the country. The UNL band program also includes two fine concert ensembles, three athletic bands, and two jazz bands.

The association with Nebraska football has brought the band much publicity and the program has grown accordingly. The Cornhusker Marching band is the only collegiate ensemble that has performed in all of the major post-season bowls: Rose, Orange, Fiesta, Cotton and Sugar, as well as the Citrus, Sun, Astro-Bluebonnet and Liberty. The band also made a performance tour of Europe during the summer of 1974.

The Cornhusker Marching Band is directed by Professor Jay Kloecker. He holds degrees from the University of Kentucky and Florida State University, and has directed nationally-recognized high school bands in Illinois and Kentucky. In addition to his duties with the marching band, Kloecker conducts the wind ensemble and the concert band, and teaches courses in music education at the University's School of Music.

Bret Spainhour joins the School of Music staff this fall as assistant band director for athletic bands. His duties include assisting with the marching band and directing all athletic bands. Spainhour is a graduate of Illinois State University and the University of Iowa. He has served as assistant director of bands at the University of South Dakota and has taught in the Illinois public school systems.

Al Rometo, professor of percussion and vice-director of the UNL School of Music, serves as percussion instructor for the marching band. After receiving a bachelor's from Indiana University (Pa.), he earned a master's degree from Ohio University. Rometo is an active clinician, adjudicator and performer in both the traditional and jazz idioms.

Other senior Cornhusker Marching Band staff members are Rose Johnson, administrative assistant; John Gill, technical assistant; Katy Coleman, flag line instructor; Brian Akesson and Sam Zitek, graduate assistants; and Mike Veak, announcer. Drum majors for the 1992 season are John Balcer of Bellevue, Neb., Jessie Sutton of Lincoln, Neb., and Becky McGuire of McQueeney, Texas. Debbie Dedrick of Cedar Falls, Iowa, and Stephannie Wilson of Kennett, Mo., are the twirlers.

The marching band's season begins on Aug. 13 with a 10-day camp that included over 30 rehearsals and a special exhibition performance in Memorial Stadium. Regular daily rehearsals from 7:45-9 a.m. begin on Aug. 24 and continue throughout the fall to prepare for six different halftime shows for the home games, plus several parades and special performances. The band will cap its season with an appearance in the popular Star City Parade through downtown Lincoln on Dec. 5 and with two concerts in Kimball Recital Hall on the UNL city campus on Dec. 5 and 6.

Game No. 1

Utah State 28

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 7—Nebraska scored 28 unanswered points to pull away from a 31-20 third-quarter lead and put away Utah State, 59-28, in one of the craziest days ever in Memorial Stadium.

Despite a day that saw 14th-ranked (AP) Nebraska break its own NCAA record with 44 first downs, while the Huskers and Aggies were combining for 1,208 total-offense yards, the scene that may be remembered the longest was the hundreds of Nebraska students frolicking on the soaked stadium turf when officials sent the teams to the locker rooms during a 19-minute lightning and rain delay in the third quarter. It was the first time in anyone's memory that a Husker home game was interrupted by weather.

But that was not all that the 76,115 on hand saw.

They also watched the teams battle in the rain in the first quarter—while the sun was shining.

They saw senior quarterback Keithen McCant (career totals, eight rushes, three passes) replace starter Mickey Joseph in the second quarter. Despite Nebraska's 17-0 lead and 200 total-offense yards at the time, Joseph had personally struggled, completing just one of his first seven passes and losing a fumble. McCant, playing for the first time when a game was in doubt, guided the Huskers to four touchdowns and a field goal in six possessions, while running for 87 yards and a TD and completing six of 10 passes for 101 yards and a score himself. (McCant started the rest of the season and became the All-Big Eight quarterback as well as the league's offensive player-of-the-year).

They saw starting I-back Scott Baldwin run for 47 yards on three carries in the game's first series, then suffer a severe ankle sprain while scoring on a 29-yard run with 11:22 left in the first quarter. Sophomore backup I-back Derek Brown came in to rush for a career-high 175 yards on 23 carries to begin his run to All-Big Eight honors. Redshirt freshman I-back Calvin Jones ran for 81 yards and his first two career TDs as he started his run to Big Eight newcomer-of-the-year honors.

They witnessed Nebraska's offense pile up 787 total-offense yards (the most for the Huskers since 790 at Minnesota in 1983) with 617 of the yards coming on the ground (NU's second-most ever, behind the school-record 677 against New Mexico State 1982, when the Huskers set the old NCAA first-down record with 43).

And they also watched quarterback Ron Lopez of 0-2 Utah State pass for 373 yards—the most ever against Nebraska in a regular-season game and third all-time behind Florida State's 422- and 375-yard efforts in the 1990 and 1988 Fiesta Bowls.

Notes: The crowd marked Nebraska's 176th-consecutive sellout . . . the Huskers won their 19th-straight at home vs. nonconference opponents . . . for the third time on record, NU did not punt . . . the lightning delay came after Jones scored with 13:35 left in the fourth quarter.

Quote of the game: "Get this guys. We threw it 21 times today, so we're throwing the heck out of it." —Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne.

Game No. 2

Nebraska 71, Colorado State 14

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 14—Nebraska took advantage of eight Colorado State turnovers to splatter the Rams, 71-14, and set up a showdown the following week against defending Pac-10 and Rose Bowl champion Washington.

The 13th-ranked (AP) Huskers scored on seven of their first nine possessions to jump to a 43-0 halftime lead over the defending Freedom Bowl champions. NU went on to roll up 696 yards in total offense, their seventh-highest count ever, and did not punt for the fourth time in history and the second game in a row.

Only one of the Huskers' first-half touchdowns came on a drive longer than six plays, but NU still had 429 yards' total-offense at halftime.

Senior quarterback Keithen McCant, who started off the bench the previous week against Utah State, got the first start of his career and passed the test. He completed eight of his 13 passes for 99 yards and a 25-yard touchdown to tight end Johnny Mitchell, while rushing eight times for 68 yards and a 5-yard TD. In two games, he had guided the Huskers to scores on 11 of 14 possessions (nine touchdowns, two field goals).

The Rams, outweighed 58 pounds a man on the defensive line, tried to bother Nebraska by switching their defense from their normal 4-2-5 alignment to a 5-3 stack. "We had to audible some," Husker Coach Tom Osborne said. "I thought Keithen checked off intelligently and did a good job."

Colorado State, meanwhile, self-destructed on offense and defense. The 1-2 Rams' eight turnovers equaled the record against Nebraska (last done by Kansas State in 1979); they did not make a first down until their fourth possessions; they gave up 30 gains of 10 yards or more; and they saw seven of their players helped off the field with injuries.

The Husker defense, criticized the previous week for giving up 421 yards and 28 points to Utah State, held the Rams to 296 total yards, and CSU's two TDs both came against defenses featuring several second-teamers. The Blackshirts also got on the board themselves when strong safety Steve Carmer intercepted a Kevin Verdugo pass and returned it 34 yards for a TD that gave the Huskers a 57-7 lead with 6:54 left in the third quarter.

"I'm really proud of the defense," Osborne said. "The first time we really let up was the start of the second half when we started substituting."

Notes: The crowd of 76,379 marked the Huskers' 177th consecutive home sellout since 1962 . . . 98 Huskers played . . . the win was NU's 20th-straight at home vs. nonconference opponents . . . it was the 17th-straight year that Nebraska won the second game of the season; NU started 2-0 for the sixth-straight year.

Quote of the game: "I looked at (offensive tackle Brian) Boerboom toward the end of the third quarter and I told him, 'We're not going to be sitting here (on the bench) at this time next week.' He just kind of nodded and smiled."—Husker offensive tackle Erik Wiegert.

Game No. 3

Washington 36, Nebraska 21

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 21—Fourth-rated (AP) and eventual co-national champion Washington exploded for four touchdowns in the final 16 minutes to erase ninth-rated Nebraska's 21-9 lead and post a 36-21 win before 76,304 fans in Memorial Stadium and millions more on ABC-TV.

The Huskers struck first, scoring on a six-play, 76-yard drive on their second possession. Quarterback Keithen McCant started the drive by scrambling 16 yards to the NU 40 on third-and-10 and, after an 11-yard gain by I-back Derek Brown, hit split end Tyrone Hughes for a 22-yard pickup to the Washington 27.

On the next play, Brown took a pitchout around left end and sprinted into the end zone. The sophomore went on to carry 21 times for two touchdowns and 100 yards, the best individual effort against the Huskies in 1991.

Washington quarterback Billy Joe Hobert pulled the Huskies within 7-6 with a 9-yard TD run early in the second quarter, but UW failed to tie because of a bad snap on the PAT. Nebraska took a 14-6 lead with 3:40 left until halftime on McCant's 42-yard TD pass to split end Jon Bostick, who grew up in Bellevue, Wash., across Lake Washington from the UW campus.

The Huskies drove 51 yards to the NU 26 on their first possession of the second half and closed to 14-9 on Travis Hanson's 43-yard field goal with 12:27 left in the third.

Six-and-a-half minutes later, Washington's Beno Bryant fumbled a Mike Stigge punt at the UW 4-yard-line and NU's Mike Anderson recovered at the 2. On the first play, Brown pounded up the middle for his second TD and Nebraska had a 21-9 lead with 5:32 left in the third.

But that was it for the Huskers. Washington scored on its next four possessions to take the game away, going ahead for good at 22-21 on Hobert's 8-yard TD pass to Orlando McKay with 11:20 left, then applying the coup de grace on Jay Barry's 81-yard run for the final score of the game with 5:38 to go.

After Brown's second TD, Washington steamrolled to 292 yards and four scores, while the Huskie defense limited Nebraska to eight plays, 2 yards and no first downs on its next three possessions, and forced a McCant fumble which it recovered to set up the touchdown that made it 29-21. The Huskies finished with 618 total-offense yards, the third-most on record vs. Nebraska, behind 656 by Oklahoma in 1956 and 620 by Notre Dame in 1948.

Notes: It was Nebraska's 178th-straight home sellout since 1962 . . . Washington's win ended the Huskers' 20-game homefield win strings against nonconference opponents . . . the Huskies went on to finish 12-0 and split the national title with Miami (Fla.), the team that was to beat Nebraska in the 1992 Federal Express Orange Bowl.

Quote of the game: "This has got to be the best comeback I've ever been a part of. Coming back against a great team like Nebraska is really something."—Washington defensive tackle Steve Emtman, 1991 Outland/Lombardi winner, and No. 1 1992 NFL draft pick.

Nebraska 18, Arizona State 9

TEMPE, Ariz., Sept. 28—Nebraska's Blackshirt defensive unit came up with five fumble recoveries, two interceptions and four quarterback sacks, but the 16th-rated (AP) Cornhuskers needed all of that to rally for an 18-9 win over No. 24 Arizona State.

The struggling Husker offense managed to turn just two of those opportunities into scores and managed just 316 total offense yards, despite 135 rushing yards by sophomore I-back Derek Brown. Two turnovers deep in ASU territory two minutes apart in the fourth quarter resulted in field-goal attempts hitting the goal posts, first the right upright, then the left. Another two field-goal attempts were blocked by Sun Devil players.

An extra point attempt following the Huskers' first touchdown was also blocked by ASU, but NU tight end William Washington recovered the ball scored a 2-point conversion for an 8-0 Nebraska lead with early in the first quarter.

Arizona State pulled within 8-3 on Mike Richey's 37-yard field goal midway in the second period, then took advantage of one of its blocked kicks to take the lead in the third quarter. The Sun Devils' Arthur Paul blocked Byron Bennett's 53-yard attempt and Shante Carver returned the loose ball 11 yards to the Nebraska 43. On the second play, quarterback Bret Powers hit fullback Kelvin Fisher with a 39-yard pass to the 1, and tailback George Montgomery scored on the next play for a 9-8 lead with 11:35 left in the half.

After tackle John Parrella stopped Powers at the 1 on a 2-point conversion attempt, Nebraska drove 61 yards to the Sun Devil 11, where Bennett connected on a 28-yard field goal, and the Huskers regained the lead for good, 11-9 with 5:17 to go.

The Blackshirts then stopped Arizona State without a first down on its next five possessions, forcing two punts followed by three turnovers on consecutive snaps. The first turnover, when tackle Kevin Ramaekers recovered a Powers fumble at the ASU 23 early in the fourth quarter, set up the touchdown that iced the game.

Quarterback Keithen McCant ran for 12 yards and a first down at the 11, then Brown picked up 6 more. A holding penalty moved the ball back to the 19, but McCant connected on back-to-back passes, hitting Brown for 9 yards to the 10, and split end Jon Bostick for the TD with 12:04 left.

Bennett hit the uprights after ASU turned over at its 12- and 11-yard lines on its next two possessions, then, after the Devils had driven the NU 35 in the final six minutes, strong safety Steve Carmer intercepted Powers at the 29 and the Huskers managed to run out the final 5:23.

Notes: The win ended Nebraska's string of six-straight losses to ranked teams and kept the Huskers from losing back-to-back games for the first time since 1976.

Quote of the game: "It looked a little like Chicago Bear football, but we played well defensively. We were really concerned about defense after last week, and we really showed some ability on defense this week," said Osborne.

Game No. 5

Nebraska 49, Oklahoma State 15

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 12—Nebraska was almost picture-perfect in handing Oklahoma State a 49-15 loss in the Big Eight opener for both and remaining unbeaten against the Cowboys since 1962.

Start with senior quarterback Keithen McCant, who completed 17 of 19 passes for 231 yards and three touchdowns. His .895 completion percentage was second-best in school history (for a minimum of 10 attempts), his 233.2 passing efficiency was third on the NU charts, and his 17 completions were the most for a Husker passer in 152 games since Tom Sorley in the 1979 Orange Bowl.

"I wouldn't say he was flawless, but, boy, he audibled a lot and was right 95 percent of the time," Coach Tom Osborne said. "Keithen played very well."

Then go to sophomore I-back Derek Brown, who ran for 143 yards and three touchdowns on 18 carries, to become the first Husker to start a season with five-straight 100-yard games since Hall of Famer Bobby Reynolds in 1950.

Then check out the Huskers' Blackshirt defensive unit, which gave up just 354 total yards, including 127 by the reserves in the fourth quarter, when 0-5 Oklahoma State scored its only touchdown.

"When we put our top 11 out there, we're pretty good," Osborne said of the defense.

For the fourth time in five games, Nebraska, 4-1, scored on its first offensive possession, this time on a 34-yard pass from McCant to split end Tyrone Hughes.

The 14th-rated (AP) Huskers scored two more TDs to take a 21-0 lead midway in the second quarter before the Cowboys got on the board with a late first-half field goal. Then, after Nebraska went up 28-3 on an 8-yard McCant-to-tight end Johnny Mitchell TD pass early in the second half, OSU added a safety and another field goal to make it 28-8. Nebraska responded with 21 points in the first 1:59 of the fourth quarter and removed any doubts.

Osborne said Nebraska used its one-back offense extensively in order to neutralize Oklahoma State's blitzing defense.

"You can't send the strong safety and linebacker consistently against the one-back," he explained. "You've got to pull the strong safety out because of four quick receivers. We were able to throw well out of it."

Notes: The Huskers were ranked by the Associated Press for the 161st-straight week, breaking the old poll record for consecutivity of 160 weeks set by Michigan from 1968-80 . . . it was Nebraska's 16th-straight win in a conference opener . . . the Huskers beat the Cowboys for the 18th-straight year . . . free safety Tyrone Byrd had his ninth career pass interception to move into a tie for sixth on the Nebraska charts . . . Mitchell had his 10th career TD reception and the sophomore moved into 10th on that Nebraska chart.

Quote of the game: "He (Derek Brown) knocked the breath completely out of me today. He might be the best back in this league."—Oklahoma State Coach Pat Jones.

Game No. 6

Nebraska 38, Kansas State 31

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 19—The largest crowd ever to see the end of a Nebraska-Kansas State football game (virtually all of the 76,209 announced) held its collective breath.

Underdog Kansas State had just driven 62 yards to a first down at the Nebraska 11-yard-line with less than a minute to go. The Wildcats had led most of the game against the ninth-rated (AP) Huskers, but two fourth-quarter touchdowns by NU's Derek Brown had rallied the home team to a 38-31 lead.

Now, K-State faced fourth-down-and-6 at the Husker 7. Only 40 seconds remained.

Nebraska's Ed Stewart and Jamie Liewer forced Wildcat quarterback Paul Watson out of the pocket. Watson had already thrown for 340 yards in the game, and now he found tight end Russ Campbell open in the right flat, near the goal line. Campbell got both hands on the ball. But Nebraska linebacker Travis Hill had a hand on the ball, too, and ripped it away.

Nebraska had beaten Kansas State for the 23rd-straight year. But this victory had been decidedly tougher than nearly all of the preceding 22 in the string.

"You can forget the history of any of these games in the Big Eight," said Husker defensive coordinator Charlie McBride. "What we did was great. "We pulled out every ounce we had left in the tank. That's real football. You haven't seen many of these type of games around here."

Kansas State gave an indication that things were going to be different on its first series. Starting at their 24-yard-line, the Wildcats scored in 12 plays, taking a 7-0 lead on Watson's 7-yard TD pass to Michael Smith.

Nebraska bounced back to take a 14-7 lead by the end of the quarter on a 1-yard run by Brown and 32-yard run by quarterback Keithen McCant, and things seemed to be back to normal. But K-State got a field goal and another Watson-to-Smith TD pass in the second quarter for a 17-14 lead, and the Huskers weren't to lead again until Brown's third TD of the day with 2:47 left in the game.

After a 17-17 halftime tie, K-State went up 24-17 with 9:15 left in the third quarter, when safety C.J. Masters ripped the ball away from Husker fullback Lance Lewis and ran 40 yards to score. Minutes later, NU tied it at 24 on a 4-yard pass from McCant to tight end Johnny Mitchell, but the Wildcats regained the lead, 31-24, on a 3-yard run by Watson with 2:42 left in the third quarter, capping an eight-play, 79-yard drive and setting up all the fourth-quarter dramatics.

Notes: K-State's 31 points, 26 first downs, 452 total-offense yards were its all-time bests vs. NU . . . Brown had his sixth-straight 100-yard game (145, three TDs) . . . the sellout was Nebraska's 179th in a row at home.

Quote of the game: "I got a hand on it first. He got two hands on it, and I just pulled it out. Whew! I don't like them that close."—Nebraska linebacker Travis Hill.

Game No. 7

Nebraska 63, Missouri 6

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 26—Although it didn't look like it in the opening minutes, things were back to normal in Memorial Stadium as ninth-rated (AP) Nebraska smashed Missouri, 63-6, to set up a Big Eight showdown at Colorado the following Saturday.

Like what Kansas State had done in the previous week's nail-biter, Mizzou stopped Nebraska on its first offensive possession, then drove deep into Husker territory to take a 3-0 lead on Jeff Jacke's 42-yard field goal with 11:36 left in the first quarter.

But, unlike K-State, which battled NU all the way to the end in a 38-31 loss, the Tigers were never in it again. Nebraska roared to three touchdowns for a 21-3 lead at the end of the first quarter, and averaged 13.5 yards per offensive play in the three drives. The Huskers, 5-1 overall, 3-0 in the Big Eight, went on to score touchdowns on eight-straight possessions and handed Missouri its fifth-worst loss ever.

By halftime Nebraska had a 42-6 lead, with 398 total-offense yards, and the Huskers went on to accumulate 681 in the game, including 511 on the ground.

Quarterback Keithen McCant was the instigator of much of the offense, as he accumulated 268 total yards and accounted for four TDs before a shoulder bruise sidelined him with 10:23 left in the third quarter. McCant completed nine of 13 passes for 144 yards and three scores while rushing for a career- and game-high 124 yards and a TD on nine carries. He would win Big Eight offensive player-of-the-week honors for the performance.

I-back Derek Brown chipped in 118 yards and two TDs on 18 carries, to extend his string of 100-yard games to seven, the third-longest in Husker annals.

The option series was open all day to Nebraska and the Huskers took advantage of it. Through the first three quarters, NU ran outside 19 times for 211 yards, averaging 11.1 yards per play.

Of the nine touchdown drives to the 63 points, the Huskers had six of at least 60 yards, with five of over 70 yards and two over 80.

The defense, meanwhile, held Missouri's 25-point-a-game offense without a touchdown. The Blackshirts yielded 261 yards (77 rushing, 184 passing), equaling their season low at the time, and forced three turnovers, all of which turned into touchdowns.

Notes: It was Nebraska's 13th-straight win over Missouri dating to a 35-31 loss in Lincoln in 1978 . . . the Huskers used a season-high 109 players . . . I-back Scott Baldwin returned to action for the first time since suffering knee and ankle injuries while scoring the Huskers' first TD of the season against Utah State, Sept. 7; he carried five times for 28 yards, and scored Nebraska's eighth touchdown on a 1-yard run in the third quarter—but dislocated a shoulder while scoring the TD . . . Mizzou fell to 1-2 in the Big Eight, 3-3-1 overall.

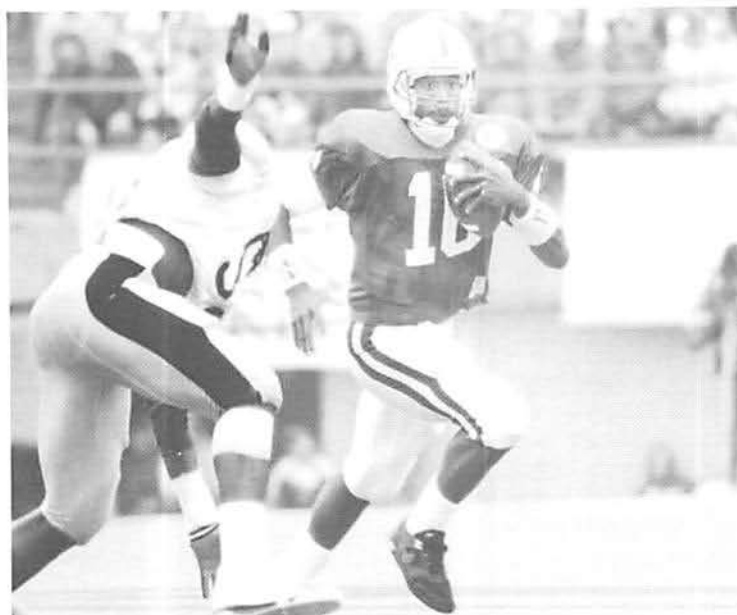

Quote of the game: "The option was pretty much there whenever we wanted it."—Nebraska quarterback Keithen McCant.

Game No. 8

Nebraska 19, Colorado 19

BOULDER, Colo., Nov. 2—Colorado free safety Greg Thomas leaped into the air and, accompanied by a barrage of snowballs, blocked Byron Bennett's attempt to win the game for Nebraska with a 41-yard field-goal on the last play of the game.

And, when the ball rolled out of bounds as time ran out, Nebraska and Colorado had finished in a 19-19 deadlock in their Big Eight showdown at the Buffaloes' frozen Folsom Field.

There was some measure of satisfaction in the tie for both teams. For Nebraska, the Huskers overcame a disappointing first half with a dominating second half to get into position to win, despite playing on the road in sub-zero wind chills. For two-time conference champ Colorado, the blocked field goal kept Nebraska from putting itself in the driver's seat for the Big Eight title.

In the first half, Nebraska managed just four first downs and 10 net rushing yards. The Huskers passed for 87 in the first 30 minutes, but 38 of those came on the first play of the game, Keithen McCant-to-Johnny Mitchell to set up a 27-yard Bennett field goal for a 3-0 lead. The other came on a 49-yard McCant-to-Jon Bostick TD pass to cut CU's lead to 10-9 1:17 before halftime. In between the two completions, McCant misfired on seven in a row.

But Nebraska failed to tie the game when CU's Jeff Brunner blocked Bennett's PAT kick, and teammate Greg Biekert picked up the loose ball and ran it back 85 yards to give the Buffs a 12-9 halftime lead.

The Huskers drove from their 14 to the Colorado 17 on their first possession of the second half to tie at 12 on Bennett's 35-yard field goal, but the Buffs came right back and drove 68 yards to regain the lead, 19-12, on Darian Hagan's 4-yard run with 27 seconds left in the third quarter.

After that, it was almost all Nebraska as the Huskers had six first downs to one and outyarded the Buffs, 127-24, the rest of the way. One of nine on third-down conversions in the first three quarters, NU was four of six in the fourth.

I-back Derek Brown, held to 4 yards on 10 rushes in the first half, ran for 92 in second half, including 54 in the fourth, when he scored the tying touchdown on a 7-yard run with 6:41 left.

After an exchange of punts, Nebraska got the ball back at its 46 with 1:05 left, and McCant guided the Huskers to the CU 23 and called time-out with 4 seconds left. Bennett trotted onto the field, but had to wait through three Colorado time-outs before getting to kick, and Thomas ended the Huskers' victory hopes.

Notes: The tie for Nebraska was its first in 191 games since 1976 . . . Brown failed to get 100 rushing yards for the first times in eight games, finishing with 96, but became Nebraska's 11th 1,000-yard rusher (1,033), the fifth to do so as a sophomore.

Quote of the game: "This was just like kissing your sister on a cold, cold, cold night. No satisfaction in that . . . but maybe a game like this should end up in a tie."—Colorado nose tackle Jeff Brunner.

Game No. 9

Nebraska 59, Kansas 23

LAWRENCE, Kan., Nov. 9—Things couldn't have look much darker for 11th-rated (AP) Nebraska than they did early in the second quarter at Kansas' Memorial Stadium. The Cornhuskers trailed the upstart Jayhawks, 17-0, and star I-back Derek Brown had just gone to the bench for good because of blurred vision.

But then along came Jones.

Redshirt freshman I-back Calvin Jones charged off the bench to rewrite the Nebraska and Big Eight record books and ignite the Huskers to a 59-23 victory that kept them unbeaten in the Big Eight at 4-0-1 and raised their season record to 7-1-1.

When it was over, Jones had rushed for a Nebraska record of 294 yards on 27 carries, and scored a Big Eight-record six touchdowns for another record of 36 points—all in less than three quarters of play.

Jones broke the old NU rushing record of 285 by Heisman Trophy-winner Mike Rozier against Kansas in 1983, and tied the school record for touchdowns in a game originally done by Bill Chaloupka against Doane in 1907 and tied by Harvey Rathbone against Peru State and Haskell in 1911. In those days, touchdowns counted only five points, so Jones' 36 points were a school record.

Jones' six TDs broke the modern-day Big Eight record of five done five times previously, by Oklahoma Heisman winner Steve Owens, vs. Nebraska, in 1968; by Terry Miller of Oklahoma State in 1976; by OSU Heisman winner Barry Sanders twice in 1988; and by Iowa State's Joe Henderson in 1988.

The Husker rookie also had a 4-yard pass reception, giving him 298 all-purpose yards, breaking the old NU record of 289 by Rick Berns vs. Missouri in 1978.

Jones scored on runs of 3, 47, 9, 1, 68 and 12 yards, and it was his third TD, with 8:46 left in the third quarter that finally put Nebraska ahead, 24-23. His final TD made it 45-23 with 10:41 left in the game and boosted his rushing total to 276 yards. He returned for the next series, alternating with No. 3 I-back George Achola. He carried once for 8 yards, then lost 2, before breaking the record with a 6-yard run up the middle and adding another 6-yard gain just to make sure.

The performance was all the more remarkable because it came against a Kansas defense that going into the game ranked 14th nationally in total defense at 284 yards per game.

Notes: A full list of Jones' Nebraska and Big Eight records can be found in his biographical sketch elsewhere in this guide . . . his 294 yards are the second-most ever for a freshman in NCAA history . . . for a school-record third-straight game, Nebraska did not have a turnover . . . the loss dropped Kansas to 2-3 in the Big Eight, 5-4 overall . . . it was the Huskers' 23rd-straight win over the Jayhawks.

Quote of the game: "We don't normally make concessions to records, but this was special. We wanted to make sure he got it."—Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne.

Game No. 10

Nebraska 38, Iowa State 13

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 16—After slow starts in each of the two previous games, 11th-rated (AP) Nebraska came out smoking against Iowa State, scoring on each of its first four possessions to take a 24-0 lead midway in the second quarter on its way to a 38-13 win.

"We didn't want what happened last week to happen again," said offensive guard Erik Wiegert. "We really wanted to get off to a good start."

The game was barely two minutes old when the Huskers scored their first TD, on a 1-yard run by quarterback Keithen McCant, with the big play in the 82-yard drive a 49-yard pass from McCant to tight end Johnny Mitchell that carried to the ISU 3.

Nebraska then drove from its 12 to the Cyclone 18 and settled for a 35-yard Byron Bennett field goal and a 10-0 lead. The Huskers scored again early in the second quarter on a 4-yard run by I-back Calvin Jones, set up by a 42-yard run by McCant and a 26-yard run by I-back Derek Brown.

NU made it 24-0 with a lightning drive, moving 80 yards in two plays, a 25-yard run by Jones and a 55-yard TD pass from McCant to split end Jon Bostick.

The Cyclones cut it to 24-6 at halftime on a 1-yard TD run by Kevin Caldwell in the final minute of the half, set up by James McMillion's 55-yard punt return to the Husker 1.

Nebraska scored on its first possession of the second half to increase its lead to 31-6 on a 32-yard TD run by Brown. The Cyclones closed to 31-13 on Caldwell's 11-yard run early in the fourth quarter, but Jones iced the game for Nebraska with a 61-yard score with 6:45 left.

"I think at the half we wanted to gain control and momentum, and we did that, and that seemed to be good enough," Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne said. "Then, we substituted and from the middle of the third quarter on we, didn't look sharp."

The win upped Nebraska's record to 8-1-1 overall and 5-0-1 in the Big Eight, putting the Huskers within one win of their first trip to the Orange Bowl in three years. Iowa State fell to 3-6-1 and 1-4-1.

For the only time all season, Brown and Jones both topped 100 yards rushing in the same game, Brown finishing with 107 yards on 15 carries and Jones with 121 on nine.

Notes: When the Huskers lost a fumble in the fourth quarter, it was NU's first turnover in 16 quarters, a span which encompassed an even 300 offensive plays and 30 returns . . . the win was Nebraska's 14th in a row over Iowa State . . . the crowd of 76,078 marked NU's 181st consecutive home sellout since 1962 . . . cornerback Tyrone Legette broke up his eighth pass of the season, tying a school record.

Quote of the game: "I've never seen a team score so many points from so far out so often. I mean, if it gets any bigger play than this, I'm going to quit coaching."—Iowa State Coach Jim Walden.

Game No. 11

Nebraska 19, Oklahoma 14

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 29—Freshman I-back Calvin Jones' 15-yard touchdown run with 2:57 left in the game capped Nebraska's rally from a 14-0 first-half deficit and gave the 11th-rated (AP) Cornhuskers a 19-14 win over No. 19 Oklahoma.

It gave Nebraska a share of the Big Eight title with Colorado at 6-0-1 and sent the Cornhuskers to the Federal Express Orange Bowl because of a higher national ranking and better overall record than the Buffaloes. And it sent a large portion of the 76,386 rain-soaked, delirious fans onto the field toward the goal posts.

Jones' run also capped one of the most dramatic drives in years in Memorial Stadium. The Huskers had crawled back within 14-13 on Byron Bennett's 33-yard field goal with 12:20 left, then forced a Sooner punt and got the ball back at the NU 20 with 7:08 to play.

The Huskers drove the 80 yards in 10 plays, with Jones carrying nine times for 78 yards, including the biggest play of the game—a 4-yard gain on fourth-and-1 at the OU 19 with 3:08 left. He scored on the next play.

"The linemen didn't give me any opportunity but to get the first down," Jones said. "They blocked a hole you could have driven a garbage truck through."

Guilty of just one turnover in the previous four games, the Huskers suddenly developed fumblyitis in the 32-degree, rain- and windswept day, turning the ball over three times in the first 12 minutes to spot the Sooners the lead.

OU took advantage of a bobbled opening kickoff and a short punt to drive 33 yards for its first TD, then, after Husker quarterback Keithen McCant threw his first interception in five games, the Sooners drove 31 yards for their second score.

But Nebraska dominated after that, holding the Sooners to 93 total offense yards and six first downs the rest of the way, while the Huskers picked up 356 yards and 19 first downs themselves in the last 45 minutes.

A Bennett field goal cut it to 14-3 at halftime, then Nebraska drove 70 yards to score after taking the second-half kickoff, McCant getting the TD from 5 yards out to make the score 14-10. On the Huskers' next possession, they drove to the Sooner 1, but I-back Derek Brown was thrown for a loss on fourth down. NU was not to be denied again, though, as the Huskers got Bennett's second field goal and Jones' winning TD on their next two possessions.

Notes: For the 22nd time in the last 28 games in the series, the winning team had to come from behind . . . Jones' TD allowed him to become the first freshman ever to lead the Big Eight in scoring (8.40 ppg) . . . sophomore Johnny Mitchell caught an NU tight-record seven passes for 137 yards.

Quote of the game: "When you make up 14 points in this kind of weather against this kind of defense in this kind of game and win . . . that was excellent."—Nebraska middle guard Pat Engelbert.

The Bowls

Huskers' 23-Year Bowl String is Nation's Longest

When Alabama did not receive a bowl bid at the end of the 1984 season, Nebraska took over from the Crimson Tide as the school with the longest current string of consecutive bowl appearances. Alabama had appeared in 25-straight bowl games, still an NCAA record dating back to the inaugural Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia in 1959, but the Tide slipped in 1984 and did not get a bowl bid. Nebraska, under first Bob Devaney, then Tom Osborne, has appeared in a bowl game in 23 consecutive seasons, starting with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl.

1941 Rose Bowl Stanford 21, Nebraska 13

Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1, 1941—Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a post-season bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all—The Rose Bowl.

Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the two. Stanford tied the count four plays later when Hugh Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out.

In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig to-Alan Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter. The 92,000 fans on hand still represent the largest crowd ever to see Nebraska play.

1955 Orange Bowl Duke 34, Nebraska 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1955—If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, it's second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule.

Making their first bowl appearance in 14 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half, 14-0, but pulled within 14-7 early in the third quarter after a minus 2-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke. Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

1962 Gotham Bowl Nebraska 36, Miami, Fla. 34

New York, Dec. 15, 1962—Playing under Coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in the second and last of New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in sub-freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter.

Willie Ross' 1-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thornton's subsequent two-point run gave the Huskers' the lead for good, 36-27, with 12:10 left. Mira, who passed for 321 yards, led a valiant comeback attempt, but was thwarted by a last-minute interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

1964 Orange Bowl Nebraska 13, Auburn 7

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1964—Nebraska made its second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries.

Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen broke another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead.

Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go to preserve the win for Nebraska.

1965 Cotton Bowl Arkansas 10, Nebraska 7

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1965—Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history.

Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McKnelly field goal in the first quarter. But sophomore Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Razorbacks held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

1966 Orange Bowl Alabama 39, Nebraska 28

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1966—With the national championship riding on the line, Coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third, Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national-title game in the Orange Bowl.

Playing in the first night bowl game ever, 'Bama won the title 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and make the final score respectable.

1967 Sugar Bowl Alabama 34, Nebraska 7

New Orleans, La., Jan. 2, 1967—Never ones to duck a challenge, Coach Bob Devaney and his Cornhuskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping.

The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparkled again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 20, 1969—Golden-toed Paul Rogers booted a Sun Bowl-record four field goals—all in the first quarter—and Coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl.

Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomore I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109 yards.

After two years away from the bowl scene, the Sun Bowl started a run of 22-straight bowl appearances for the Huskers.

1971 Orange Bowl Nebraska 17, Louisiana State 12

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1971—Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances.

Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17, in the Rose. That left the door to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a 3-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead.

1972 Orange Bowl Nebraska 38, Alabama 6

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1972—It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century," rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide was No. 2 and the OB had a dream game for a little less than a quarter.

The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1. Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving Nebraska a second-straight national title and Coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama Coach Bear Bryant.

1973 Orange Bowl Nebraska 40, Notre Dame 6

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1973—Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come.

"Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his 50 career TDs (including bowls) by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to pay dirt.

1974 Cotton Bowl Nebraska 19, Texas 3

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1974—Tom Osborne's Nebraska's Cornhuskers broke open a tight contest in the third quarter with a pair of game-breaker plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big Eight's runner-up and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn 1-yard-line stand just before the gun.

But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdown. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays after that Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring.

Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

1974 Sugar Bowl Nebraska 13, Florida 10

New Orleans, La., Dec. 31, 1974—Rallying from a 10-0 deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the fourth quarter to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers' sixth straight bowl victory.

From the very start, it was an uphill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Black shirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-Back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and the score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Davis set up Coyle's two deciding field goals with inspired running as he picked up 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's Most Valuable Player, an award which he had also received in the Cotton Bowl the previous year. Coyle tied the score on a 37-yard boot with 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, his 39-yard kick gave the Huskers their sixth-consecutive post-season win.

1975 Fiesta Bowl Arizona State 17, Nebraska 14

Tempe, Ariz., Dec. 26, 1975—Nebraska's record-tying six-game bowl win streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 partisan fans on ASU's home field.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, breaking a 14-14 tie and capping a rally from a 14-6 deficit after three quarters.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31 yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers first two plays from there were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21 yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1-ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2-ranked Sun Devils.

1976 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl Nebraska 27, Texas Tech 24

Houston, Texas, Dec. 31, 1976 —In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged past a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome 10-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an eight-yard TD run to put Nebraska down 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers then took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito—who gained 107 yards in three catches to earn most-valuable-lineman honors in the game—for a 23-yard touchdown pass. That score, which would prove to be the winning touchdown, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

The final score was in doubt until defensive end Reg Gast recovered a Red Raider fumble with 1:34 left in the game, killing a Tech threat and allowing Nebraska to run out the clock.

1977 Liberty Bowl Nebraska 21, North Carolina 17

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 19, 1977—Quarterback Randy Garcia came off the bench in the fourth quarter to throw two touchdown passes to rally Nebraska from a 17-7 fourth-quarter deficit to a 21-17 win over North Carolina in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Garcia, who replaced starter Tom Sorley, first hit wingback Curtis Craig with a 10-yard touchdown pass (a sensational diving catch) with 10:51 left to cut the Husker deficit to 17-14, then threw a 34-yard scoring pass to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game to cap a rally that frustrated UNC's upset hopes.

The Tar Heels drew first blood early in the second quarter on a 12-yard scoring pass from Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams. Then, after the Huskers had tied the game at 7-7 on a 15-yard touchdown run by fullback Dodie Donnell, Kupec threw a 10-yard scoring pass to fullback Bob Loomis late in the half, giving North Carolina a 14-7 halftime lead.

Carolina upped its lead to 17-7 late in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Tom Biddle and the Tar Heels appeared to have the game well in control until Garcia's heroics brought NU back.

1979 Orange Bowl Oklahoma 31, Nebraska 24

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1979 —In the first-ever matchup of Big Eight teams in a bowl game, Nebraska just missed duplicating its 17-14 win over Oklahoma several weeks earlier in losing to the Sooners 31-24, in the 45th annual Orange Bowl.

Nebraska got off to a fast start in trying for an unprecedented double over OU, driving 80 yards in 15 plays after the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead on Tom Sorley's 21-yard touchdown pass to Tim Smith. But the Huskers then watched the revenge-minded Sooners score 24 unanswered points.

Nebraska's rally started with 9:12 left in the game when I-back Rick Berns capped a 78-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run that reduced the deficit to 31-17. A little over a minute later, defensive tackle David Clark recovered quarterback Thomas Lott's fumble at the OU 42 and the Huskers were definitely back in the game. Oklahoma's defense yielded 35 yards to the seven, but rose up to stop I-back Craig Johnson on fourth-and-one with 4:24 to go—virtually sealing the win, although the Huskers marched 58 yards in 10 plays to score on a 2-yard pass from Sorley to Junior Miller on the final play of the game.

1980 Cotton Bowl Houston 17, Nebraska 14

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 1, 1980 —Reserve quarterback Terry Elston threw a 6-yard fourth-down touchdown pass to Eric Herring with just 12 seconds left in the game as Houston handed Nebraska a heart-breaking 17-14 loss in the 44th Cotton Bowl game—another in a six-year string of incredible finishes in Husker bowl games.

Before a CBS-TV national audience and 72,032 on hand in Dallas' famous oval, the Huskers and Cougars battled tooth-and-nail for a full 60 minutes, and the goal-line situation at the end was a fitting finale.

Nebraska struck first as I-back Jarvis Redwine scored on a 9-yard run late in the first period, but Houston came back to tie, 7-7, at halftime on an 8-yard Elston run early in the second period.

After a scoreless third period, Southwest Conference champion Houston took its first lead of the game, 10-7, on a 41-yard field goal by Ken Hatfield with 8:25 left in the game. The Huskers made little headway against the Cougar defense in the second half, but took advantage of a Houston fumble to drive 31 yards in six plays to take a 14-10 lead on Jeff Quinn's 6-yard touchdown pass with 3:56 left.

The next 3:44 were all Terry Elston, though, as the junior accounted for all but 11 yards in the Cougars' winning 66-yard drive himself, completing 5-of-7 passes for 45 yards (three for crucial first downs) and rushing three times for 10 yards.

1980 Sun Bowl Nebraska 31, Mississippi State 17

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27, 1980 —A great passing performance by senior Jeff Quinn and a stout defensive effort enabled Nebraska to enjoy a successful return to the Sun Bowl by dawning Mississippi State 31-17.

The Huskers drew first blood just 2:30 into the game when—on the first play after MSU's Mardye McDole fumbled a Nebraska punt—split end Todd Brown scored on a 23-yard end-around. NU added 10 points in the second quarter—on a 22-yard Kevin Seibel field goal and an 8-yard Quinn to Jeff Finn pass—to take a 17-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

MSU finally scored in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal and appeared to be gaining momentum when Husker defensive end Jimmy Williams recovered a fumble at the Bulldog 25 to set up a 2-yard TD run by Andra Franklin. The Huskers iced the game with a 52-yard Quinn to Tim McCrady pass late in the game. For their efforts, Williams and Quinn were named the outstanding players of the 1980 Sun Bowl.

1982 Orange Bowl Clemson 22, Nebraska 15

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1982 —Coach Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers went into their 13th consecutive bowl game hoping New Year's magic would work the same wonders for them as it had for their Big Red counterparts 11 years earlier—and for a while, it looked like it would. First, Texas toppled No. 3 Alabama, 14-12, in the Cotton Bowl, and while fourth-ranked Nebraska battled top-ranked Clemson, Pitt was knocking off No. 2 Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, leaving it up to the Huskers and Tigers to settle the national title.

The dream of a third championship in 12 years was not to be for the Huskers, though, as their own errors, plus standout performances by Clemson quarterback Homer Jordan and the Tiger defense gave the South Carolina school its first national title and a 12-0 season with a 22-15 victory.

The Tigers scored first on a 41-yard Donald Igwebuike field goal to take a 3-0 lead, but Nebraska came back with a bit of razzle-dazzle and took a 7-3 lead midway in the first quarter on a 25-yard TD pass from I-back Mike Rozier to wingback Anthony Steels.

For the next two-and-a-half quarters, it was almost all Clemson as the opportunistic Tigers took advantage of Husker errors to score 19 unanswered points and take a 22-7 lead after three periods. Early in the fourth quarter, the Huskers came back on a 26-yard TD run and a two-point conversion by Roger Craig, cutting the margin to 22-15, but an eighth untimely penalty stopped another promising drive moments later and the elusive Jordan ate up all but six seconds of the last 5:24.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1983—The 1983 Orange Bowl game between Nebraska and Louisiana State started out like the one-sided contest the oddsmakers had predicted. The Husker defense held the Tigers to three yards on three plays after the opening kickoff, forcing a punt, then the NU offense drove 51 yards in six plays to take a 7-0 lead on Mark Schellen's 2-yard run 4:03 into the game.

At that point, however, Murphy's Law went into effect. On the first play after Toby Williams intercepted an LSU pass at the Husker 7, Nebraska fumbled the ball away to set up a tying Tiger TD. The Huskers then fumbled the ball away at the LSU 15, forced a punt, and fumbled it at their own 45 to set up another Tiger TD. A fake punt then went awry, LSU forced another punt, and the Huskers threw an interception, and were thankful to be down only 14-7 at halftime.

The second half didn't start out any better as NU missed a field goal, then fumbled again to set up a field goal that gave LSU a 17-7 lead. But once down 10 points, the Husker offense came alive, driving 80 yards in 12 plays to score on an 11-yard pass from Turner Gill to Mike Rozier, and going 47 yards in seven plays to finally regain the lead, 21-17, early in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard run by Gill.

A dropped pass on a faked field goal prevented another score, and another interception set up an LSU field goal that cut the margin to 21-20, but the Husker offense sealed the win eating up the final 5:05.

1984 Orange Bowl Miami, Fla., 31, Nebraska 30

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1984—In one of the most exciting bowl games ever played, fourth-ranked Miami overcame Nebraska rallies from 17- and 14-point deficits and took the national championship away from the Huskers when strong safety Ken Calhoun knocked Turner Gill's two-point PAT pass out of Jeff Smith's hands with 48 seconds left in the game, preserving a 31-30 home-field win in the 50th Orange Bowl. The Miami win snapped a 22-game win string for Nebraska and, for the second time in three years, Husker national-title hopes died on the Orange Bowl turf.

Behind rifle-armed freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the 'Canes jumped to an easy 17-0 first-quarter lead and never trailed. The Huskers rallied to score two second-quarter touchdowns, then tied the game early in the second half on a Scott Livingston field goal, but Miami scored twice in a five minute span later in the third period to put the visitors in a 31-17 hole.

Things looked blackest for Nebraska four plays after Miami's last score when Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier left the game for good with a badly-bruised ankle, but junior I-back Jeff Smith came in to rush for 99 yards and two touchdowns, the second a 24-yarder on fourth-and-eight, to get the Huskers within 31-30. Coach Tom Osborne then eschewed the PAT kick (and a tie that would have assured Nebraska the national title) and decided to go for it all but, thanks to Calhoun, Gill and Smith came up just short.

1985 Sugar Bowl Nebraska 28, Louisiana State 10

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1985—Senior quarterback Craig Sundberg closed out his career in grand style as he led the Huskers back from a 10-0 first-half deficit to a 28-10 win over Louisiana State in the 51st annual Sugar Bowl.

Fired-up LSU scored on two of its first three possessions to grab the early lead, but after a rocky start, the Sundberg-led Nebraska offense roared to life to put 28 unanswered points on the board. Two of the Huskers' four touchdowns were set up by a defense that forced six Tiger turnovers, five of them interceptions, including four off LSU starting quarterback Jeff Wickersham.

Sophomore I-back Doug DuBose helped spark Nebraska with a 102-yard rushing effort but it was Sundberg who provided most of the punch and was named the game's most valuable player. Starting for the first time since arm trouble knocked him out of the starting lineup at mid-season, Sundberg completed 10 of 15 passes for 143 yards, threw for three touchdowns and ran for the go-ahead score himself on a 9-yard sprint 6:46 into the second half. Sundberg's three TD passes tied a Nebraska bowl record. Two of those scoring tosses went to tight end Todd Frain, tying another NU bowl mark.

1986 Fiesta Bowl Michigan 27, Nebraska 23

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1986—After building a 14-3 halftime lead, Nebraska self-destructed in the third quarter and was never able to recover completely in dropping a 27-23 decision to Michigan in the Sunlist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers used a pair of second-quarter touchdowns by I-back Doug DuBose to take the lead, but a fumble on the third play of the second half set up a 21-yard Wolverine touchdown drive that cut the NU margin to 14-10. Nebraska fumbled it away again on the second play after the ensuing kickoff, setting up a 38-yard touchdown drive that put Michigan up for good, 17-14.

Nebraska's next drive stalled after one first down, and the Wolverines blocked Dan Wingard's punt, recovering it at the NU 6-yard line. The Nebraska defense held, and a 19-yard Pat Moons field goal made it 20-14, Michigan, after 8:18 of the second half. Later in the period, the Maize and Blue took advantage of two pass interference penalties to score another touchdown to build what proved to be an insurmountable 27-14 lead.

1987 USF&G Sugar Bowl Nebraska 30, Louisiana State 15

New Orleans, La., Jan. 1, 1987—Louisiana State had a 66-yard touchdown drive in the first three minutes of the contest and another 66-yard touchdown drive in the last three minutes of the game. But in between, Nebraska completely dominated the Tigers, running off 30 unanswered points and posting a 30-15 win in the USF&G Sugar Bowl, the Huskers' 25th bowl appearance.

Between those two Tiger drives, Nebraska out-yarded LSU, 352-62, and had a first-down advantage of 22-3 as the Huskers made a remarkable recovery from a disheartening loss to Oklahoma at the end of the regular season. It was Nebraska's fourth bowl win over LSU in as many tries and the third in five years.

Steve Taylor became the second Nebraska quarterback in three years to win the Miller-Digby Trophy as the Sugar Bowl MVP. He completed 11 of 19 passes for 110 yards and one touchdown, and rushed 20 times for 63 yards and another score. Of Taylor's 173 total offensive yards, 90 came in two drives in which the Huskers went from a 7-3 deficit to a 17-7 lead.

1988 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl Florida State 31, Nebraska 28

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1988—Florida State quarterback Danny McManus hit flanker Ronald Lewis with a 15-yard, fourth-down touchdown pass with 3:07 left in the game to give Florida State a 31-28 win over Nebraska in the 17th Fiesta Bowl. McManus' third touchdown pass of the afternoon capped a 97-yard touchdown drive by the Seminoles, who had taken over at their 3 with 6:58 to go when a fumble kept the Huskers from putting the game away.

It was a frustrating day for Nebraska, which jumped to a 14-0 first-quarter lead on a short drive set up by a Richard Bell punt return, and a 52-yard punt return touchdown by Dana Brinson. The Husker defense held FSU to just 82 yards on the ground, 28 by standout tailback Sammie Smith, but McManus threw for 375 yards, his career high by an even 100 yards. He was named offensive player-of-the-game, while Husker tackle Neil Smith was named the top defensive player.

Even after Florida State took the late lead, the Huskers almost rallied, but Steve Taylor's 58-yard pass to Morgan Gregory, which carried to the Seminole 2, was called back because of a penalty.

1989 Orange Bowl Miami, Fla., 23, Nebraska 3

Miami, Fla., Jan. 2, 1989—Second-ranked Miami's quickness, particularly on defense, proved to be too much for sixth-ranked Nebraska as the Hurricanes dominated the Huskers to the tune of 23-3 in the 55th Orange Bowl Classic. Despite the win and a final 11-1-0 record, the Hurricanes were unable to lay claim to a second-straight national title due to undefeated Notre Dame's 34-21 Fiesta Bowl win over West Virginia earlier in the day.

Although the Nebraska defense held the Miami offense to 354 total-offense yards, nearly 100 under its season average, the Huskers never could get untracked against the Hurricanes' second-ranked defense. After leading the nation in rushing at 382.3 yards per game during the regular season, NU managed only 80 yards rushing against Miami, and finished with 10 first downs. Nebraska needed a career-long 50-yard field goal by Gregg Barrios to capitalize on its only serious scoring threat. Early in the third quarter, Tahaun Lewis picked off a Steve Walsh pass and returned it 31 yards to the Miami 37. But after Ken Clark gained 16 yards to the 21, Steve Taylor was sacked for a 13-yard loss, and the Huskers had to settle for Barrios' field goal, which prevented Nebraska's first shutout since the 1973 season.

1990 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl Florida State 41, Nebraska 17

Tempe, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1990—Fifth-ranked Florida State rode the arm of quarterback Peter Tom Willis and the talents of a bevy of quick, talented receivers to a 41-17 win over sixth-ranked Nebraska in the 19th Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers had the lead twice in the first half, 7-0 after driving 69 yards for a touchdown on their first possession (helped by 41-yard Mike Stigge-to-Mark Dowse pass on a fake punt), and 10-7 on a Chris Drennan field goal early in the second period.

From then on, it was all FSU. The Seminoles scored touchdowns on five of their next seven possessions to build a commanding 41-10 lead at the end of three quarters. In the process, Willis had the best passing day ever against Nebraska, completing 25 of 40 for 422 yards and five touchdowns. The yardage topped the previous high vs. the Huskers of 375 by the Seminoles' Danny McManus in the 1988 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, and the five TD passes were also the most-ever against NU.

For the second-straight year, the Huskers faced a bowl opponent which was probably the best team in the nation, but which had virtually no hope of winning the national title due to untimely defeats early in the season. Florida State lost its first two games in 1989 to Southern Mississippi and Clemson, then roared back to win its last 10, including 24-10 over eventual No. 1 Miami.

1991 Florida Citrus Bowl Georgia Tech 45 Nebraska 21

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 1, 1991—Despite a second-quarter rally, Nebraska was unable to overcome a 21-0 deficit as the Huskers fell to undefeated Georgia Tech, 45-21, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The Yellow Jackets finished 11-0-1 with the victory and edged Colorado for the UPI national title, while the Buffaloes, who had beaten NU, 27-12, in November, claimed the AP crown.

Two freshmen gave Husker fans a ray of hope after Tech took its three-TD lead. All-Big Eight tight end Johnny Mitchell hauled in a 30-yard TD pass from Tom Haase, then I-back Derek Brown sprinted 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-14 with 5:07 left in the half. But that was as close as Nebraska would get, and runningback William Bell's two fourth-quarter TDs sealed the Husker's fate.

Mitchell finished the game with five receptions for an NU bowl-record 138 yards, while Brown rushed for 99 yards, and Haase came off the bench to complete 14 of 21 passes for 209 yards and two TDs.

Miami, Fla., Jan. 1, 1992—No. 1-ranked Miami, playing on its home field for at least a share of its fourth national title in nine years, used overwhelming team speed and a smothering defense to blank Nebraska, 22-0. It was the Cornhuskers' first shutout defeat in 221 games since the 1973 season.

The win left the Hurricanes 12-0 on the season and (as it turned out) with a split national title with a 12-0 Washington team that had beaten Nebraska, 36-21, at Lincoln in September. The Hurricanes were No. 1 in the writers poll (Associated Press), while the Huskies claimed the top spot in the coaches poll (USA Today/CNN). It was the second-straight year for a split national title, and, for the second-straight year, Nebraska, 9-2-1, lost to both teams involved, having been defeated by Colorado and Georgia Tech the season before.

Miami's domination vs. NU might best be illustrated by the Huskers' 82 rushing yards—after they had won the NCAA rushing title in the regular season at 353.2 yards per game.

Nebraska two-time All-America running back Mike Rozier out-distanced BYU quarterback Steve Young in the 1983 Heisman Trophy race, becoming the second Cornhusker to win the award.

All-America wingback Johnny Rodgers won the 38th annual Heisman award in 1972, defeating Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt and Husker teammate Rich Glover.

The Heisman Trophy has been presented by the New York Downtown Athletic Club each year since 1935 when Jay Berwanger of the University of Chicago won the inaugural award given to the outstanding college football player in the United States as selected by over 1,000 sportswriters and sportscasters across the nation.

With Rozier winning the Heisman and Dean Steinkuhler sweeping the Lombardi and Outland line-man awards in 1983, Nebraska is the only school to ever sweep all three major honors, and the Cornhuskers have done it twice—1972 with Rodgers and Rich Glover and in 1983 with Rozier and Steinkuhler.

The 1-3 finish of Rodgers and Glover in the 1972 Heisman voting was the best teammate finish since Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard of Army went 2-3 in 1944, then 1-2 in 1945 and 1-4 in 1946.

Outland & Lombardi Awards

Huskers have won the most

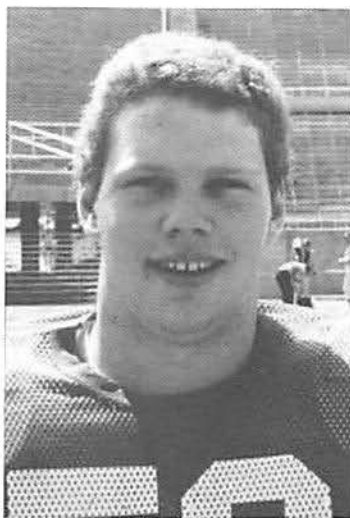

Nebraska players have won more Outlands (five) and more Lombardis (three) than those of any other school. The Huskers' closest competition comes from Oklahoma, with four Outland and two Lombardi winners; and Notre Dame, Ohio State and Texas, with two Lombardi winners each.

All-America offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler swept national honors in 1983 winning both the Outland Award and the Lombardi Trophy.

In winning the Outland, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America, Steinkuhler brought Nebraska the distinction of being the only school ever to win the prestigious award three consecutive years. And in winning the Lombardi he assured Nebraska the honor of being the first school ever to win back-to-back Lombardi Trophies, presented annually by the Rotary Club of Houston.

Dave Rimington won the Outland in 1981 and 1982 and the Lombardi in 1982.

Larry Jacobson was Nebraska's first Outland winner, gaining the honor with the 1971 national championship team. Rich Glover won it in 1972, and also won the Lombardi that year, giving Nebraska the first back-to-back Outland sweep, a feat that would be accomplished again a decade later by Rimington, then Rimington and Steinkuhler.

Tom Novak's Jersey

Six Huskers Jerseys Retired

When I-back Mike Rozier won the 1983 Heisman Trophy while guard Dean Steinkuhler was claiming the Outland/Lombardi Trophy double, the two added their jersey numbers—30 and 71, respectively—to a list of four that had been retired earlier.

The Nebraska trophy case has thus added Nos. 30 and 71 to the No. 60 worn by Tom Novak, the No. 20 worn by Johnny Rodgers, the No. 79 worn by Rich Glover, and the No. 50 worn by Dave Rimington. Novak's jersey was retired following the 1949 season on a vote of the N Club after "Train Wreck" had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice as either a fullback or center and a 1949 All-American. Rodgers' and Glover's jerseys were retired following the 1972 season after Rodgers had won the Heisman and Glover had become the first of three Huskers to win both the Outland and Lombardi Trophies. Rimington's jersey was retired after the All-America center had won two Outland Trophies and the 1982 Lombardi.

Nebraska Lifter-of-the-Year

John Parrella

Senior defensive tackle John Parrella was the 1992 recipient of Nebraska's "Lifter-of-the-Year" award, given annually to the player who has shown the greatest dedication and improvement in the Cornhuskers' strength and conditioning program.

Boyd Epley, NU's strength and conditioning coach, said Parrella's 442-pound bench press and 632-pound squad lift lead the team. "John is a real force in the weight room," Epley said of the 6-foot-5, 290-pound graduate of Grand Island Central Catholic High School. "He is always energetic and upbeat about his work, and the results show. He should have a tremendous year, and at 290, he is strong enough to play in the NFL."

Nebraska defensive line coach Charlie McBride ranks Parrella among the three best defensive linemen he's coached in 16 years at Nebraska, along with former All-Americans Neil Smith and Danny Noonan.

The highest honor the National Collegiate Athletic Association can bestow on a student-athlete is to honor the student-athlete as one of "Today's Top Six." The award is based not only on outstanding athletic accomplishments, but on excellent academic records and leadership ability in community and campus activities.

In 1992, for the fourth-straight year, the University of Nebraska had one of its student-athletes named one of Today's Top Six, as volleyball star Janet Kruse was honored at the NCAA honors dinner at the association's annual convention at Anaheim, Calif.

Kruse's selection gave the Huskers six Top Six honorees in the last four years, as in both 1990 and 1992, two Cornhusker student-athletes received the award. Nebraska is the only school with more than one year with two selections.

She was Nebraska's ninth selection overall, two more than any other school (Southern California had its seventh Top Six winner in 1992). Five off Nebraska's Top Six picks were football players, making the Husker grid program the most-honored in the country.

A two-time GTE academic All-America volleyball player of the year, Kruse was a three-time U.S. Olympic Festival participant, a two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association first-team All-American, and a three-time All-Big Eight pick. The 1990 Big Eight Tournament most valuable player, she was the first Nebraska player to reach the 1,000 kills plateau as a junior.

Kruse, from Fort Calhoun, Neb., and a graduate of Blair (Neb.) High School, compiled a 3.897 grade-point average while majoring in biological science. She was a member of the 1991 Nebraska Health Center Governing Board, was chosen as the 1991 Nebraska female student leader of the year. She received her bachelor's degree in May. Last spring, she was selected by UNL Chancellor Graham Spanier to serve as the student representative on the search committee charged with finding a replacement for retiring Nebraska Athletic Director Bob Devaney.

Novak Trophy

Keithen McCant
1991 Winner

Quarterback Keithen McCant was voted the 1991 winner of the Tom Novak Trophy.

The trophy, established by J. Gordon Roberts in 1950, is presented to the Husker senior who "best exemplifies courage and determination despite all odds in the manner of Nebraska All-America center Tom Novak." Sportswriters and broadcasters who cover all Nebraska games vote on the award.

Football Hall Of Fame

Wayne Meylan

Wayne Meylan is Eighth Husker Player Enshrined in Grid Hall.

The late Wayne Meylan became the eighth former Cornhusker player to be enshrined in the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame last winter. Meylan was inducted posthumously during ceremonies at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York on Dec. 10.

Meylan, who was Nebraska's second two-time All-American (joining 1924-25 tackle Ed Weir, another Hall-of-Famer), was the All-America middle guard in 1966 and 1967. He was elected to the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1979.

A native of Bay City, Mich., Meylan made his fame as a middle guard for Hall of Fame Coach Bob Devaney after lettering as a tackle as a sophomore in 1966. He earned All-Big Eight honors his final two years, in addition to consensus All-American laurels. He becomes the first player from the Bob Devaney-Tom Osborne era to be inducted into the national Hall.

Following graduation from Nebraska, Meylan played two years with the Cleveland Browns and one year with the Minnesota Vikings of the NFL before injuries ended his career. He then became president of Wayne Meylan Enterprises in Omaha, a firm that had industrial contracts in 18 states. He was killed in a crash of a World War II fighter plane (which he had piloted in air shows) on June 26, 1987. His son, Wayne Jr., was an all-state offensive tackle at Elkhorn, Neb., High School and is a redshirt freshman in 1992.

Meylan still holds the Nebraska career defensive line records for total tackles (238) and unassisted tackles (118), as well as defensive line season records in both categories (119 and 59), both in 1967. He ranks ninth on the career total tackle list with 238. During his career, Meylan blocked three punts, two of which he recovered for touchdowns. He received the Tom Novak Trophy following the 1967 season and played in the Hula Bowl and the College All-Star Game before starting his NFL career.

Meylan joins Forrest Behm, Guy Chamberlin, Sam Francis, Bobby Reynolds, George Sauer, Clarence Swanson and Weir in the players division of the Hall. Five former Husker coaches are also in the Hall, including Devaney, Dana X. Bible, L. McC. "Biff" Jones, E.N. Robinson and Fielding H. Yost.

Chamberlin Trophy

Pat Engelbert
1991 Winner

Linebacker Pat Engelbert was the recipient of the 25th annual Guy Chamberlin Trophy, presented in January at the football awards banquet. The award, inaugurated in 1967 in memory of the former great Nebraska All-America football player who went to both the college and pro halls of fame, is presented to the senior player who has shown by the play and contributions to the betterment of the University of Nebraska football squad that he has the qualities and dedication of Guy Chamberlin to the great Cornhusker tradition.

Lincoln Radio Station KFOR donated the permanent trophy and each recipient receives a replica through funds contributed by the Chamberlin family and the Champ's many friends following his death in 1967. The Chamberlin Memorial Fund is administered by the University of Nebraska Foundation.

Nebraska Football Hall of Fame

Seven New Members to be Enshrined

A Rose Bowl team star, a former University of Omaha great, a mighty mite from the Bob Devaney era, two Tom Osborne-era standouts, and the first quarterback to achieve stardom in the Bill Glassford era have been elected to the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame.

The class will be inducted into the Nebraska Hall on Friday, Sept. 25, at a special ceremony sponsored by the Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. The new inductees will be introduced to the fans in a pre-game ceremony at the Arizona State game.

The 1992 inductees are:

- Fred Preston, an end on the 1940 Nebraska Rose Bowl team.
- Fran Nagle, quarterback star for Bill Glassford in 1949 and 1950.
- Frank Solich, All-Big Eight fullback for Bob Devaney in 1965 and current assistant head coach and running backs coach for the Cornhuskers.
- Rick Berns, All-Big Eight runningback for Tom Osborne in 1978.
- Tom Rathman, All-Big Eight fullback in 1985 and current star with the San Francisco 49ers.
- Bob Matthews, quarterback and halfback star for Omaha U. from 1939-41.
- Jim Dutcher, former coach at Doane College.

Nebraska Athletic Director Bob Devaney, who is retiring in January to become Athletic Director Emeritus, will receive the 1992 Clarence E. Swanson Memorial Award for his outstanding contributions to the Cornhusker gridiron tradition and program.

Longtime sportscaster and historian for the Nebraska Chapter, Jack Payne of Omaha, will receive the Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award for outstanding service.

1992 NFL Draft

Mitchell Leaves Early, Is Jets' No. 1 Pick

The first Nebraska player to opt to leave school early for the National Football League Draft, tight end Johnny Mitchell, saw his "gamble" pay off when the New York Jets took him in the first round.

It was the fifth time in six years that Nebraska had had at least one first-round NFL Draft pick.

The 15th selection overall, Mitchell was a two-time All-Big Eight selection at Nebraska, where he set a school tight end record with 31 pass receptions in 1991, for 534 yards and five touchdowns. In his last regular-season game, he caught seven passes for 137 yards, both NU tight end single-game records in the Huskers' come-from-behind win over Oklahoma.

In 1990, he became the first Nebraska freshman in 44 years to earn all-conference honors after averaging 25.6 yards on 11 receptions.

Mitchell was the first of seven Huskers taken in April's draft, matching NU's high in the last 12 drafts. The last time Nebraska had more than seven players selected was 1980, when 10 Cornhuskers were selected.

The next Husker to go was cornerback Tyrone Legette, to the New Orleans Saints in the third round. The Buffalo Bills then drafted wingback Nate Turner as a tight end in the sixth round.

Nebraska had two seventh-round selections, with split end Jon Bostick going to the Denver Broncos, and cornerback Curtis Cotton going to the Los Angeles Raiders.

In the 11th round, the New England Patriots chose linebacker Mike Petko, then in the 12th and final round, the Cleveland Browns selected quarterback Keithen McCant, the 1991 Big Eight offensive player-of-the-year.

Tight end Johnny Mitchell opted for the NFL Draft after his sophomore season, becoming the first Nebraska player to leave school early, and was a first-round selection by the New York Jets.

Nebraska Lettermen

1892-1991

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as we have been able to make it. Corrections and additions will and can be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926 but not in 1925. Letterman lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons.

Elmer Dohrmann Top NU Letterman

Elmer Dohrmann, named to Sports Illustrated's 1962 Silver All-America team, is Nebraska's all-time letter champion. Dohrmann won 11 letters from 1936 to 1939. He won monograms in football, basketball, track, and baseball in his sophomore and junior years and added football, baseball, and basketball letters his senior year before passing up track.

Multiple letter leaders:

Bob Russell	(1919-23)	9 letters
Steve Hokuf	(1929-33)	9 letters
Paul Amen	(1935-38)	9 letters
Willard Witte	(1927-30)	8 letters
Bob Cerv	(1946-50)	8 letters
Tom Novak	(1946-50)	7 letters
Mike DiBiase	(1946-50)	7 letters
Chuck Malito	(1972-76)	7 letters
Lee Kunz	(1975-80)	7 letters
Steve Elliott	(1978-82)	7 letters

Huskers who have won six letters during their careers since Dohrmann set the pace include: Lloyd Cardwell, Bob Mills, Ray Prochaska, Vic Schleich, Ken Hollins, Herb Reese, Bob Reynolds, Charles Bryant, Bill Hawkins, and Adrian Fiala.

Top letter-winner at Nebraska since WW II is Cerv, who lettered four years in basketball and baseball. The last Husker to match Amen by lettering in three sports during a single year was Hollins. "Buzz" tripled in football, basketball, and track during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 campaigns. The latest addition is Steve Elliott, who lettered four times in gymnastics and three times in diving.

Memorial Stadium

Nebraska's NCAA Sellout Record Hits 182 Consecutive Games

Nebraska's continuing NCAA record of consecutive home sell-outs hit the 182 mark with the Huskers' seven soldout home games in 1991. In 1988, Nebraska set a single-season home attendance record by averaging 76,342 fans for six home games, breaking the old record average of 76,341 set in 1974.

The string of consecutive sellouts started on Nov. 3, 1962, when 36,501 showed up for the Homecoming contest vs. Missouri. The last non-sellout in Memorial Stadium was Oct. 20, 1962, when the Huskers and Kansas State drew 30,701.

The Cornhuskers' Memorial Stadium has a seating capacity of 73,650 and attendance has averaged over 75,000 for the past 18 years. Nebraska has ranked in the top six, nationally, in attendance for many years.

As part of the continuing improvement of athletic facilities at the University of Nebraska, two major projects were completed in 1984 and 1985. A new artificial turf was installed in 1984 and the new million-dollar Hewitt Center training table/study hall area was opened in March of 1985, underneath the West Stadium adjacent to the massive new strength complex. The weight room and the Hewitt Center were expanded and remodeled in 1989. The artificial turf was replaced in 1984 and again in 1992.

Here is the chronological order of Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement from the original 31,000-seat structure built in 1923:

- 1946—Completion of Schulte Field House at north end of stadium (construction began in 1941, but was interrupted by World War II).
- 1964—South end-zone section installed, making the stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.
- 1965—Center portion of north end-zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.
- 1966—Both wings of the north end-zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.
- 1967—New press box, with guest section added, providing a beautiful and practical press facility.
- 1970—Installation of AstroTurf.
- 1972—South end-zone extended. 9,400 seats added, raising capacity to 73,650.
- 1973—Athletic office building completed, housing, dressing and training facilities for varsity football.
- 1977—Installation of new AstroTurf replacing the 1970 turf, and a new scoreboard over the north stadium.
- 1980—Completed top deck of press box for additional photo and visiting radio TV space.
- 1981—New west stadium weight room and new visitor's locker room in Schulte Field House.
- 1982—Expansion of Schulte Field House indoor practice area.
- 1984—New artificial All-Pro Turf playing surface installed.
- 1985—Completion of Hewitt Center (dining area/study hall) in West Stadium.
- 1989—Expansion of strength complex and Hewitt Center.
- 1992—New AstroTurf-8 artificial turf installed.

Husker Have Done Well in 69 Years at Memorial Stadium.

Nebraska football teams for the past 69 years have been glad to call Memorial Stadium home. Evidence for this is a 267-98-13 (.724) record posted by the Huskers in their home since it was opened in 1923.

Under the lights

Nebraska's first night football game was Nov. 30, 1951, at Miami's Orange Bowl when the Huskers lost to the Miami Hurricanes, 19-7. Ironically, Nebraska's first night football game at home was the 1986 opener against another team from the "Sunshine State," Florida State. Nebraska is 23-8-3 all-time under the lights, including 4-1-0 at home.

In 1991, Nebraska played eventual co-champions Miami and Washington. This was the second consecutive year the Huskers faced co-national champs (Georgia Tech and Colorado in 1991).—Washington photo courtesy of Lincoln Journal-Star.

Notes on the Associated Press Poll: The rankings indicated in all instances above are those at the time of the game, with Nebraska's to the left of the slash and the opponent's to the right. A slash alone means neither team was ranked at the time of the game. Early-season games from 1936-49 have no slash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936-60 and 1968-88, AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961-67 the top 10, and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, is Football Rankings, College teams in the Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C.; McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

A Brief History of the University of Nebraska

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is one of the nation's most dynamic universities. Rich in pioneering history and spirit, the University was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869. The University established the first graduate program west of the Mississippi River in the mid-1880s and was selected for membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities in 1909.

Over the years, alumni such as Willa Cather, Mari Sandoz and Roscoe Pound have enriched the University's tradition of leadership and scholarly excellence. Other illustrious alumni include two Nobel Prize winners—George Beadle and Donald Cram, anthropologist Loren Eiseley, scientist and inventor Harold Edgerton, and entertainer Johnny Carson.

Today, more than 24,000 students from all parts of the world attend classes on UNL's City and East Campuses in Lincoln, Nebraska's All-American capital city.

The University is the intellectual center of the region. As Nebraska's comprehensive, land-grant university, UNL serves a tripartite mission of teaching, research and service.

Quality instruction is emphasized in UNL's eight undergraduate colleges and the professional graduate College of Law. The Colleges of Agriculture, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering and Technology, Home Economics, Journalism and Teachers College offer more than 100 degree programs leading to career opportunities in the arts, the sciences, the humanities, and the professions. The UNL faculty includes many prominent scholars.

In research, UNL faculty and students stand at the forefront of discovery in many fields. Among well-known research activities at the University are projects involving mass spectrometry, cell biology, electronic and optical storage materials, superconductivity, materials science, speech pathology and audiology, genetics, biochemistry, transportation, videodisc development, educational television, livestock and crop production, agricultural meteorology and climate studies, conservation, meat technology, animal and plant health food processing, agricultural marketing and economics.

In service, UNL reaches thousands of citizens each year through programs conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service and the Division of Continuing Studies. The Cooperative Extension Service provides all Nebraskans with information and assistance in agriculture and natural resources, home economics and family living, 4-H and youth development and community resource development. Continuing Studies offers alternatives to formal on-campus education with programs such as summer reading, evening classes, independent study by correspondence, telecourses and study tours.

Modern educational facilities and a diverse cultural life add to the environment for teaching and learning at UNL.

The Lincoln campus is home to the nationally-renowned Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery and Sculpture Garden, the Lied Center for Performing Arts, the University of Nebraska State Museum, the Christlieb Collection of Western Art and to the University's championship Big Eight Conference men's and women's athletic teams.

An exciting university with a tradition of historic excellence, a quality presence and a dynamic future: That's the University of Nebraska!

UNL Campus Points of Interest

Lied Center for Performing Arts:

The Lied Center is a brand-new state-of-the-art performing arts facility designed to be a regional showcase for major regional, national and international events. It has a 2,210-seat auditorium, and the smaller Johnny Carson Theater for public performances and rehearsals. The 15,000-square-foot building also includes conference rooms, teaching spaces and other facilities. The perfect acoustics and design of the auditorium make it an instrument in itself.

Museum: The University of Nebraska State Museum has an outstanding collection of fossil mammals and is world-renowned for its Elephant Hall. There are galleries of health science, Nebraska wildlife, zoology, geology and anthropology. In addition to its exhibits on three floors of Morrill Hall at 14th and U Streets, the museum has extensive research collections in Nebraska Hall.

Art: The Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery has one of the finest collections on a university campus. Its sculpture garden is also one of the finest in the nation.

Music: School of Music students and faculty perform regularly in Kimball Recital Hall, the Lied Center, and throughout the state. There is an active schedule of concerts by University choral and instrumental groups, musical theater productions and a wide range of musical and dance events by visiting artists.

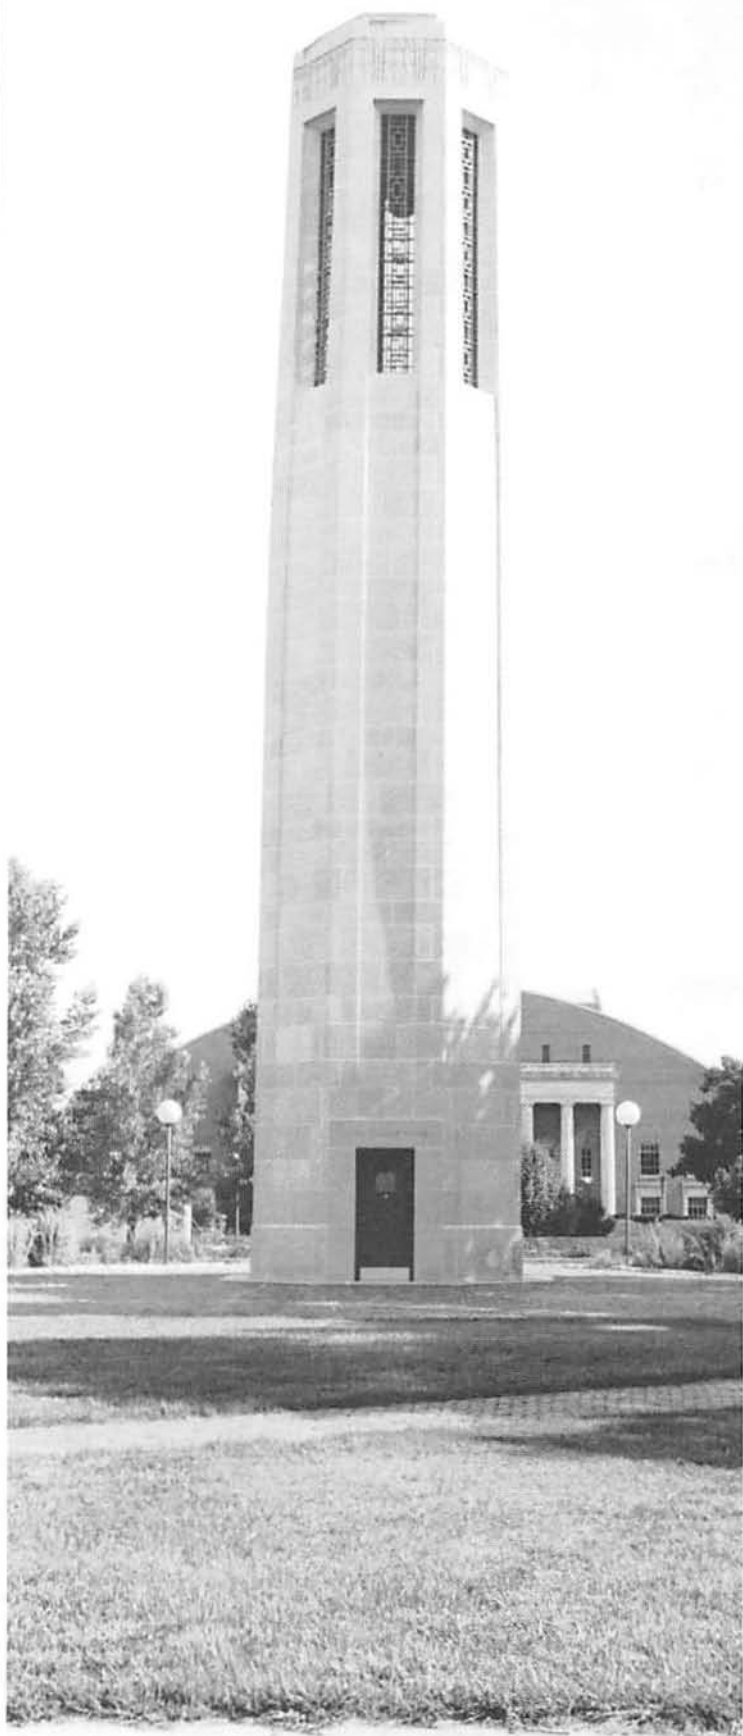

Theater: During the school year, there are periodic performances by University companies in Howell Memorial and Studio Theaters in the Temple Building, and in the Lied Center. The Nebraska Repertory Theater, a theater that employs both students and professional actors, directors and other theater professionals, performs throughout the summer months.

Carillon Tower: Built in 1948, the gift of alumnus Ralph S. Mueller, the tower has become a symbol of the UNL campus. It houses a two-and-one-half-octave electronic English bells carillon, played on ceremonial occasions from a keyboard.

Historical Museum: The State Historical Society has its museum near the UNL campus. It features Nebraska lore dating from early Indian relics.

Center for Continuing Education: Conference and hotel facilities at 33rd and Holdrege Streets provide a site for hundreds of adult and youth meetings each year. Continuing education programs are planned by a professional staff. The Center was financed through a grant from the Kellogg Foundation and by public support.

Planetarium: Public sky shows are presented regularly throughout the year. Special shows are also provided for University classes and visiting school groups.

Cornhusker Legend

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters. But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and help originate the Associated Press poll, tired of referring to the Nebraska teams with such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters. Iowa had, from time to time, been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Sherman.

Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Sherman started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska byword, eventually becoming the official nickname for the state.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

The cartoon character, "Herbie Husker" (left), evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the 1974 Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Texas, designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character who now serves as a mascot for all Husker men's teams.

"Herbie" is the registered logo of the Cornhusker Athletic Department, which controls its use. Artists West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the athletic and the agricultural traditions of the University of Nebraska.

In recent years, the University has also used the Cornhuskers' football helmet superimposed on a script "Huskers" for a football logo (below left). It is also a registered trademark of the Athletic Department.

University of Nebraska Licensing Program

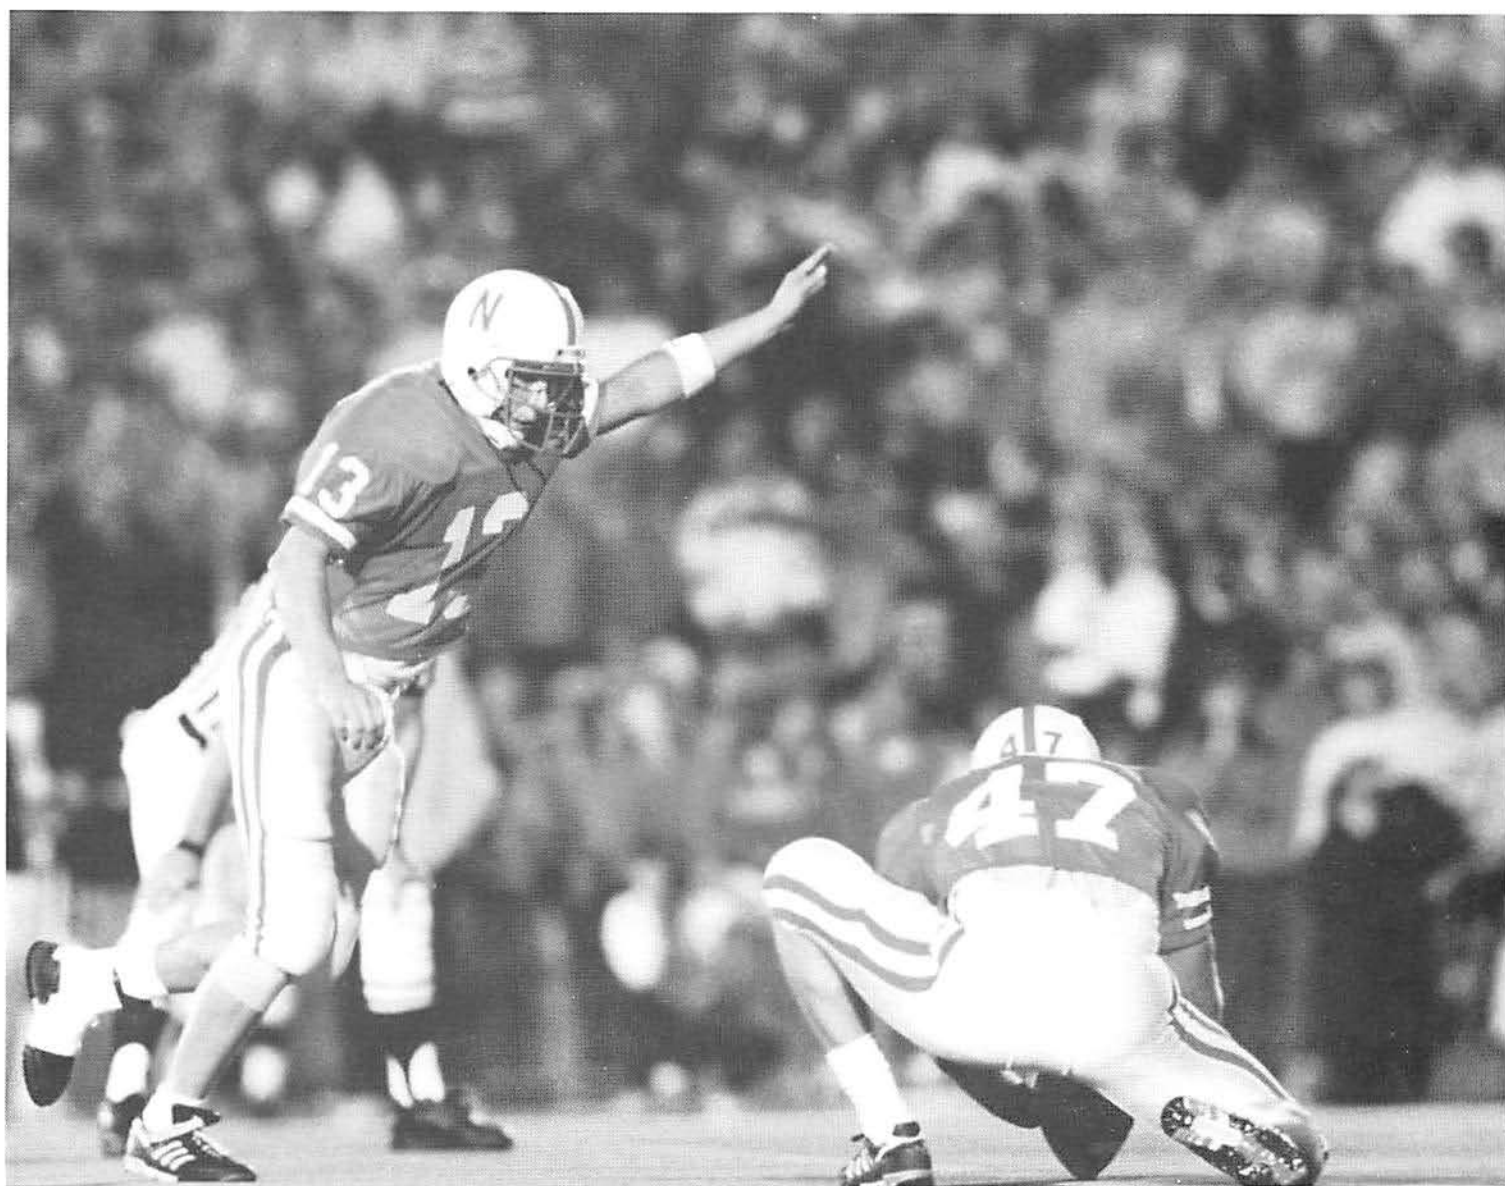

In 1981, the University began a licensing program to protect the use of its name and symbols, and to ensure that the public properly identify and associate University logos on products bearing the institution's marks. The licensing program is further designed to establish a cooperative relationship with licensees to assist in the development of a market of "Officially Licensed Products of the University of Nebraska." Since its inception, the program has been very successful, receiving cooperation from manufacturers, retailers, and consumers in setting and maintaining high standards. The University has joined a consortium of other universities throughout the country to bring about consistency in the marketplace for officially licensed collegiate products, protect the names and logos of the universities and to generate additional revenue support for the scholarship programs of those universities.

Look for the Label

How does one tell if merchandise seen in stores or on the street is authorized by the University? Just look for the "Officially Licensed Collegiate Products" label shown above. If the label is not there, the merchandise is not licensed. For further licensing information, please contact:

Big Eight Schedule to be Determined

Memorial Stadium Press Box.

Media Information

Media Credentials: All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials should be directed to Don Bryant, Assistant Athletic Director, 103 South Stadium, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb. 68588. Requests should be made in writing on appropriate letterhead at least one week prior to the game. Requests via fax are acceptable (see fax information below). As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska Press Box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for Sunday publication; (2) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel for broadcast originations; (4) official school student daily newspaper, one seat and/or sideline only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers. Weekly press representatives and non-originating radio representatives cannot be accommodated in the Press Box because of space limitations. Free-lance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials.

Media Will Call: In most cases, credentials will be mailed. Credentials that are not mailed will be held in the Nebraska Sports Information Office (Room 116 in the South Stadium Office Building) from 9-11:30 a.m. on game day, after which they will be held at the Press Will-Call window located outside at the west end of the South Stadium Building. Credentials, including parking, may be picked up Friday until 4:30 p.m. at the Sports Information Office.

Media Access: The easiest Memorial Stadium access for the media is the Press Gate (Gate 8) on the west side of the stadium, directly under the Press Box and located a few feet north of the Press Box elevator. The working press area is at Level 1 in the Press Box. Photo and television decks can be reached via Level 2.

Media Parking: Parking at Memorial Stadium is always at a premium, with a limited number of spaces allocated to the media. Media parking is in the lot to the east of the intersection of 10th and T Streets, at the south end of the stadium. Early arrival is strongly suggested. No cars will be admitted to the media lot later than one hour and 15 minutes before kickoff. No cars will be admitted without a media parking pass.

Tuesday Media Luncheons:

Each Tuesday during the football season (except weeks of open dates), Nebraska hosts a media luncheon in the N Club Lounge on the first floor of the South Stadium Office Building. A sandwich buffet lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., followed by Coach Tom Osborne's weekly news conference at 12 noon. The news conference will end by 1 p.m., and requested Nebraska players will be available afterward, pending class and meeting schedules. Participating media requesting Nebraska players must do so on Monday.

Tom Osborne Teleconference: Out-of-town media wishing to participate in the weekly Tom Osborne news conference may do so via telephone by contacting the Nebraska Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) no later than Monday afternoon. A University operator will connect participants shortly before noon Central time. A limited number of lines is available and, in the event demand exceeds supply, priority will be given to those who have requested credentials to that week's game.

Media Hotels: The University of Nebraska Sports Information Office reserves a limited number of hotel rooms for out-of-state media for home football weekends. The rooms may be requested through the office of Assistant Athletic Director Don Bryant (402-472-5959), but requests must be made by noon on the Wednesday the week of the game. Credit card numbers will be requested to confirm late arrivals.

Stadium Directions: Memorial Stadium is located on the east side of 10th Street, between T Street on the south and Avery Avenue on the north. To reach it from Lincoln Municipal Airport, turn right on Northwest 12th Street as you drive out of the airport. Northwest 12th becomes Cornhusker Highway, which intersects with Interstate 180. Exit south (down-town) onto I-180, which empties onto one-way, southbound, Ninth Street in downtown Lincoln. Drive two blocks and turn left at P Street (just past the Lincoln Journal & Star Building), go one block and turn left on 10th Street, then keep to the right for four blocks to Memorial Stadium (DO NOT enter I-180 north). From Omaha's Eppley Airfield, follow the signs to downtown Omaha and Interstate 480. Take I-480 west to Interstate 80, then take I-80 west approximately 60 miles to I-180. Exit south (down-town) on I-180, and follow the above directions.

Sports Information Office: The University of Nebraska Sports Information Office is in Room 116 of the South Stadium Office Building, which is located under the south stands of Memorial Stadium. Room 116 is to the left inside the building's main entrance, at the foot of the stairs.

Interview Policy: During the season, the only times Coach Tom Osborne will be available for media interviews during the week will be at the Tuesday news conferences and on the field after practice each day. Coach Osborne is also available each Monday on the Big Eight Briefing teleconference. Please contact the Big Eight office (816-471-5088) for details. Nebraska players are available for interviews in person or by telephone after practice until two days before a game during the season (i.e., through Wednesday for a Saturday game). Depending on class and meeting schedules, players are often available before practice, but requests must be made at least one day in advance. All requests for player interviews must go through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263). No player interviews will be granted on the two days prior to a game, or prior to the game on gameday. No interviews are to be conducted on the lower level of the South Stadium Office Building, including the hallway and the tunnel leading to the field. Interviews with assistant coaches in their offices on the second floor of the South Stadium Building must be set up in advance either through the coach or Sports Information.

Daily Practices: During the season, Nebraska practices are normally conducted in Memorial Stadium starting at 3 p.m. All practices are closed to the public and the media after the first 15 minutes. Media wishing to interview Coach Tom Osborne or Nebraska players after practice should come to the Sports Information Office shortly before the end of practice and be escorted to the field. Practices usually last two hours, but the length sometimes varies, so media should check with Sports Information (402-472-2263) at about 4 p.m. to verify the time practice ends that day.

Post-game Interviews:

Nebraska's locker room is closed after games, both home and away, but Coach Tom Osborne and requested players and assistant coaches will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. For home games, only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after the game, but Coach Osborne and requested personnel will be brought to the N Club Lounge in the South Stadium Office Building. Admittance to the interview area will be by media credential only. Media members may reach the N Club Lounge through the center door of the South Stadium Building. For away games, the best available interview area will be used. Requests for player and assistant coach interviews, home and away, will be taken by Associate SID Chris Anderson at the end of the third quarter. Non-requested players making significant plays in the fourth quarter will be added as a matter of course.

Pro Scouting Tickets: Per Big Eight Conference rules, the University of Nebraska does not provide Press Box access or media credentials for professional scouts. Scouts may arrange through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) to purchase high-row tickets for Nebraska home games. Tickets will be held in Will Call in the South Stadium Ticket Office unless other arrangements are made.

Big Eight Satellite Feed: Videotape highlights of Nebraska football games are available weekly during the football season via the Big Eight Conference satellite uplink. The half-hour feed runs each Tuesday, Sept. 3-Nov. 19 at 3 p.m., Central time. Coordinates for the feed were not available at press time, so please contact Nebraska Sports Information (402-472-2263) or the Big Eight Office (816-471-5088) for the coordinates.

Telephones: Nebraska provides some 22 modular telephones for media use in the Memorial Stadium Press Box, 17 on the first row of the main press area, two more on the second row, and three on tables in the rear of the press area. All long-distance calls must be credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Any media sources wishing to install a private telephone in the Press Box should contact University of Nebraska Telecommunications (402-472-2000) at least two weeks prior to the game.

Press Box Services: The Nebraska Sports Information Office will provide game programs, pre-game notes, flip cards and media guides prior to the game. Play-by-play accounts, quarter "flash" stats, final stats, player and coach post-game quotes from both locker rooms, and post-game notes are distributed as they become available, as are complete sets of all of the above. A verbal play-by-play account of down and distance is provided over the interior public address system. Injury information, record and stat updates, and scores of other games are also provided, as available. A complimentary meal is served, normally starting two hours before kickoff and ending one-half hour before kickoff. Soft drinks are available until the Press Box closes. A Sports Information Office representative will be in the Press Box until all visiting writers have finished.

Big Eight Sideline Policies: The Big Eight Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as clear of people as possible. All sideline photographers must have a sideline armband and a media tag, and both must be clearly visible. Armbands can be picked up in the Press Box prior to game time—providing photographers have made prior arrangements. The Big Eight sideline control policy: (1) Only those photographers on assignment from a newspaper, magazine, television station, or a participating institution, are given credentials. Each student publication shall be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass. (2) Only those newspapers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests shall be submitted to the Assistant Athletic Director for his review, but such requests, if honored, will be limited to one photo pass). (3) Outline writers, equipment carriers, and/or other so-called "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline. (4) Photographers must display their credentials (media tag and armband) at all times. Failure to do so will result in expulsion from the stadium. (5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sidelines to insure that all credentials are properly displayed and to watch for any abuse of privileges by photographers. Those possessing bench passes must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines). (6) Photographers may not enter the bench area at any time. (7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writers' section of the Press Box during halftime.

FAX access: The Nebraska Sports Information Office has an automatic fax machine which can transmit or receive documents. The telephone number for the fax is 402-472-2005. The machine is available, on request, in the Press Box after the game, with a $10 fee payable to the operator.

Jack Payne, Kent Pavelka, and Gary Sadlemyer of the Nebraska Football Network

Husker Football Network Enters Tenth Season

The Nebraska Football Network will be in its 10th year of operation in 1992 and is expected to feed a record 46 stations in Nebraska and 13 other states.

Kent Pavelka will be back for his 19th season as part of the football broadcasts, his ninth as the play-by-play "Voice of the Huskers." Pavelka, sports director and operations manager at network flagship station KFAB in Omaha, also called Husker basketball for KFAB and the Nebraska Basketball Network for 15 seasons prior to 1989-90, and is a six-time Nebraska Sportscaster-of-the-Year.

Pavelka's color man will be Gary Sadlemyer of KFAB. Another KFAB veteran, Jack Payne, will continue to help out in the broadcast booth, while two-time state sportscaster-of-the-year Larry Moehlenbrink of Lincoln's KFOR and KFAB's Terry Leahy will provide sideline reports. Sadlemyer will also team with NU assistant athletic director and sports information director Don Bryant on the post-game locker room show.

The 46 stations on the network include 29 in Nebraska and 17 from out-of-state.

Memorial Stadium

(1923-present) . . . Home of the Big Red for 70 Years!

- Every time Nebraska plays football at home, Memorial Stadium becomes the third largest population area in the State of Nebraska (behind Omaha and Lincoln). When the Huskers play at Memorial Stadium, six percent of the state's population gathers to watch.
- Nebraska's Press Box cost over $500,000 in 1967, but no tax funds were used. Husker Award members pledged additional funds (above scholarship contributions) to help provide the structure, which has 316 theater seats in the enclosed Section 300 donor area.
- There are three different levels in the Nebraska Press Box:
 - Level 1—Writers, radio, scoreboard, dining, statistics and public address.
 - Level 2—Section 300, photo areas, Chancellor's Box, Snack Bar.
 - Level 3—Television, photo, radio booths, security.
- The Nebraska Press Box fund was also aided by donors in Section 200, located underneath the structure in the West Balcony area of the old press box.

■ Nebraska has an NCAA record string of 182 consecutive sellouts dating back to 1962.
